Papers will be contributed by Delegates and others from Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Price Edward Island, British Columbia, Manitoba, and North-West Territory.

Among the subjects to be discussed will be Transportation of Fruits; Packing and Selecting Fruit for the Home and Foreign Markets; Express and Railway Freights, Fungus Disease and Blight; Small Fruits and their Commercial Value; The Commercial Apple Orchards of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia; Relation of Insects to Fruit Culture; Export of Winter Apples: Profits, Drawbacks; Utilizing Surplus Fruit Products—Canning, Evaporating; Injurious Insects affecting Fruits—Remedies to Prevent Ravages; Profitable Forest Planting; Adaptation of Russian Fruit to Canadian Requirements, etc., etc.

Hymeneal.

Once more we hear the chime of wedding bells and this time the merry peal is called forth by the marriage of one of Brooklyn's fairest and most highly esteemed daughters, Lalia I. Neily, daughter of the late Parker Neily. The marriage took place at the home of the bride, where a large number of the relatives and friends assembled to join in the festivities of the occasion. The bride was plainly but elegantly dressed in a travelling suit of drab. She wore a boquet that was peculiarly interesting, being composed almost entirely of natural flowers from three far distant places—Sandwich Islands, Arizona and Alabama. After the ceremony was performed the happy couple, accompanied by a large number of friends, drove to Middleton to meet the Eastern Express, which was to convey them to their new home at River Hebert, Cumberland Co. Amid showers of rice and the good wishes of all present, they boarded the train, leaving the friends behind feeling that they had lost one that was loved by all.

May they together enjoy many long and happy years and may God's blessing ever attend them.

ONE PRESENT.

Address to Pastor Rowe and Family.

DEAR BROTHER:—The time has come when we must give to you the parting hand and we feel that we cannot let you go from our midst without manifesting in this way, our attachment one who has labored so earnestly in our behalf for more than six long years, who has preached to us in all faithfulness, as Paul says, "the gospel of the blessed God," who has been with us in the hour of affliction, as comforter in our sorrows, and in our social gatherings to give good and cheer. We will not soon forget the precious seasons we have enjoyed together in the prayer and social meetings, and your earnest prayers and solemn warnings to our young people.

Dear brother, we believe you have the very best wishes of all in this place, both young and old; and we hope that in the near future, some may tell us that through your instrumentality they have been brought by the Saviour. With some of us, this farewell may be for the last time—our last meeting on earth. These things considered, language fails us to express all that we feel of christian fellowship and brotherly kindness towards yourself and our dear sisters, your wife and daughter, who have endeared themselves to us by their deep interest in all our religious movements, and who will be greatly missed from our religious and social gatherings.

In bidding you adieu, as many of us as are of the redeemed family, hope to meet you with happy greetings, where no farewell tear is shed. Finally, dear brother and sisters, farewell.

In behalf of the people of Melvern Square, composing a part of the Upper Wilmot Baptist Church and congregation.

LEASON BAKER, THOMAS GATES,
HENRY GOUCHER, OBADIAH HAWKINS,
ROBERT MORSE, SHIPPY SPURR,
Committee.

REPLY.

DEAR BRETHREN:—Your farewell words of appreciation and attachment have stirred my heart. I know that this address is no mere form of words, but that you thus manifest the true feelings of your hearts. I shall ever hold in grateful remembrance your unwarying kindness manifested in deeds as well as in words, towards myself and family during the six years I have been your pastor. Your sympathies and prayers have often greatly encouraged us, and the precious seasons we have enjoyed together shall not be forgotten. Tender memories of those who have preceded us to the home overthere during my stay among you, come thronging to my mind at this time, and I sympathize with those of you who have been tried in the furnace of affliction.

I thank you for your affectionate mention of my wife and daughter. They join with me in wishing you much prosperity, as a church, under your new pastor. Our prayer is, that those who have decided for Christ among the dear young people, may be very faithful, and that at no distant day, we may hear the good news that many more have been born into the Kingdom.

Your brother in Christ,
J. ROWE.

—A telegraphic despatch from San Francisco to Hong Kong, via New York, Canso, Penzance, Aden, Bombay, Madras, Penang, and Singapore only takes fifteen minutes for transportation. A New Baptist Church.

