GRAHAM—DEACON

British Columbian Wins a London Bride.

At the home of the bride's parents, 47 Stanley street, a very pretty wedding took place Wednesday at 4 o'clock, when Miss Pearl Irene, daughter of Mr. George B. Deacon, and granddaughter of the late Mr. Thomas McBroom, and the late Mr. Daniel Deacon, was united in marriage to Mr. Herbert Robert Graham, of Kingsgate, B. C. Rev. W. H. Harvey, of Askin Street Methodist Church, performed the ceremony, beneath a white floral bell, in an alcove prettily decorated with palms and ferns. The young couple were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Graham left last evening for a trip to Niagara Falls, and upon their return will leave immediately for their future home in Kingsgate, B. C.

Among the out-of-town guests present at the ceremony were Mr. Thomas McBroom, of Cleveland, uncle of the bride; Dr. Wilbur McBroom, of Toronto; Mr. Leonard Deacon, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. Markham, of Detroit; Mrs. Charles Hodges and Miss Vina Baldwin, of Boston, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rutherford, of Stratford.

COLUMBUS' LEDGERS.

Madrid, July 17.—Ledgers recently discovered at Palos, Spain, contain interesting facts concerning the outlay made by Christopher Columbus on his expedition to the new world. The armament of the little fleet cost 14,000 pesetas. The personal expenses of Columbus and his officers were about 2,000 pesetas, and six pesetas a month sufficed for each of the crew, so that 22,050 pesetas or about $4,000 were spent for the eight months that the voyage lasted. The sum total whereby America was discovered was 36,000 pesetas, or about $7,200.

FIRED ON POACHER.

Victoria July 17. — News of a seizure, only effected after a fusillade of rifle shots had been fired and when the vessel had been finally run down and capsized while she was attempting to escape, eveloped when the fishery protection cruiser Newington arrived in port today with the American gasoline launch Bonita, of Seattle.

The vessel was captured off the west coast of Vancouver Island, while poaching, and now lies in port awaiting confiscation as a prize.

Quickly plugging his machine into reverse, he brought the car to a halt, the passengers being thrown from their seats.

HALF-TIME PUPILS MAKE MUCH PROGRESS

Prof. Beal Will Be in His Office Tonight to Explain Course to Parents.

Pupils in the part time industrial classes make as much progress as those who attend ordinary classes full time. Says Superintendent Edgerly, of the Fitchburg schools: "I have seldom noticed more earnestness displayed by pupils than the members of this class have evinced during the year, and I have watched their classroom work carefully. No doubt exists in my mind that these pupils are making progress in their studies, very little, if any, less than would be made should they attend school the entire time the school is in session. A splendid beginning has been made and the part time plan is a feature of industrial education that is sure to become general."

Principal Beal will be in the Alexandra school tonight to meet parents who are interested in the day industrial classes. It is the intention to organize both full time and part time classes to open in September. There will be general industrial courses for both boys and girls, but all classes will be limited by the space at the disposal of the industrial school. All applications will therefore be considered in the order in which they are received.

TEN DAYS IN THE TOILS

Wolseley Barracks Men Who Deserted Are Now Paying Penalty.

Privates Mitchell and O'Connor, the two members who deserted the Royal Canadian Regiment, and made a bold dash for liberty on Tuesday last, have both been caught and are serving time in the toils. One was nabbed as he was escaping on an out-going train on Tuesday, and the other was brought back to the barracks after a day's holiday in some unknown parts.

They are at present serving a ten days' sentence in confinement, and are also deducted a month's pay from their wages.

DESERTED LITTLE GIRL.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

St. Thomas, July 17.—George Best, the Southwold man who deserted his child and let her live with gypsies and Indians, came up for sentence today before Squire Hunt, and in default of a $100 fine was given six months in Central Prison.

THOUSANDS SAW THE AVIATOR AT PORT

One of the Largest Crowds of the Season Spent Holiday at Lakeside.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Port Stanley, July 17.—Many thousands of Londoners today were holidaying at the lakeside, and witnessed the flights of the hydro-aeroplane. At 3 p.m. the first ascent was made from the beach near the pier, Mr. Walter Brookins going alone. With a whirr of the propellers the machine glided swiftly out for a couple of hundred yards, the pontoons resting lightly on the water; then it began to rise with the poise of a gull, and sailed smoothly about above the lake.

Mr. Brookins had complete control of the aeroplane at all times, circling, soaring and dipping with the utmost ease. With a final sweeping curve the machine flew toward shore, coasted gracefully down to the water and with the engine stopped glided lightly onto the sandy beach.

