The Toronto Liberals hold a mass meeting on the evening of the 22nd inst., when Hon. Oliver Mowat, Hon. A. S. Hardy and S. H. Blake will speak.

A SWAP IN WEST ALGOMA.

PORT ARTHUR, May 14.—Mr. Hall, of Rat Portage, having declined the Conservative nomination for West Algoma, the Conservative caucus held here to-day nominated Mr. Geo. H. Macdonell, the agent for the Hamilton Powder Company, who is said to have accepted.

At a Liberal meeting last night the hall was crowded, Mr. Conmee speaking for two hours to a very attentive audience.

MR. MEREDITH AT PICTON.

PICTON, May 14.—Mr. Meredith reached Picton this afternoon in company with Mr. Johnson, the Conservative candidate for Prince Edward county, Dr. Willoughby and Dr. Boulter. The Conservatives had billed two meetings, one for the afternoon and one for the evening, in the skating rink, a building capable of holding 1,500 people. When Mr. Mowat was here the same building was so crowded that Mr. Ross had to address an overflow meeting in the market. At the meeting this afternoon there were not more than a few hundred present.

Mr. Meredith spoke for about twenty minutes, denouncing Archbishop Cleary's pastorals and the Roman Catholic hierarchy, and the Government's policy on the separate schools and the French schools. The evening meeting was more largely attended, numbering 500 or 600.

OPPOSITION TO MR. A. F. WOOD.

BELLEVILLE, May 14.—It is stated that Mr. A. F. Wood, the late Conservative member for North Hastings, will have opposition in the person of one of the most influential Conservatives in the ranks of the party, a prominent farmer and Orangeman.

EAST SIMCOE REFORMERS.

COLLINGWOOD, May 14.—A large and enthusiastic convention of the Reformers of West Simcoe was held here this afternoon to nominate a candidate to contest the riding of West Simcoe at the Provincial elections. There were over 100 delegates present from the different municipalities composing the riding, and, judging from the spirit, enthusiasm and unanimity displayed, Dr. Wylie, the Conservative candidate, will not have such a walk-over as he anticipated. The following gentlemen were nominated: W. J. Frame, Collingwood; Joseph Hood, Creemore; Dr. Jakeway, Stayner; John Birnie, jun., B.C.L., LL.B., Collingwood; Neil Harkins, Sunnidale; Elihu Stewart, P.L.S., Collingwood; Henry Robertson, LL.B., Q.C., and Dr. J. G. Sutherland. Several of the proposed candidates, after short addresses, retired, leaving Messrs. Frame, Hood and Dr. Sutherland still in the field. After a ballot had been taken, Mr. Joseph Hood of Creemore, was declared the candidate, and his nomination was then made unanimous by a standing vote of the convention. Amidst rousing cheers Mr. Hood was called to the platform and delivered a short but inspiring address, wherein he accepted the nomination and exhorted his hearers to rally round the flag and fight for principle and victory. The convention then selected officers as follows: President, Henry Robertson, Q.C., LL.B.; vice-president, Dr. Sutherland, Alliston; secretary, J. H. Jacks, Stayner; treasurer, A. C. McIntyre, Stayner. After three cheers for the Queen, the Mowat Government and the candidate the meeting dispersed.

A "COOKED" TORY REPORT.

SEAFORTH, May 14.—There is considerable indignation here over a false and misleading report in to-day's Empire of the Conservative meeting held here last evening. The report was written by Mr. Holmes, the Tory candidate, imported from Toronto to run in South Huron. The meeting was fairly well attended, but none were turned away for want of room, and at least three-fourths of those present were supporters of the Mowat Government. A prominent clergyman of decidedly Conservative proclivities, who was present at last night's meeting, declared at the close, "That man is an ass," referring to the young man who is declared in the Empire to-day as likely to defeat Mr. Bishop in South Huron. In his address Mr. Holmes claimed that he was the originator of the Equal Rights movement and as such should be returned to support Mr. Meredith. Scores of respectable Conservatives have declared themselves disgusted with the action of the Conservative organizer, Mr. Birmingham, for putting up such a candidate as Mr. Holmes is proving himself to be.

NORTH LANARK CONSERVATIVES.

ALMONTE, May 14.—A convention of the Conservative Association for North Lanark was held to-day at Clayton, when the following were nominated: R. F. Preston, M.D., Carleton Place; Jas. Rosamond, jun., Almonte; Wm. Thoburn, Mayor of Almonte; B. Rosamond, Almonte; Jas. Donald, Dalhousie; D. Sheppard, Carleton Place. All retired in favor of Dr. Preston.

TORONTO TORIES.

TORONTO, May 14.—The Conservative Convention at Shaftesbury Hall resulted much as had been expected, both in the party and outside it. Messrs. E. F. Clarke and H. E. Clarke received a unanimous renomination. Ald. E. A. Macdonald was also nominated, but withdrew.

PARRY SOUND REFORM NOMINATION.

BURK'S FALLS, May 14.—A most enthusiastic Reform Convention was held here yesterday. There were 118 delegates present, every part of the district being represented. The names placed before the convention were those of Messrs. Jas. H. Sharp, Wm. Armstrong and W. H. Pratt. Mr. Sharp was the choice of the convention on a ballot, and the choice was made unanimous, the other nominees pledging themselves to do their best to secure the return of Mr. Sharp.

WEST ALGOMA.

PORT ARTHUR, May 14.—The Conservatives here are much chagrined at the withdrawal of Richard Hall, of Rat Portage, who was nominated as the Conservative candidate in Algoma West. Mr. Hall says his business will not allow him to run.

