WIPE OUT 30,000 ENGLISH SALOONS

British Government's Licensing Bill Is Far Reaching.

REDUCTION IS PROGRESSIVE

Asquith Says the Ultimate Intention Is for the State to Recover the Monopoly of Liquor Traffic.

London, Feb. 27.—Chancellor of the Exchequer Asquith introduced the licensing bill in the House of Commons this afternoon. This is the principal Government measure for the present session of Parliament. The capital invested in licensed property in this country is about $1,200,000,000. Briefly, the bill provides for the compulsory reduction within a specified period, and on a uniform scale of the number of saloons licensed throughout the country. In cities it is proposed to allow one saloon for every 750 persons, and in the country districts one saloon for every 400 persons. This regulation, it is estimated, will wipe out in the neighborhood of 30,000 licenses, about one-third of the present total.

The bill proposes that this reduction be affected within twenty years. Local option is to govern the issuance of new licenses, and a majority of the parochial electors is sufficient to prohibit the granting of a license.

Chancellor Asquith expressed the opinion that England was not yet ripe for compulsory Sunday closing, but he said that outside the metropolis no saloon would be allowed to keep open on Sunday for more than one hour at midday or more than two hours in the evening. In conclusion, the chancellor declared that if this bill was adopted the state in twenty years would obtain unfettered control of the license system.

The system of compensating those entirely deprived of their licenses is to lapse after a period of fourteen years from the commencement of the act, and an end thus will be put to the vested interests in the licenses.

Two million people are engaged in the liquor traffic at present.

THE RUBBER MERGER.

Montreal, Feb. 27.—The satisfactory results obtained by the Canadian Consolidated Rubber Company through the merger of many of the leading companies was shown by the reports submitted at the annual meeting today. The total sales were $6,659,598, and the net profits $596,982, after the payment of bond interest and dividend on preferred stocks to the amount of $311,870 was carried forward. Toronto will now be more closely identified with the company, as Mr. D. Coulson, the general manager of the Bank of Toronto, was elected to the board. Mr. James Robinson, organizer of the Maple Leaf Rubber Company, was elected chairman of the executive, owing to the absence through illness of Mr. D. Lorne McGibbon, president and general manager.

WIDER POWERS THAN ANY COURT

Mr. Graham's Bill Legalizing Railway Commissioners Read First Time.

Ottawa, Feb. 27. — Hon. Frank Oliver, in the House today, in answer to Mr. Monk (Jacques Cartier), informed the gentleman that the two Japanese recently deported at Vancouver were removed under the authority of the immigration officials at Vancouver. Up to the present time the Government was not prepared to enforce the recent order-in-council at railroad points, but would soon be in a position to do so. Machinery is also being provided for a system of immigration inspection along the boundary line west of the great lakes.

When Hon. George P. Graham's bill to legalize the board of railway commissioners was brought up in committee, Mr. Graham explained that the assistant chief commissioner must be a qualified judge of the superior court or a barrister of ten years' standing. The board, when enlarged, may hold more than one sitting at the same time, two commissioners being a quorum, and the decision of any portion of the board having the force of the full board, without the right of appeal to the majority. Every railway company shall have an agent at Ottawa, upon whom notice can be served if required. Mr. Graham said the bill defining the powers of the enlarged commission was not yet ready, but would be before the House before the bill enlarging the commission had passed beyond consideration. The two bills could thus be considered together.

W. F. MacLean (South York) suggested that cartage companies might properly be included in the jurisdiction of the board, as the cartage charges on merchandise frequently exceeded the freight charge.

Mr. Graham, in reply to the question what qualifications would be required in the two new commissioners, said: "They won't need to be lawyers; they won't need to be laymen; but they will require to be good men."

Hon. John Haggart criticised the appointment of an assistant chief commissioner, and also criticised the qualification that he must be a lawyer.

Mr. MacLean (South York) favored the placing of an experienced railwayman on the board.

Mr. Graham replied that such a man could not be had at the salary mentioned in the resolution. The board now had wider powers than any court in Canada, but if any real good were to be gotten out of it, the decisions must be prompt, as well as just. He hoped the real objects of the board would not be smothered by piling on their shoulders a multiplicity of minor details to look after.

Mr. David Marshall (East Elgin) said he did not care who made up the commission as long as they were good, practical men. He hoped the bill would come into force at the earliest possible date.

The bill was read a first time.

Mr. Aylesworth's bill to amend the winding-up act was given a third reading and passed.

TO SETTLE DEADLOCKS

Amendment to the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board Act.

Toronto, Feb. 27.—Hon. J. S. Hendries bill amending the railway and municipal board act has been distributed.

The clause enabling the board to step in in cases of deadlock between the company and the city is as follows:

"If any dispute shall arise between the company and the municipality as to the location of the rails in any street or highway, as to the pavement of the streets or highways, or as to the concrete or other foundations upon which the rails or special work should be laid, or as to the rails or special work to be used in construction, or as to the proportion of the cost of the said pavement, concrete or other foundations to be borne by the company and the municipality respectively, the board shall hear and determine all questions in dispute and make such order as to it may seem just and reasonable.

MUST PASS EXAMINATION.

Toronto, Feb. 27.—The private bills committee of the Legislature this morning killed the first bill this year. It was a bill to permit William Jordan of Dutton, to practice as a veterinary surgeon without taking the usual examination. The committee laid down the principle that it was necessary to pass the examination.