Further flights were made at 5 o'clock and 8:10 p.m., on the first of which Mr. Bradley, of St. Thomas, was taken as a passenger. Mr. Brookins is a sane aviator, and at no time did he steer his hydro-aeroplane over land. In an interview today he stated that many accidents were due to taking land machines over the water, and the hydro-aeroplane over the land: it was like trying to make a submarine out of an automobile.

While thousands came to Port to see the aeroplane, there were also several large picnics, among them the druggists, Knights of Pythias, and Wortley Road Baptist Sunday school. The druggists had one of the best-managed and most successful picnics of the year.

Greatly Interested.

The crowd at the beach showed intense interest in every movement of the aeroplane. They marvelled at Mr. Brookins' wonderful control of the machine, and were amused at the ducklike evolutions that it made over the great expanse of water. The general opinion was that never before had such wonderful flying been witnessed on the northern shores of Lake Erie.

So convinced were those who witnessed the flights of the safety of aerial navigation, that hundreds did not hesitate to approach Mr. Brookins and volunteer to take a flight with him. One young lady said: "I'm just crazy to go up with you, Mr. Brookins. Won't you take me?" Her appeal was so earnest that Mr. Brookins did not like to refuse, but he told her that she would have to make arrangements with the Port Stanley Amusement Company, of the Traction Company, by which organizations Mr. Brookins has been secured to make the flights at Port Stanley.

Those who visited the beach yesterday found Mr. Brookins a very modest young man. Anybody could approach him and talk aviation. In appearance the great aviator looks like a well-browned Indian. His constant exposure in the sun during the three years that he has been flying has given him the bronze complexion. In dress he reminds one of a dapper young college student. People find him conversant on many subjects aside from aviation, and he is always interested in talking on scientific subjects.

Pleased With Port.

In an interview given to the reporter for The Advertiser, Mr. Brookins said: "I am perfectly amazed at the beauty of Port Stanley. Really, I have never flown nor visited any place that appeals so much to be. It must be a blessing for the people of London and St. Thomas to have such a beauty spot so near to home, where they can spend a delightful holiday. Flying conditions are also very good here. When the wind is blowing off the lake, it is a steady wind, and should not prevent flights at all, but, of course, when the wind blows from the land, it becomes unsteady. To a great many people the dangers of an unsteady wind are unknown. A great many deaths in aviation have been due to the fact that the aviator would hazard going up in an unsteady wind. In my three years' experience as an aviator I have found out that it is better to have to disappoint a crowd than to disappoint the folks at home. People must get it out of their heads that aviators control the weather."

Mr. Brookins will take up at least one passenger each day that he flies at Port Stanley. There is considerable rivalry among those who have ambitions to go up, and they are all scrambling for the honor of a ride with Brookins.

One of the features of yesterday's flights which proved beyond a doubt Mr. Brookins' skill as an aviator, were his perfect landings. It was generally commented upon that he always brought his bird-like machine to a safe and easy stop at the same point from which he started.

CARROLL---RYAN

A Charming Wedding Celebrated in Biddulph.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Ryan, lot 32, concession 3, Biddulph Township, was the scene of a pretty wedding at high noon on June 26, when their daughter, Miss Ida, became the bride of Mr. William A. Carroll, of Watford. Rev. William Lowe, of Trinity Church, Lucan, performed the ceremony in the presence of about eighty guests. Miss Ethel Hodgins, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march, the ceremony taking place beneath an arch of orange blossoms erected on the lawn.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a charming gown of cream eolienne and carried white carnations. Her sister, Miss Lizzie Ryan, acted as bridesmaid, and was attired in cream voile with a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. Albert Carroll, of Newbury.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold locket and jewel case, a gold brooch to the planist, to the bridesmaid a gold necklace, and to the groomsman a cameo stickpin.

Following the ceremony, a dainty luncheon was served, after which the young couple motored to Lucan, from whence they left on a wedding trip to Detroit and other places. Upon their return they will reside near Watford.

DROPPED DEAD

Mrs. Mackay, of Biddulph, Stricken While at Housework.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Whalen, July 17.—Mrs. Tim Mackay, who resides on the Centre sideroad in Biddulph, near Granton, died suddenly Monday while engaged with her household duties. Mrs. Mackay had been ill for some time with heart trouble, but was not thought to be serious. Besides her husband, she leaves six children. The funeral took place on Wednesday to the Catholic Cemetery, near Lucan, and was largely attended.

Mr. Wm. Ogden received a telegram from Cleveland today informing him that his wife's cousin, Mrs. McMullen, formerly Miss May Buttsen, was dead. Mrs. McMullen was married two years ago. When a girl she lived here with Mrs. Ogden, and had visited here several times lately. The funeral took place today at Staffa from her brother's home.