An ecclesiastical council was convened in the Baptist meeting house, Granville Ferry, on Tuesday, Jan. 21st at 3.30 p. m., to consider the advisability of organizing a Baptist Church in that place. Clergymen present were Revs. A. Cohoon, W. H. Richan, J. L. Reed, W. L. Parker, F. M. Young and J. T. Eaton, beside lay delegates from the neighboring churches. Rev. A. Cohoon was appointed moderator and Rev. F. M. Young clerk. After due deliberation it was unanimously agreed to advise the organization of a church. The candidates for membership present assented to the Articles of Faith and Covenant endorsed by the Baptist Churches of Nova Scotia and proceeded to appoint Officers. Robert Delap and James Reed were elected Deacons and James Reed Clerk and Treasurer. It is to be known as the Granville Ferry Baptist Church. In the evening the hand of fellowship was given and the Deacons ordained, all the ministers present taking part in the ceremony.

Hampton Horses.

Your correspondent has lately taken a sort of inventory of the horses in this place, and finds some twenty-five or thereabouts including young colts. There has been a great improvement in this class of stock in the last three years and there is scarcely a poor horse here. I think our horses will compare favorably with those of any locality in the county. Our farmers were among the first to patronize the Percherons, and now there are a number of promising colts of that species in our midst. Adoniram Foster purchased a three-year-old a few months ago which is proving to be a fine worker, and others too numerous to mention are equally good. E. B. Foster has three colts worth looking at; one Percheron black mare three years old, perfectly kind every way, a good traveller and worker for which he was lately offered and has refused the sum of $200. F. B. E.

Weymouth Words.

Changeable weather!—Very!

La Grippe! La Grippe! La Grippe!

The river is frozen over above the bridge, but is not yet in a condition suitable for exercising the steeds.

There is a very noticeable decrease in the average attendance of the schools during the past two weeks. Cause—La Grippe.

The W. B. B. gave their annual grand Ball in Sissiboo Hall, Wednesday evening, January 22nd.

Charles Burrill & Co. have the frame all yarded for their new steamer, which is to take the place of the "Alemeda" in the Bay Service next summer.

The barquentine, building by Edward Rice & Co., is now timbered out. She is intended for the West India trade.

Saturday evening a number of the male persuasion of this place met together and organized a debating society, to be known as the "Weymouth Free Discussion Club."

Foxes are very plentiful in the woods in this neighborhood, and moose are reported in considerable numbers to the southward.

The rink is run this winter subject to the approval of the weather. On Saturday evening the ice proved in excellent condition, and the young people were not slow in availing themselves of the favorable opportunity for an hour or two of enjoyable pastime. A carnival is expected to take place soon. M.

—Grand Skating Carnival will be held in the rink at Annapolis this evening.

—Housholm, in Denmark, rejoices in a two million candle power light-house. The light is afforded by an electric arc, the most powerful in the world.

—J. W. Whitman's for Cheap Boots. 1i

—A boarding house, occupied by J. Custance, at Molega Mines was destroyed by fire on the 16th inst. Many of the inmates lost their trunks, clothing and other valuables.

—There has been a remarkable decrease in pauperism in England during the last three decades. It has fallen from 45 in every thousand of the population in 1857 to 23.7 per thousand last year.

—The people of Annapolis Royal are about organizing a Board of Trade. Would it not be a good plan to make it a County Board, and hold its meetings in alternate turns in Bridgetown and Middleton, as well as the "old capital."

—The annual meeting of the water district will be held in Dennison's Hall, on Monday evening the 3rd day of February, for the purpose of electing a commissioner, hearing a report of the doings of the commissioners for the past year, and for the consideration of all matters pertaining thereto. 1i

—The election case of Haldimand in which Doctor Montague sought the unseating of Coulter, liberal, the sitting member, and which was appealed to the Supreme Court of Canada, terminated in the defeat of the appellant with costs. A writ will be immediately issued for a new election in than County.

—The railway trains on the Union Pacific and Northern Pacific (American) lines have been so blocked with snow that for more than a month (ending last Friday) no trains had crossed the mountains in either direction, but on the Canadian Pacific no interruption of travel or traffic has occurred to date, which proves the location of our line to be far superior to that of either the American lines above mentioned.

Margaretville Matters.

The chief topic of conversation now is railroad and all seem in high spirits over the anticipation of the extension of the N. S. C. to our place. The survey has already been made and everything points to its completion in the near future. We think all has been said that can be in favour of the project and we feel that the company and Government fully realize and understand the vast importance and profit of the undertaking. We are informed that the proprietor of the Margaretille House has already made arrangements for extended repairs on his hotel.

La Grippe, as in other places, is running wild over here, and the countenance of most every person you chance to meet tells what a grip it has upon them.

The fishermen of this locality are making great preparations for the coming season and plan to scoop in large quantities of the finny tribe. Four fishing vessels are now owned here and Mr. Geo. Roach is repairing the old yacht Genesta for a fishing cruise next season.

