A dyer, in a court of justice, was ordered to hold up his hand, which was completely black. "Take off your glove, friend," said the Judge. "Put on your spectacles, my lord," answered the dyer.

A French General well known in English circles who had the misfortune to be bald-headed, said that he wished to make a present to a lady, and to give her something rare. "Give her a lock of your hair," said a friend.

HORRIBLE AFFAIR IN CALIFORNIA.—San Francisco, Sept. 6th.—The opposition steamboat Washoe exploded her boiler in Sacramento river last night. Her upper works were shattered, and her stern blown quite off. One hundred and fifty passengers were either killed or wounded. Fifty persons are already dead, or will soon die. The boat was running at a high rate of speed. The engineer said, before dying, that the cause in the explosion was rotten iron in the boiler.

☞ Mr. Campbell, late editor and proprietor of the Milton Champion, has retired from that journal, which is now in the hands of Messrs. Matheson and Hunter.

☞ On Sunday afternoon the Globe states that an infant was found dead in a room, in Richmond street, with its parents lying on each side of it in a beastly state of intoxication.

The Alymer, (C. E.) 'Times' has the following, with reference to the seat of government question.—At a full meeting of the Executive Council, held last week, it was decided that the next Session of Parliamnnt will be held at Quebec, and that the removal to Ottawa will not take place until next spring. The vote was even—six for six against—and only carried by the Governor casting his vote in favor of remaining where they are. It is presumed there are good grounds for this decision, but we are not aware of them. It is said that the Hon. Mr. Galt has sent in his resignation in consequence; having pledged his honor to the Ottawa members that the many prom ses of removal this Fall would be faithfully kept.

Eight to Sixteen.

Lord Shaftesbury recently stated in a public meeting in London, that from personal observation, he had ascertained that of adult male criminals of that city, nearly all had fallen into a course of crime between the ages of eight and sixteen years; and that if a young man lived an honest life up to twenty years of age, there were forty-nine chances in favor, and only one against him, as to an honorable life hereafter.

This is a fact of singular importance to fathers and mothers, and shows a fearful responsibility. Certainly, a parent should secure and exercise absolute control over the child under sixteen. It cannot be a difficult matter to do this, except in rare cases; and if that control is not very wisely and efficiently exercised, it must be the parents' fault; it is owing to the parental neglect or remissness. Hence the real source of ninety-eight per cent. of the real crime in a country such as England or the United States lies at the door of parents. It is a fearful reflection! We throw it before the minds of the fathers and mothers of our land, and there leave it to be thought of in wisdom, remarking only as to the early seeds of bodily disease, that they are in nearly every case sown between sundown and bedtime, in absence from the family circle; in the supply of spending money never earned by the spender—opening the doors of confectioneries and soda-fountains, of beer and tobacco and wine shops, of the circus, the negro minstrel, the restaurant, and dance—then follows the Sunday excursion, the Sunday drive, with the easy transition to the company of those whose ways lead to the gates of social, physical and moral ruin. From eight to sixteen—in these few years—are the destinies of children fixed in forty-nine cases out of fifty—fixed by the parents! Let every father and mother solemnly vow, "By God's help, I'll fix my darling's destiny for good, by making home more attractive than the streets!"

LOUISVILLE, September 6.—An official despatch received at Nashville, announces that in the late fight before Atlanta the Confederates lost 3,000 killed and wounded, and lost 2,000 prisoners, including a Brig.-Gen., ten guns and a large amount of camp equipage. Our loss was trifling. The Confederates are retreating in great haste. Official information from the front, dated Sunday, 27 miles below Atlanta, represents that Gen Sherman is rapidly pushing southward of Atlanta.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—10.30 p.m.—To Major-General Dix:—This department is still without any despatches from the south of Nashville. It is supposed to be Sherman's design to withdraw his advance columns and give his army rest in Atlanta and re-establish himself securely there, and restore his railroad communications broken by Wheeler and Forrest before making further advances. No operations by the armies of General Grant or Gen. Sheridan are reported to-day.

(Signed), E. M. STANTON,

A VISION—THE REBEL ARMY IN THE SKIES.—A number of the good people at Plum Creek and at Emrich's tavern have been startled by a vision of a most marvellous character. The story is that on Monday morning last the skies exhibited a scene which appeared like a large army moving in a northeasterly direction. Men in uniforms, with muskets and knapsacks, could be distinguished from privates. Strange to say, some of the good people up Shamokin creek, six miles from the other parties, also saw the same marvellous exhibition about the same time, and others west of the Susquehanna were equally fortunate. Some of these profess to have seen the rebel flag, or a dark flag, while others of the fortunate spectators out on the turnpike think the uniform of the soldiers was of a bluish color. We have heard the names of more than a dozen persons who protess to have witnessed this apparition, all of them respectable individuals.—Sunbury (Pa) American.

☞ A curious accident, from wearing a hoop skirt, occurr d in Cincinnati a few days since. A Mrs. Gregg, in the absence of her husband, carried a pail of water to the horse. When entering the stall, the horse, in kicking off flies, put his foot through the hoop skirt of the woman, when in her endeavors to get clear of the horse, she had her leg broken by a kick, and was otherwise badly injured. A sister coming to the rescue was also severely kicked—having her shoulder-blade broken and her side bruised.

SUPPOSED CONFEDERATE CRUISER.—Halifax, Sept. 8.—About two o'clock yesterday thee steamer Franconia, when about ten miles south-east of Cape Sable, sighted a suspicious looking steamer; apparently under canvass, but which soon, under steam, endeavored to head the Franconia off. The latter succeeded in getting within proper limits. The privateer first hoisted the British colors, and afterwards others which those on board the Franconia were unable to make out. The supposed pirate is a barque-rigged vessel with fore and main spencers, long lower masts, and one smoke-stack painted lead color.

WOMAN'S ADVANTAGES.—A woman says what she pleases without being knocked down for saying it. She can wear corsets if too thick, other fixings if two thin. She can paint her face if it be too pale, or powder it if it be too red. She can take a snooze after dinner, while her husband goes to his business. She can stay at home in time of war, and get married again if her husband is killed. She can go down street without being asked to treat at every saloon. She can be divorced from her husband whenever she sees one that she likes better.

"John, what's a nailer?" inquired a dominie of a hopeful pupil. "A man who makes nails," was the ready reply. "Very good, now what is a tailor?" "One who makes tails," was the equally ready reply. "Oh! you blockhead, a man who makes tails! did you ever?" said the dominie, biting his lips. "To be sure," quoth the young phenomenon; "if the tailor didn't make tails, the coats would be all jackets." "Ah! well, to be sure, I didn't think of that," replied the dominie.

MONTREAL, Sept 9.

Leeming & Buchanan's Weekly Report says: Our last English advices are down to 27 ult., reporting no changes in Produce, though a decided improvement in Provisions. The report of the English crops are still conflicting; the impression we gather is, that it is barely an average, with the prospect of a large winter consumption. Our most active staples here, are Butter and Cheese, both which are dearer this week with large orders remaining unfilled.

Flour—Our market is firm but quiet. Strong fresh ground supers are in good request at 20c above our highest figures. Bag Flour worth $2.50 per 112 lbs.

Wheat—Week's receipts shew further decrease of 31,493 bushels, compared with last year; decrease in shipments this year, 1.23 ,065 bushels. No transactions have occurred worth mentioning. The disastrous results of late English shipments have discouraged all speculation, and receipts are now for Millers' use.

Flour—market dull heavy, the to 25c lower; $9.55 to $9.80; Canadian flour dull and lower, $10.15 to 11.90. Wheat 3c to 4c lower, $2 20—
