GO BETWEEN AT LONG ODDS WINS THE WESTMINSTER

Alex. Shields Won a $10,000 Handicap—Eugenia Burch, Added Starter, Ran Second.

New York, June 7.—Clocing with a great burst of speed in the final furlong, Go Between, backed down from 12 to 1 to 9 to 1 won the $10,000 Westminster Handicap at Gravesend to-day. Eugenia Burch, an added starter, and quoted at 15 to 1, for the place, was second, and the hot favorite, Cairngorm, third. Pater took the lead at the start and was leading by a length passing the stand the first time, followed by Von Tromp and Cairngorm, and this order was maintained to the mile pole. Rounding the far turn, Crimmins sent Eugenia Burch up. The mare went from seventh place to the lead, and was in front as the field swung into the stretch. Meanwhile Shaw, on Go Between, who was trailing his field for a mile, began to make his move. Go Between responded gamely to the whip and gradually overmastering his field, caught the leader, Eugenia Burch, near the finish, and in a hard drive won, going away by half a length. Eugenia Burch was three-quarters of a length before the favorite, Cairngorm.

Court Dress, odds on favorite, easily won the Criterion Stakes. Soprano, an added starter, cut out the running to the stretch. Court Dress then took the lead and won by three-quarters of a length.

A killing was made with Oraculum, owned by the former jockey, George Odom, in the seventh race. He opened at 25 to 1, and a steady stream of money gradually forced his price down to 7 to 1 at the close. L. Williams, who had the mount on Oraculum, rushed the Odof colt to the lead and, making all the pace, won easily by three lengths. Lady Amelia, Court Dress and Ballot were the winning favorites. FIVE FAVORITES FAILED THIRD DAY AT HAMILTON

Enghurst Won Cup Steeplechase and Shine On the Stakes—Winchester in Front.

For a third time in as many days favorites were a bad proposition yesterday at the Hamilton races. Winchester was the only public choice to win. He was backed to odds-on in the last race, and romped home, making just two winning favorites out of 19 so far at the H. J. C. meeting. Four second choices and the third choice in the steeplechase were the other winners. Of the beaten favorites, Restoration, Azelina and Charlie Eastman finished second, Frank Somers third and Jungle Imp outside the money.

The day was cloudy, the track heavy and the attendance about the same as on Wednesday.

E. Kelly put up a fine ride in the feature event, the cup steeplechase. The race was between Enghurst and Gulistan, both strongly played. Huestonhad to hustle the Davies jumper to stay with the leader, and, being leg-weary at the fence in the hollow last time around, he stood on his head. Frank Somers and Bob Alone drove home for the place.

Shine On was good enough to carry home the money and Romanelli, in the Hamilton Stakes. He liked the going, and after pulling clear, Charlie Eastman could never get up. Olympian was third all round. The weight was too much for Moonraker.

The Kirkfield stables scored again with Judge Nelson, that was backed to beat Restoration. Westover was played for the show, but gave way to Pedro. They finished the way they were backed in the second, except that the favorite and second choice changed positions. Satchel was backed as a good thing.

Pa Bradley put thru Nonsense, a hot one, in the fifth race, Attilla second and Marimbo third. Swain did not bother much with Jungle Imp.

Fisher was the winning jockey, landing the first and second races.

Six races are on the card for to-day.

Tho Winchesters closing price is given as 2 to 1 in the chart, 4 to 5 was the best odds obtainable when the former went up. On Wednesday Konigen Luise closed at 7 to 2, when the chart had it 10 to 1.

Two good games will be played in the Don Valley Senior League. The first, between St. Marys and Arcties, will start at 2.15, and this promises to be a close and exciting contest. This game will decide the leadership of the league. A win or a loss means a great deal to either team. The following is the standing of the respective teams:

Amateur Baseball.