Work on the new schooner has been suspended for a time, but will re-commence with new vigor in the early spring. We are informed that she is to be commanded by Capt. Andrew Gibson of this place. A Wolfville Wanderings.

We wonder if our Annapolis Co. readers would not receive with favor some jottings from their neighbor County? And why is it, where there is such an interest existing between the sisters that our names never seem to reach your paper?

The silence is not always due to a scarcity of interesting matter, we presume, but oftentimes on account of negligence on our part. Laying aside our past delinquencies, we are going to "turn over a new leaf," by giving your readers the little every day occurrences that tend to vary the quiet of our existence.

What shall we say first? That our existence, during the past fortnight, has been considerably—though not considerately—varied?

Truly it has, but why expatiate upon the aching limbs and sober faces, etc. When our readers, doubtless, know all that we have suffered, and are cabable of sympathizing with us. La grippe has certainly secured a very tight grip upon nearly every individual in our vicinity. We had never supposed that there could be any glory attached to this epidemic, but have learned recently that we are in error, for an unlimited amount of glory rests upon the shoulders of the individual who is successful in making his groans the loudest.

Our young men and maidens who have been successful in warding off this malady by the utmost command of "will power, (?) have, during the past week, availed themselves of both snow and ice by accepting every invitation that offered itself for a sleigh drive. Our sleighing has been of a superior quality for some days.

The rink is now in excellent condition, but not largely patronized, owing to the prevalence of siokness in our midst. One of our fairest daughters, and attendant, started a few nights since to enjoy a pleasant evening at this pleasurable place of pastime, but found to their dismay that the rink was never allowed to be monopolized by one couple alone, and as there were no others present these two individuals adjourned to their homes weary and footsore. Yes, even worse—every symptom of la grippe had manifested itself during this limited period.

There is much excitement in Wolfville at present over the fresh lot of corsets just opened at Burpee Witters. We had heard so much of the beauty and durability of the new designs, that we could not crush "Mother Eve's" curiosity longer; consequently availed ourselves of the first opportunity that came to us and inspected the latest improved "Parisian styles" of corsets gotten up at the Wilmot Corset Factory. We came home quite as enthusiastic as our neighbors, and with the same resolve, viz.: Never to wear any corset in future but the elegant and shapely style known as "Slocomb's Perfect Fit." We examined a number of designs with all of which we were delighted, with the exception of the summer style.

Apple parings and Candy parties are passe. Our young people are now spending their leisure evenings becoming acquainted with "Jenkins" and popping corn; a pastime that they seem to think very enjoyable, and perhaps, profitable.

Can any of your readers inform an inquirer if lessons in type-writing can be given in Middleton or vicinity, as we understand that two or three of our young ladies from Kings are contemplating paying Annapolis a visit during the coming summer, and are desirous of making their visit practical as well as pleasurable.

Au Revoir,
THE THREE GRACES.

Lawrencetown Notes.

The funeral services of the late C. S. Phinney were held in the Baptist church on Saturday last. The service was conducted by Revs. J. T. Eaton and R. D. Porter. A large gathering of friends were present. The members of Nelson Division attended in regalia.

Mrs. Jas. Phinney, of Paradise, while on his way to attend the funeral was thrown from the wagon by the horse shying, but escaped serious injury.

The annual meeting of the Lawrencetown Milling Company was held at the office of the President, on Saturday, and adjourned two weeks, to Saturday, Feb. 1st.

The Division Grange met in Temperance Hall on the 21st.

The death of J. M. Brown, reported in the Chronicle last week was an error. Mr. B. is quite ill but is still on the acting side.

Some of the boys, and girls too, went to Bridgetown on Monday evening to hear Olive Branch discuss the Temperance Resolution.

Our snow has again disappeared and the fields are as bare as in October.

Jolly days for blacksmiths and horseshoers.

Williamston Whispers.

The thought suggested itself to me, upon reading in your last issue, notes on horses owned by our friends in Lawrenceton, that perhaps a few remarks pertaining to said species of domestic animals from Williamston, might be of interest to at least a few readers of your paper. I find it impossible at present to head the list with a 2.34 record, but have strong hopes for the future. Among our leading horses we have the two stallions, Joe Howe, jr., owned by Schaffner Bros., who is four years old, of good size, fine style, and has every indication of making something that will cause some of those trotters to dust, that we read about (but seldom ever see). The Knox stallion owned by Watson Barteauy, is acknowledged by the leading horsemen of the County, as the making of something fine.