AT HYDE PARK.

Richard Tooley and the Tory Heelers Hold a Meeting—Speeches in Mr. Mowat's Behalf.

HYDE PARK, May 14.—Mr. Tooley and his friends held a meeting Tuesday night which was fairly well attended, fully half of the audience being Reformers.

Mr. Thos. Rutledge was called to the chair, and after airing himself for about half an hour on the boundary award in such a way as none but he could do, succeeded in clothing the matter with a great deal of mystery. He then called upon Mr. Elson, who took up his time discussing French schools and schoolbooks.

Mr. Tooley was the next speaker, and repeated for one half hour the speech he made the previous evening in London West, and who declared that he stood on every plank of Meredith's platform.

An invitation was then extended to any friends of Mr. Purdom, whereupon Mr. McMurchie took the platform and, after a great deal of coaxing, was allowed 30 minutes to address the meeting. He reflected in scathing terms on the conduct of the Tory heelers in London West the previous evening, and amused the audience when he told them that Mr. Tooley had informed him the night before in answer to a question that he would "have no meeting to-night." He hastily reviewed the policy of the Government financially and otherwise, showing their record to be clean and sound, pointing out that it had been so pure that Mr. Meredith himself could find no fault with it when he enunciated his platform in his London speech. He showed the inconsistencies of the Tory party to the amusement of the audience. He discussed the separate school question at some length, proving beyond question that the Catholics were allowed no special privileges. He quoted from the speech made by Sir John A. Macdonald on the Jesuit question, where he claimed for himself and his party the credit of establishing separate schools. Mr. McMurchie showed how those who supported Sir John then attempted to shoulder the responsibility of establishing separate schools upon Mr. Mowat and his party. He asserted that "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none" had been Mr. Mowat's motto in the whole management of the schools.

He was followed by Mr. Macklin, the discarded candidate of North Middlesex, who wearied the audience with his petty criticisms on the purchases made for public institutions. He called himself an expert in shirtings and pins, and with his $100 worth of pins did not have a point. He attempted to discuss the separate school amendments, but when challenged to the proof ran away from the question and brought his speech shortly to a close.

Mr. Steele, a school teacher with a grievance, was the next speaker, but owing to his indistinct enunciation no one could tell what he said.

Mr. Macmillan closed the meeting.

For the house, the laundry and the workshop Cottam's Washing Compound is just splendid. It saves soap, clothes, time and labor. Three packets for 5 cents. All grocers can supply it. 6tf

PRICE OF SCHOOL BOOKS.

A Former London Bookseller Exposes Some Slanders.

What the Ontario Government Has Saved to Parents.

Mr. N. T. Wilson, a former well-known bookseller in this city, and now of Toronto, writes to the Toronto papers reiterating the statement that the Executive Committee of the Ontario Booksellers' Association recently expressed the united opinion that the school books provided by the Ontario Government are excellent in make-up and in value, and are cheap. Mr. Wilson is a member of the executive of the association named, and therefore should know what he is talking about. In speaking of the school books, he says:

In regard to the quality and cheapness of the present text books as compared with those in use before the present Minister assumed charge of the Educational Department, I think there can be no two opinions among booksellers who have sold both series. Take for example the new public school grammar and compare it with the one in use five years ago. The former weighs 8 ounces and the latter only 5 ounces, a difference of 6 per cent. in the weight alone. The quality of the materials employed in the manufacture of the new book is also much superior. Now, if a book weighing 5 ounces is worth 25 cents, surely a book weighing 60 per cent. heavier and composed of better material should be worth 60 per cent. more, or 40 cents, yet there has been no advance in price. Probably 200,000 copies of the new public school grammar have been printed during the past five years. If the price to the public had been advanced to meet the increased quantity and improved quality of the material used they would have had to pay $30,000 more than they have paid.

200,000 5-ounce grammars at 25 cents.....$50,000
200,000 8-ounce grammars at 40 cents.....80,000

Is not the Minister of Education entitled to some praise for saving this large sum of money to the people of Ontario?

Again, take the new public school arithmetic and compare it with the one in use at the time the present Minister took office. The former weighs 7½ ounces and the latter only 5 ounces, a difference of 50 per cent. in weight in favor of the new arithmetic. As in the case of the grammar, the material and workmanship of the new books are far in advance of the old. Yet no advance has been made in price. If the public had been charged in proportion to the increased quantity of material used in the new book $25,000 more would have been paid by the people:

200,000 5-ounce arithmetics at 25c.....$50,000
200,000 7½-ounce arithmetics at 37½c.....75,000

Is it out of place for an association of booksellers to say a word of condemnation where it is so justly earned? Next take the public school readers. Weight alone conveys a very imperfect idea of the value of the new readers as compared with the old. The paper, illustrations and finish of the new books are as far ahead of the old as the Century Magazine is ahead of Ayer's Almanac. Nowhere outside of the best gift books will you find anything to compare with them in quality. Yet even in weight, taking the series as a whole, the public are receiving a greater number of pounds for the money than they were before. In some instances the percentage in favor of the new books is very decided. The old First Reader weighed three-quarters of an ounce and sold for 5c. The new First Reader weighs 2½ ounces and sells for 10 cents. Three times the weight and only twice the cost. The old Second Reader weighed 4½ ounces and sold for 20 cents. The new Second Reader weighs 7½ ounces and sells for 25 cents. It is 72 per cent. heavier in weight and only 25 per cent. higher in cost. On the whole the public have no reason to complain in regard to the price of readers. The schools have been supplied with an artistic and beautiful series of readers at a moderate price.