TEWFIX PASHA MADE GRAND VIZIER

New Head of Turk Government a Man of Good Judgment.

[Canadian Press.]

Constantinople, July 18. — Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish ambassador at London, has been appointed grand vizier. He has a reputation for good judgment and moderation, and is expected to form a neutral cabinet to replace the cabinet which resigned yesterday. It is probably that he will include in his cabinet Nazim Pasha, commander of the first army corps, as minister of war, which would assist in the coalition of the different parties and possibly prevent dissolution of the chamber. It is doubtful, however, whether the Young Turk party would acquiesce in this solution.

The resignation of the cabinet was largely due to its inability to accept the conditions which Mahmoud Mukhtar demanded as the price of his acceptance of the war portfolio, amnesty measures and clemency toward the Albanian rebels and the withdrawal of all troops from Albania.

It is announced that a peace mission will be dispatched to Albania, composed of three Albanian senators, to persuade the rebels to suspend hostilities, giving assurances of a satisfactory settlement of all grievances.

Health and Beauty Helps

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

C. L.: The hot sun and wind will not injure your skin, even though it is delicate, if you apply a spurmax lotion each day. This lotion is made by adding two teaspoonfuls glycerine to half pint witch hazel (or hot water), then four ounces spurmax. Powder and rouge are unnecessary when the spurmax lotion is used, and if you apply the lotion every day you will find that it banishes tan and freckles and dispels the oily, shiny, blotchy condition. The spurmax lotion is invisible when on, and is not affected by wind or perspiration.

Dorothy D.: No harm results when delatone is used to banish hairy growths. Just make a paste with some delatone and water, spread over hairs, and in two or three minutes remove, wash the skin, and every trace of hair or fuzz has vanished. Rarely is it necessary to use more than one application of delatone.

B. A.: Of course, you cannot make your hair look bright and pretty, because soap was never intended for shampooing, as it causes the hair to grow streaky and brittle. Dissolve a teaspoonful canthrox in a cup hot water and you will have enough mixture for a delightfully soothing and invigorating shampoo. The lather created by canthrox allays scalp irritation and dissolves dandruff and excess oil, and after rinsing well, the hair and scalp are clean and sweet, while the hair dries quickly, with an even, rich color and beautiful gloss. Nothing compares with canthrox for keeping the hair silky, brilliant and fluffy in hot weather.

Mrs. J. R.: Boils indicate a poison-laden blood, and you can hope for little relief until the poisons are eliminated from the system. In half pint alcohol pour one ounce kardene, then put ½ half cupful sugar and hot water to make a quart. Take a tablespoonful before each meal, and you will soon be rid of your boils. This tonic will clear up the skin and give you health and energy, and should be kept handy in the house, as its use often prevents serious sickness.

I. X. L.: You can obtain quick relief from burning, smarting eyes by frequently dropping two or three drops of a plain crystos eye-tonic in each eye. This harmless tonic is made by dissolving one ounce crystos in a pint cold water. Fore soreness or for removing foreign particles, as well as for granulated lids, it is unequalled. To dull, listless eyes it will give a youthful charm and sparkle, and its occasional use frequently overcomes the need for wearing glasses.

Esther H.: You cannot expect to have a clear, fair skin so long as you continue using greasy creams and smother the pores with powder. Make up and use this plain almozoin cream-jelly, followed by an application of the spurmax lotion (see answer to C. L.): Put two teaspoonfuls glycerine into half pint cold water, then add one ounce almozoin. Let stand for several hours, then apply to skin and massage in well. This almozoin cream-jelly will rid the skin of pimples, blackheads, blotches, fine lines, sallowness and oter complexion upsets. It also discourages hairy growths.

Grace W.: The discomfort you suffer from overfatness can be easily remedied if you will get four ounces parnotis and dissolve in 1½ pints hot water, then take a tablespoonful three times each day. This harmless treatment gently dissolves fatty tissues without inconvenience and does not call for dieting or violent exercise. You can reduce your weight to where you want it, and your flesh will be firm and the skin free from wrinkles. No possible danger results from using the parnotis treatment, and there need be no fear of the fat returning once the treatment is discontinued.

X L.: An excellent hair and scalp tonic for summer months is made by adding one ounce quinzoin to half pint alcohol, then half pint water. This almost instantly soothes the burning and stops irritation. Its continued use puts the scalp in a healthy condition and encourages a beautiful growth of silky, brilliant hair. It is a good idea to shampoo occasionally with canthrox (see answer to B. A.), then use the quinzoin tonic once or twice each week.—Advt.
