TORONTO'S DOUBLE-HEADER BEAT MONTREAL 4-3, 13-1

Buffalo Shut Out Providence, But Still Champions Made Usual Daily Gain.

Toronto won two at Diamond Park on Saturday, the first when Briggs pitched against Luyster, by the smallest possible margin, while in the second, Bruce against Hemming, the champions made a runaway race of it. Buffalo beat Providence and still Toronto made another gain on the enemy.

Another great crowd turned out to see the games, spectators being lined along both foul lines.

American League Standing.

New York, Sept. 13.—It was no trouble for the American League leaders to dispose of the New Yorks yesterday. At the same time the third place dream became more indistinct, as the Philadelphia beat Washington. St. Louis shut out Chicago and Cleveland beat Detroit twice. Results:

Boston, 10; New York, 1.
Philadelphia, 5; Washington, 3.
St. Louis, 11; Chicago, 0.
Cleveland, 3; Detroit, 2 (first game).
Cleveland, 4; Detroit, 0 (second game).

Toronto Won First, 4 to 3.

In the first game Toronto got one in the second on hits by Carr and Miller, and double steals by Briggs and Carr, the latter sliding beautifully under Brennan. Montreal notched three after two were out in the fourth on two charities, an error by Fuller in missing White's throw in of Sheehan's hit, and a two-bagger by Schreeder. Toronto very nearly tied in the seventh, when they secured one. After two were gone Connaughton fumbled Miller's grounder and the latter scored on Weidensaul's scientific tap down the first base line for three bases. Toronto got the lead in the eighth on singles by White, a sacrifice by Briggs and singles by Massey and Carr. Scores:

Providence Here To-Day.

Toronto will play six more games on the home grounds, three the first half of this week and the other three the latter half of next week. The strong Providence team will be the locals' opponents to-day, to-morrow and Wednesday. The Grays have been a stumbling block for Toronto all season. Falkenburg will pitch for the home club.

Other Eastern League Results.

Buffalo, Sept. 12.—Buffalo and Providence played one of the best games of the season to-day, Buffalo winning by the score of 2 to 0. Both Milligan and Yerkes gave Bellers little chance to meet the ball with any great effort, the hits all being confined to singles. Buffalo was fortunate in getting the benefit of a close decision in the third and scored its first run. The second was the result of two singles and good base running:

New Players for Toronto.

Arthur Irwin returned to the city on Saturday, having signed Third Baseman Rapp and Centrefielder Murray of the Manchester Club of the New England League, which season closed on Saturday. Rapp played in 106 games, had 108 hits, 77 runs and 45 stolen bases. He will be in to-day's game. Murray was tried out by the Chicago National League Club.

CRESCENTS BEAT PICKED TEAM.

Clean Exhibition of Baseball at Sunlight Park.

At Sunlight Park on Saturday afternoon the first game of a series between the champion Crescents and a picked nine was played and won by the former team. The Crescents played the better all round ball and deserved a win. The picked nine could do very little with Scott's delivery, while the Crescents held up their "pen" for hard hitting team, touching Molson up for 15 hits. The game was a clever exhibition, both teams playing snappy ball. The teams meet again next Saturday, Long pitching for the picked nine and Armstrong for the Crescents. Saturday's score:

City Amateur League Games.

The regular scheduled games of the City Amateur League were played at Stanley Park on Saturday afternoon. The first game between the Park Nine and Queen Citys resulted in an easy win for the Park Nine, as Bentley was very wild and the Park Nine hit hard when he did locate the plate. The second game proved to be close and exciting throughout, the Wellingtons winning thru timely batting and superior work on the bases. The features of the game were Cardow's work at second for the Saints and the catching of Archer and W. Forbes' home run hit for the Wellingtons. Following are the scores:

New Players for Toronto.

Arthur Irwin returned to the city on Saturday, having signed Third Baseman Rapp and Centrefielder Murray of the Manchester Club of the New England League, which season closed on Saturday. Rapp played in 106 games, had 108 hits, 77 runs and 45 stolen bases. He will be in to-day's game. Murray was tried out by the Chicago National League Club.

CRESCENTS BEAT PICKED TEAM.

Clean Exhibition of Baseball at Sunlight Park.

At Sunlight Park on Saturday afternoon the first game of a series between the champion Crescents and a picked nine was played and won by the former team. The Crescents played the better all round ball and deserved a win. The picked nine could do very little with Scott's delivery, while the Crescents held up their "pen" for hard hitting team, touching Molson up for 15 hits. The game was a clever exhibition, both teams playing snappy ball. The teams meet again next Saturday, Long pitching for the picked nine and Armstrong for the Crescents. Saturday's score:

City Amateur League Games.

The regular scheduled games of the City Amateur League were played at Stanley Park on Saturday afternoon. The first game between the Park Nine and Queen Citys resulted in an easy win for the Park Nine, as Bentley was very wild and the Park Nine hit hard when he did locate the plate. The second game proved to be close and exciting throughout, the Wellingtons winning thru timely batting and superior work on the bases. The features of the game were Cardow's work at second for the Saints and the catching of Archer and W. Forbes' home run hit for the Wellingtons. Following are the scores:

Park Nine						R.	H.	E.
	3	0	4	0	0	7	7	3
Queen Citys	0	0	0	2	0	2	3	4

Batteries—Stevens and Graham; Bentley, Donovan, Hudson and Ferguson.
