MUST SECURE HIS COSTS.

Arrested on a Misapprehension and Now Struggling for Redress at the Hands of the Law.

Osgoode Hall, Feb. 6, 1896.

In McCabe v. Marshall, the plaintiff appealed to the Divisional Court from the order of Boyd, C., affirming an order of the Master in Chambers, directing him to give security for costs.

The defendant, a Justice of the Peace living in the Township of Pilkington, having read a description of the supposed murderer of Jessie Keith, observed the plaintiff passing his house, who answered the description, at least in some particulars. He forthwith arrested and imprisoned him, and then brought him before another Magistrate, by whom he was discharged. The plaintiff then brought this action for trespass, false arrest, and imprisonment against Marshall, and upon the application of the latter, the Master in Chambers made the order for security for costs, under the special provision of 53 Vic., ch. 23, affording protection to Magistrates. Tytler, plaintiff, contended that the Magistrate was not acting as a Magistrate when he laid hands on the supposed culprit, but as one of Her Majesty's liege subjects might act, and was therefore not entitled to the special protection of the statute. The court, without calling upon J. H. Moss, who appeared for the defendant, dismissed the appeal with costs.

To-Day's Peremptories.

Divisional Court, at 11 a.m.: Cook v. Baker (to be concluded), Patrick v. Walbourne, Taylor v. Walbourne, McNichol v. Thompson, Wilkinson v. Sheppard, re Cockburn title.

Court of Appeal, at 11 a.m.: Shaw v. Shaw (to be concluded), Ontario Forge and Bolt Company v. Comet Cycle Company (to be concluded), Northern SS. Company v. Hackett, Sombra v. Chatham, McGuinness v. Dafoe.

OSGOODE HALL NOTES.

Items of Interest Gathered at the Law's Headquarters Yesterday.

Chief Justice Armour has made an order for the winding up of the Diebl Manufacturing Company and appointing E. R. C. Clarkson provisional liquidator.

In Moore v. Sutherland the Chief Justice, upon a case stated for the construction of will of late H. Moore of Dundas, reserved judgment. The will is a very lengthy one and has two codicils, and a most imposing array of counsel appeared to perplex the Chief Justice upon the important points of law involved in the case. Mr. B. B. Osler, Q.C., and Mr. H. S. Osler are for the plaintiff. Mr. Robinson, Q.C., and Mr. Lazier, Q.C., are for the executors. Mr. S. H. Blake, Q.C., and Mr. Teetzel, Q.C., are for the defendants, except the infant defendant, for whom Mr. F. W. Harcourt appears. It was the opinion of nearly every one in the crowded court room when the arguments of counsel were concluded that the Chief Justice might fairly determine the case according to the contention of any one of the opposing counsel and be perfectly in accordance with the dictates of reason and justice. In fact, so able and conclusive were the arguments that each counsel appeared to be converted to the views of the others as the result of the argument. Such a case as this will surely be settled out of court before it reaches the Privy Council.

Corrupt practices are alleged against Mr. Barnes, the Mayor of Rat Portage, and the Master in Chambers granted a fiat at the instance of Mr. McCarthy, a ratepayer, calling upon the Mayor to show cause why he should not be unseated.

Chief Justice Hagarty has just completed 40 years of service to the Province of Ontario as one of its judges.

Edith McDoel values the damages to her character at the hands of her father, William H. Doel, J.P., Eglinton, at $10,000, and has sued for that amount.

MacMaster & Co., are seeking to recover $633 from Barber & Broach, Trenton, alleged to be due on notes and bills of exchange, and Isabella McIndless of Cookstown complains that John Platt is indebted to her in the sum of $650 for money loaned.

THE FARM PUPIL AGENCIES.

A Change of Program to Evade the Immigration Authorities.

Since the Canadian steamship companies have cancelled the booking agency of the savory or unsavory International Emigration Society of London, Eng., represented in Toronto by F. P. McArthur, the concern has transferred its patronage to an American line. On Monday three "pupils" arrived here from New York, having sailed from Southampton on SS. Paris. These men, M. Lauory, a Frenchman, George Frank Scholes, 27, a bank clerk, and Fred. Ernest Dunn, 30, a dry goods clerk, received letters from McArthur, instructing them to proceed to Messrs. Samuel and William Stephenson, Goldsmith P.O. (Comber Station). Their tickets, issued by the International Emigration Company, read to Toronto and as their contract with the company is to be landed at their destination for the 21 pounds paid they object to paying railroad fare from here to Essex County, and claim that this is deception on the part of the farm pupil agency. Just what action Mr. McArthur will take in regard to his victims remains to be seen.

Men who suffer from mental worry and overwork will find prompt relief in Miller's Compound Iron Pills. 50 doses, 25 cents.

Borne to Their Rest.

The remains of the late George Coleman of The Orange Sentinel were interred yesterday afternoon in Mount Pleasant Cemetery. Pastor R.P. Bowles of Clinton-street Methodist Church officiated. Cameron L.O.L. 613 had charge of the arrangements. Officers and members of Court Cairnsmore I.O.F. attended. Among the floral tributes was a wreath with the figures "30," which are so familiar to newspaper men, from the employes of The Sentinel.

The funeral of Mr. F. G. Polson, who fell dead in Markham-street on Monday, took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 144 Manning-avenue, and was attended by members of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association, with which Mr. Polson was connect

TRADE IN CANADA.

