WHIST CONGRESS THURSDAY

Program Consists of Many Excellent Contests.

The eleventh congress of the Canadian Whist League, which convenes in the assembly room of the Temple Building on Thursday next, promises more than usual interest this year, on account of the many excellent contests arranged by the executive and the large number of entries consequently received.

The congress opens on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock with a progressive pairs match in sections A and B. In the evening the match for the mixed fours championship will take place, which is made up of teams composed of two ladies and two gentlemen each. Concurrently with this contest, compass games are to be played, the winners of which qualify for the Hay trophy and pairs championship match.

On Friday morning at 10 o'clock the principal contest of the congress commences, namely, the fours championship. This contest always provokes keen interest, and attracts the leading whist players of the Dominion, as the winners are awarded gold medals, and become the holders of the "Goodall" Trophy for six months without challenge, and as this trophy, which is a massive silver cup, is emblematic of whist excellence, the efforts to obtain it are of the strongest. The first round is played on the Mitchell compass system; the two teams securing the highest scores play off the final game on Friday afternoon in a regular fours match.

On Friday evening the annual meeting of the league is held, followed by the mixed pairs championship contest. This match is one of the most popular of the congress, as many of the best lady whist players in Canada take part in it every year.

On Saturday morning the ladies' pairs competition takes place, and in the afternoon the struggle for the pairs championship and "Hay" Trophy begins. It is played in two sessions, afternoon and evening.

Open compass games are held at every session, so that there will not only be a great variety of contests, but every player will have an excellent opportunity of winning at least a souvenir in the shape of an elegant whist pin emblematic of the 1906 congress.

Additional interest exists this year by reason of the enterprise and generosity of the Charles Goodall & Sons Co. of London, England, the famous makers of playing cards, who will present to every player registering at the congress a handsome souvenir, consisting of two beautiful packs of whist cards, encased in an artistic heart-shaped box, tinted in mauve and gold, and bearing the monogram of the Canadian Whist League.

Turf Gossip.

The long winter session at City Park came to a close with the running of Saturday's program. It marked the 111th day of racing under the City Park Jockey Club. Crescent City lasts another week.

M. J. Daly, who has been racing a string of horses during the past 25 years, has announced his intention of shifting his operations to England. He contemplates a trip abroad in July.

Sam Hildreth, with Security and Rapid Water, furnished the features of Saturday's racing at the Crescent City track. Both were odds-on favorites, both outclassed their company and both won easily. Aurumaster was the only other successful favorite.

BARROWITES LOSE TO GALT IN FIRST GAME OF SEASON

On Wet Grounds Score Was 6 to 5, Urbach Pitching for Home Team.

Galt, April 7.—(Special.)—Barrow's braves came down from their baths and mineral water at Preston Saturday afternoon and played a 6 to 5 lost game of ball with the Galts, twice winners of the Canadian League pennant. The match had been in anticipation for a week, but the snow flurry of Friday rendered it an uncertain pull off till 1.30 Saturday. The locals went on the field in pure green shape, not having swung a bat or tossed a ball this gentle spring. The Barrow beauties came on deck fresh and good from a week's hard practice at the Springs and feeling pretty near in condition to settle down to business at Diamond Park. There was a crowd of 500. The ground was soggy and a high wind blew from the north.

The game was called at 3.15, with Toronto's hopefuls at bat. Flaherty handed them out for Galt. The side scored after it should have been retired. The second innings was a blank. Toronto scored in the third, Urbach replaced Flaherty in the fourth, Toronto touching him up for two. He shut them out in the fifth and allowed them one in the sixth and clinched the game for Galt in the seventh and final innings, striking out Hurlburt and leaving Frick on third. Galt blanked the first two innings, scored 2 in the third on Hindmarsh's drive to centre for three bases, no scoring in the fourth, three in the fifth and one in the sixth, Kerwin was exchanged for Jaeger in the fifth innings. The match was marked by fair hitting and Toronto certainly has a find in young Urbach, no player doing better work than the featherweight did to win for his foster side. Jaeger, while not taking any chances with his arm, displayed excellent control. Turnie seemed to be the only one that solved the problem of Kerwin's curves. For Galt Flaherty on the slab gave an admirable exhibition of pitching. "On call," Currie and Urbach, whom Manager Barrow kindly loaned to Galt, were appreciated and helped out. If Clarence's arm ever goes back on him and he can keep on delivering the goods as he did to-day on right field and at bat, he need never lack for a job on the diamond. Taking it all in all the Toronto team looks better than it did this time last year. Eagan, as umpire, showed nerve, good judgment and a disposition to hold things down pat. The little judge will probably be wanted the coming season. Following is the score:

The Senecas are requested to turn out to practice Monday night, at the corner of Rusholme and Dewson.

Columbia and the New York Lacrosse Club opened the local lacrosse season on Saturday with a lively game, ending in a tie score at 8 goals apiece.

The Crescent A. C. lacrosse team, with all of the old stars in play and Archie Allan in goal, defeated the Stevens Institute at Brooklyn on Saturday by 5 to 1.

Brusso and Fitzsimmons.

New York, April 7.—Tommy Burns (Noah Brusso) may be pitted against Bob Fitzsimmons at the Tuxedo A. C., instead of Gus Ruhlin. Ruhlin's demand for more than 25 per cent. of the gate receipts for a fight with Fitzsimmons at Tom O'Rourke's Tuxedo Club, at Essington, Pa., may result in the side-tracking of the Akron man in favor of Brusso.