He has never been tested as to speed, but presents a very easy and graceful appearance on the road. There are several more fine young horses, to which I would like to call attention, but time and space will not permit. Suffice it to say that we are well represented with the off-spring of a great many of the standard bred horses.

I find upon inquiry that we have within the limits of our neighborhood some fifty animals of the horse species, the majority of which have reached maturity. Methinks that although the place is conspicuous for its abscence of jockeys, yet for style and general purposes, our horses compare favorably with those of them that make the rearing and training of horses a specialty.

Our Dramatic Club intend giving the public the benefit of their entertainment which they are preparing for on Wednesday, Feb. 5. Look out for advertisement which will appear in these columns next issue.

Annapolis Items.

Last evening, 20th inst., a very interesting meeting, called in the intesests of the town, by several of our enterprising townsmen, was held in the parlor of the Union Bank, and was very well attended, the following gentlemen being present: Capt. C. D. Pickels, Geo. McLaughlin, W. Malcolm, A. M. Strong, Chas. McCormick, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Weldon, Geo. McLaughlin, jr., J. A. Runciman, G. D. Arnaud, Geo. K. Thomson, Dr. Aug. Robinson, H. A. West, A. Riordan, J. Herb. Runciman, W. J. Shannon, Jas. Morrow, J. M. Owen, W. McLaughlin, and J. Homer Salter. The object of the meeting was the formation of a board of trade, to attend to the trade matters of the town in general.

Capt. C. D. Pickels was elected chairman, and J. Herb. Runciman, secy. protem. After a motion that this body be called the "Annapolis Royal Board of Trade," was passed, and committees formed to frame bye-laws, etc., the following officers were unanimously elected; W. J. Shannon, pres.; J. M. Owen, vice.-pres.; H. A. West, Secty.-Treas. A few words in favor of this creditable movement were next in order, and the meeting then adjourned until next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Annapolis Royal is having its share of "La Grippe" (don't say chestnuts, please). Mr. Norman Gavaza has been seriously ill, but, I'm glad to hear, is recovering.

Mr. Thos. Cowling and Mr. J. H. McLeod, of the American House, are ill, all on account of la grippe.

On the evening of the 14th inst., the W. C. T. U. opened their rooms in Runciman's block with a tea-meeting, which was a grand success, the sum of $40 being realized. The Union appears to be prospering and now that it has larger and more comfortable rooms a greater number will likely take an interest in the good work in which it is engaged. I wish the members every success. Q.

Hampton Happenings.

The S. S. Concert which was held on the 7th inst. was a decided success. Their entertainments are generally good but this was exceptionally so.

The evening was cold, and the roads were rough, but a large number of friends assembled who appeared to be fully satisfied with the manner in which the programme was carried out.

Mrs. Harry Chute and Miss Hannah Chute presided at the organ. Robert Chute led the choir, and Mr. E. B. Foster took the chair. A choice selection of sacred and temperance songs were sung by the choir, who were well trained for the occasion.

The readings, recitations, &c., were made very impressive by an able yet unaffected manner of elocution. The leading feature of the evenings entertainment was an exercise of the White Ribbon Band. About forty of the members at the word of command from their leader, (Mr. E. B. F.) took their places on and around the platform thus forming themselves into a group which was very artistically arranged. The scene was ornamented by the waving of the English colors by the smaller members, keeping time with the singing.

This Sabbath school has a good record. The scholars are not all small children, for nearly all the young people of the village may be seen in their classes every Sunday afternoon. The healthy condition of this Evergreen Sabbath school speaks well for the superintendent, Mr. Elias B. Foster, who has proved himself to be a good leader. The work to him is a matter of choice, for he appears never happier than when engaged in active work with the young people in S. S. or in division. He has a faithful staff of workers to support him. With such a leader and such a staff of workers, Hampton cannot fail in sending out men who will be useful in society and who may become the pride of the country.

Farmington Facts.

There is nothing here startling to write only we have a change of climate every twenty-four hours, and with every change new victims succumb to the new fashioned cold, la grippe. We are sorry to state that one of our young men here had a very bad attack of it about 6.30 on Friday morning. While on his way to his office, he was seen to stagger and reel several times and then very forcibly to grip the sidewalk. Kind friends bore him home and took good care of him, and we are happy to state that at this present moment he is hearty and well. It is only fair to say that he is of temperate habits, and that his la grippe was caused by the ice on our much neglected side-walks.

Mr. C. H. Shaffner has lost a fine black dog and some people think he has gone on a visit to his deceased friend, Basill. It is to be hoped he will return all right to his master. B.