The two games in the Senior Interassociation League this Saturday afternoon, should prove good ones, particularly that between the Sherbournes and the Alerts. A loss means that the Sherbournes will lose the leadership to the Centrals, providing of course that the Centrals win their game from the Manhattans. There is no better senior ball played in this city, if last Saturday's Interassociation games on the Victoria College grounds can be taken as a criterion. With William Walsh officiating as umpire, the baseball enthusiasts can be assured of absolute clean ball. The games for this Saturday are as follows: 2 p.m.—Centrals v. Manhattans. Batteries—Adams or Phalen and Downey; Smith and Nye. 4 p.m.—Sherbournes v. Alerts. Batteries—Belanger and Weekes; Clements or Mawhinney and Daizell.

The Sherbournes of the Senior Interassociation League would like to arrange an out-of-town game for Saturday, June 23, Oshawa, Port Hope, Cobourg or Peterboro preferred. Address W. Dickinson, secretary, 214 Carlton-street.

In a hostly contested game between T. Eaton Co. and A. A. Allen Co., resulted in 4 to 3 in favor of the former. Batteries—Bornes and Sinkins; Galbraith and Russell. The T. Eaton Co. play the Bell Telephone Co. on Tuesday next.

The Junior Elms are requested to turn out to practice to-night at Bayside Park, as the team will be picked for their game on Saturday: Smith, P. Russell, Masters, King, Forbes, Hodgins, Sheehan, M. Russell, Jacobs, Abate, Thorne, W. Russell.

ARGONAUTS AT PRELIMINARIES

Races Rowed Off Last Night—Henley Eight Leave This a.m.

The preliminary round of the Argonaut spring regatta was held last night on the bay opposite the club house, the water being very choppy. The races were being run off in heats, the first and second crews to qualify for the finals Saturday. The best race of the night was between Lewis and Quigley, Lewis winning by half a length. In the first heat D. Wright's bow man broke his oar and they were forced to abandon the race. They rowed their race over again in the third heat, being second to McLaughlin's crew. In this heat Dixon was fouled, so he will have a chance to-night.

Tre results:

First heat—A. B. Smith 1, W. Aitken 2, Balmer 3, D. Wright did not finish. Time 5.31 3-5.

Second heat—W. A. Lewis 1, R. J. Quigley 2, J. Gouinlock 3, F. Ingles 4. Time 6.23.

Third heat—F. McLaughlin 1, D. Wright 2, J. F. Dixon 3, K. Balfour 4. Time 5.26.

The Argonaut Henley eight were out yesterday in the morning and evening. They did not try any fast work, as the water was too rough. All the men are in the best of health, with the exception possibly of Pud Kent, who is troubled with Job's comforters. Last night when the crew were lifting the boat into the water the bow came in contact with the wharf, cracking it about six inches. However, it was patched up and the crew put in their final practice on the bay.

This morning the eight leave at 9.15 for Montreal, going on their boat to-night and sailing to-morrow morning. Mr. Henry O'Brien, the first president of the club, and Jimmy Barry leave with the crew. They will likely be joined later by Mr. T. P. Galt and Capt. Barker.

The weights (stripped yesterday morning), ages and height of the men are:

	Wt.	Age.	Ht.
Joe Wright, stroke	185	42	6.01½
7. Don Mackenzie	170	30	6.04
6. Boyd	175	28	6.00

This makes the average weight 176 1-2, average age 28, average height 6 feet 2 inches.

Cornwall Practicing Hard.

Cornwall, June 7.—(Special.)—The Cornwall team had a hard work out this afternoon in preparation for their struggle with the Capitals in Ottawa on Saturday. They seem to have improved considerably since last Saturday and becoming somewhat more optimistic of their chances. It is possible that there may be a couple of changes on the home division and that Donald Smith and Tanguay will be put on in place of two of the home men, who were decidedly weak last Saturday. However, some of the executive are in favor of giving this pair another trial. Dess Brown and W. Bramley of Montreal have been agreed upon as referees.