R. G. Dun & Co. Report Disappointment in Business Circles.

There is a feeling of disappointment in Montreal business circles at the non-increase of the trade movement. The well-worn excuse of poor country roads, is hardly now available, but country dealers generally are light buyers. Probably this spirit of caution, considering all circumstances, is rather commendable than otherwise. It is yet almost too early, at the moment of writing, to form a close idea as to how payments ran off on the 4th inst., as returns are not yet in from distant points. In the drygoods trade there has been a certain amount of apprehension, which, however, does not seem to have been borne out, and the different houses consulted say that as far as they can judge, payments will not be any worse than last year, and they do not now anticipate any number of failures.

Reports of trade received at Toronto during the week are not very encouraging. Payments on the 4th, while perhaps better than some had anticipated, were not what we might have expected from a healthy trade. There were a large number of renewals asked for, and the list of failures for the week were unusually heavy. The only satisfaction for those in business is the reflection that things may pick up a little in view of the fact that a great deal of uncertainty in the situation is removed by the failure wreck. The changes in prices of merchandise are unimportant. Woolens and cottons may be a trifle weaker, while sugars rule firm. Orders generally from travelers do not indicate any large movement. The advance in prices of wheat ought to help the grower of this cereal. There is a good deal of speculation as to the quantity held by farmers, but, no doubt, the higher prices will bring more to market.

MISSIONARIES IN ASIA.

Two Former Torontonians Having an Interesting Time Among the Chinese.

Rev. Dr. Sutherland has received tidings from two of the Canadian Methodist missionaries now in China. Rev. Dr. Vincent Hart and Rev. Mr. Hartwell, both of whom are well-known in Toronto, report that after a journey lasting 27 days up the Yang-tse River from Ichang, they have reached the city of Chung-King, far in the interior of Asia. The voyage was made in Chinese house boats and, notwithstanding much exposure, the missionaries are in good health.

At Chung-King the missionaries announced their intention of setting out for the disordered province of Chentu. The American commission for the settlement of claims arising through the riots there has already reached Chentu and Dr. Hart reports that the Chinese authorities are co-operating for the return of the missionaries. At Chung-King there is some excitement owing to the fact that Japanese traders are reported to have entered the city to do business and placards are occasionally put up announcing that the missionaries are to be driven out.

George Follis, blacksmith, Eden Grove, has assigned to H. Cowan.

The assets of J. F. Belanger, painter, Ottawa, have been sold to E. Belanger.

H. H. Page, drygoods, Ottawa, has assigned.

J. S. Whittaker, Barrie, has assigned to John Hood.

January School Statistics.

The January Public School report shows that 26,568 pupils are enrolled, of whom 23,019 form the average attendance. Sickness and stormy weather were responsible for the daily absence of about 3500 children. 794 pupils experienced the gentle titillations of the strap during the month.

A CLOSE SHAVE

A TALK WITH THE MAN WHO EXPERIENCED IT.

People really do not know how often the angel of death hovers over them. Mr. R. P. Watkins, 173 Bay st., is a barber by trade, and gave our representative this short history of his escape from the disorder which was rapidly carrying him to his grave. Mr. Watkins is a skillful and experienced man, and is now enabled to exercise his skill from morning till night, where before he was unable to regularly follow his chosen calling. This is Mr. Watkins' story as related by himself.

"For over three years I have been troubled with what the doctors said was Bright's Disease, was getting rapidly worse, and could scarcely attend to my business. My ankles were swollen, the pain and heat in my back were almost unbearable, the urine was of a dark wine color, and it used to dribble away continually. I had to rise 9 or 10 times each night to void the urine, and consequently lost nearly all my sleep. The scalding heat and pain in passing the urine were painful and distressing beyond my feeble power to describe. People who did not know my trouble used to laugh at my frequent visits to the urinal. My hands and feet were always cold and clammy, and I suffered severely from palpitation, shortness of breath, and was, in fact, almost a total wreck. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from Messrs. E. Hooper & Co., and improved at once. I have used two boxes and feel like a new man; can now work right along and at 12 p.m. feel like working right ahead. Had I not got those pills I feel that I would not have been working to-day. My words only faintly express the dreadful condition I was in, and the wonderful cure made by Doan's Kidney Pills."

TIPS FROM WALL-STREET.

The market was active to-day and closed somewhat irregular.

There is a great deal of bullish talk on Sugar Trust.

Morgan is buying Southern preferred and C. & O.

There was considerable realizing in Rock Island, St. Paul and Louisville & Nashville.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

Henry A. King & Co., 12 King-street east, received the following despatch today from Chicago:

Cables came firmer this morning, and our speculative market opened up about half a cent higher on May option at 68c. The principal bear feature was the large Northwest receipts, 514 cars, against 99 cars same day a year ago, or over five times as much. There seems to be no let up to these receipts so far. On the lack of outside support and a fair amount of realizing the market sold off to 67⅛c, and on active buying again sold up to 67¾c. The bulk of the news is very bullish, and there seems no reason for any big decline. Reports were also received to-day confirming the damage to the Argentine crop. The weak feature is nearly everybody seems to be holders, and on any attempt to sell the market sags off. The trading has been quite active and sensitive and fluctuates sharply. Cables closed unchanged to half a farthing better.

Corn and oats—Trade very light in both markets, and at times ruled quite dull, prices covering but ¼c range. Receipts were a trifle under expectations.

Provisions ruled dull within a narrow range. Trading was only moderate, and mostly in pork, with the bulk of transactions for May contracts. Domestic markets were reported lower, and less active. The cash market continued dull for both domestic consumption and Continental export, with the general tone easier.
