IN THE BOXING TOURNAMENT.

Many Well-Known Clubs Will Be Represented—Opens Saturday.

A dozen or more new amateurs will make their bow to the public preliminary night next Saturday in the Mutual-street Rink and there will be just enough of the tried boxers to give plenty of science to the tournament. While entries do not close till next Wednesday, there are already enough in to ensure an ample program each of the three nights. The reserved seat plan opens this morning at Harold A. Wilson's, where intending competitors may secure blanks. The entry fee is $2, which is returned after the bouts. No entry will be received unless the candidate hands in his forfeit with his signature in the proper place on the form.

Among the clubs to have representatives are the Don R.C., Royal Canadian B.C., Marlboros, Strathconas, Good Luck, East End A.C., Maitland Lacrosse, Merchants, Musketeers and half a dozen of the amateur ball clubs.

Argonaut Rowing Club.

Owing to the large number of new members the crews for the spring races will be chosen tonight from the list. All members are urged to put their names down at once. J. D. Dixon has kindly consented to train any member in the tubbing boat any morning or afternoon. The eight and four to row against Syracuse University on June 10 are now in active training.

"Macey" Dust-Proof Sectional Cabinets

The "Macey" Sectional construction overcomes the only serious objection to the unit system in Filing Cabinets. Every other manufacturer has adhered rigidly to the "skeleton" sections — which being open at the top and bottom allowed the dust to sift down through the contents of the drawers. Every "Macey" Gold Medal section is closed in top and bottom, the top being of polished quarter sawed white oak, making a dust proof top unnecessary. More than this, every drawer-hole is closed in on four sides, rendering it absolutely impossible for dust to get in.

This is only one feature of this famous line. Come in and get posted. "Seeing is believing."

HOW THE PLATERS WILL FINISH ACCORDING TO PRESENT ODDS

Should the King's Platers finish next Saturday as the winter books indicate, Seagram will have two in the money, with Dyment's Will King placed between them, these three horses being followed in order by Heather Jock, Half Seas Over, Capercalzie, Tony Hart, Lorne Reel and Maid of Barrie. Following are the probable jockeys for the shortest-priced horses and the present odds:

1. J. E. Seagram's Inferno, 106 (H. Phillips)	4—5
2. N. Dyment's Will King, 106 (E. Walsh)	4—1
3. J. E. Seagram's Rhino, 106 (J. Walsh)	7—1
W. Hendrie's Heather Jock, 122 (Kingstone)	7—1
J. E. Seagram's Half Seas Over, 106 (Thorpe)	10—1
R. Davies' Capercalzie, 106 (Romanelli)	12—1
I. M. Clay's Tony Hart, 119 (Songer)	15—1
W. Hendrie's Lorne Reel, 101 (Wainwright)	30—1
N. Dyment's Maid of Barrie, 101 (Croghan)	30—1

W. J. Hendrie's Jeannie Dick, Barbour's Bill of the Play, W. J. Barnes' Uncle Ned, H. Chappell's Chappell Boy, J. Dyment's Stay Away, P. Gorman's Yarrow, M. Hutchinson's Pendrith, Kirkfield's Dileas, H. C. Osborne's Glendocart and Golden Crest, R. H. Pounder's Cross of Gold, Bowes' Stock Exchange and J. Randall's Fulton also eligible.

N. Dyment's Will King went into the trial class yesterday with Inferno and Heather Jock. The Barrie plater's fractional time was: :12½, :25, :38, :50¾, 1.03½, 1.17, 1.32¼, 1.47, 2.01½, 2.16. Maid of Barrie was beaten out while Step Dance carried Bill the last six furlongs of the journey.

The Thorncliffe plater, Capercalzie, was sent a half in :52. His swollen jaw shows signs of improvement.

Meagher's Moon Raker was sent along in the fastest trial by a Canadian horse at the track this spring. He did five-eighths in 1.04½, and the three-quarters in 1.18½. He galloped out the mile in 1.50.

The Hendrie 2-year-olds breezed a half in :54½. Look out for a fast youngster here.

Ben Crockett did 1¼ miles in 2.03, working the mile in 1.48 with Kilogram.

Cannie Hand and Courtmartial sprinted a half in :54½.

The Jennings string, Malabar, Plantagenet, Stonebrook, Dr. Sproule, Dutch Frigate, Uncle Ab and Ocean Brook have arrived.

There will be no schooling in the steeplechase field to-day. The course is in a very soggy condition, but it will be open to owners on Monday and Wednesday of next week, unless the condition of the weather prevents.

The street railway will again run a special Sunday morning car, leaving Roncesvalles-avenue at 4, via Queen, York and King, arriving at the Woodbine at 4.40.

RULING OF THE GOLF PLAYERS.

Handicaps Handed Out at New York According to New System.

New York, May 12.—Walter J. Travis is plus 1 on the official handicaps of the Metropolitan Golf Association for 1905, issued yesterday by the committee—Leighton Calkins, F. W. Menzies and Frederick J. Phillips. There are 1560 players handicapped, against 1204 last spring, 1100 in 1903, and about 1000 in 1902. After allowing for the normal increase in the number of players, there are probably 200 players who find a place this year owing to the new system of handicapping, which takes into consideration the greater chances to improve which some players have over others. In other words, some who were rated at 21 or 22 on par are this year rated at 17, and just make the list. Men who got 17 by the old system will, this year receive in the neighborhood of 14. Those at 7 or under this year follow:
