LONDON BROKE EVEN IN GAME WITH LEADERS AT OTTAWA

TECUMSEHS AND SENATORS PLAY TIE GAME IN CAPITAL; SCORE, 8-8

Ottawa Had More Hits, but Schwind's Errors Helped.

LONDON SCORED 5 IN FIFTH INNING

Chaput Twirled His First Game and Was Hit Hard—Fox Starred in Field.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—Ottawa and London went nine weird but exciting innings to an 8-8 score yesterday afternoon in the second game of the series under way at Lansdowne Park. Darkness hove in sight after two hours and a half of riotous going, so Umpire Phyle called off the hostilities, and a double-header will be staged Saturday to decide the tie.

Each team had two great big three-ringed innings, but the fifth, in which London sent six men across the rubber, was the most wonderful of the lot. Incidentally, it brought very much into the limelight Artie Schwind, who has been setting the league on fire of late. But the calcium fell on the crack shortstop at a time when he would have preferred to have been behind the curtain. In this one Schwind dropped a pop fly booted a grounder and threw two balls to the grand stand, every error costing runs. It was a bad day for the little fellow, but he sort of atoned for his bad showing in the field by cracking out three safe hits, and started the rally in the sixth that enabled Ottawa to overcome a three run lead.

Chaput Was Hammered.

"Frenchy" Chaput, London's new pitcher, just fresh from the South, was sent in against Fred Herbert, but didn't look very good after two or three rounds. Herbert, on the other hand, started off splendidly, and beyond a slight liberality with passes looked master of the situation up till the time Schwind ran amuck. With 2,000 followers in the stand, half of whom were lady fans, the Senators set out to put the game away at the start. They came through with one in the first, another in the second and two in the third. London, in the meantime, secured one in the third, and it looked as if affairs would continue this way, when the hippodrome transpired in the fifth.

THE BIG INNINGS.

Speer, the first man up, popped a fly inside the diamond which both Robertson and Schwind went for, and which Schwind proceeded to drop. Neale singled. Speer was caught napping off second. Chaput walked and Linneburn hit to Schwind, who had plenty of time to make a double but juggled the ball so long Neale was round third and hit for the plate. Schwind then threw fifty feet over Hooper's head in an attempt to catch Neale, and the latter scored with Chaput. Dinsmore then singled to centre, sending Linneburn to third. Gilhooley hit to Schwind, who fielded the ball cleverly but threw it to the grandstand in an effort to head off Linneburn. Bierbauer hit to centre, Gilhooley scoring. Kelleher walked, and Bierbauer scored on Fox's infield tap. Speer came up for the second time and flew out to left. Neale ended the horror by striking out.

A chagrined crowd suddenly became joy-stricken when the Senators hit right back, with three runs, tying the game. In the eighth London went ahead again on the squeeze play, but Ottawa got it back in their half. Darkness then drove the teams to cover.

Renfer and McManus Sold.

It was announced today that Ottawa had sold Pitcher Erwin Renfer to Providence International team club, and he will report there at the close of the present series with London. Pitcher McManus has also been sold to Cincinnati, and will report as soon as he recovers from his recent illness. The Score:

MARQUARD WAS MAULED

Prize Southpaw Given Rough Treatment and Was Sent to the Barn—Immense Crowd at Doings.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Chicago today won the opening game of the series from New York 5 to 1, driving Marquard out of the box in the fifth and reducing New York's lead in the race for the National League pennant to five games. It was estimated that 25,000 persons witnessed the contest. Every available spot in the grounds was occupied, and thousands had to be denied admission to the park for lack of space.

Marquard's defeat came in the fifth inning. With Archer out, Richie singled and Sheckard walked. Merkle got Schulte's fly. Tinker drove a slashing double into the right field crowd, scoring Richie. Zimmerman sent a double in the same spot, bringing Sheckard and Tinker home. Leach singled to right, scoring Zimmerman, and raced to second on Murray's throw to the plate. He took third on a wild pitch. Saier walked and Downs hit safely to right, scoring Leach and sending Saier to third.

Manager McGraw then sent Crandall into the game to replace Marquard. Archer lifted a fly to Murray ending the inning.

Doubles by Murray and Merkle scored New York's only run in the fourth inning. Murray opened the inning with a two-base hit and Merkle sent him home with a two-base drive into right field. Merkle went to third on Herzog's sacrifice, but was caught between third and home when Meyers drove the ball at Zimmerman. Meyers then attempted to reach second, but Zimmerman relayed the ball to Downs, catching Meyers ten feet from the base.

A spectacular double play cut off New York's chance for scoring early in the game. In the second inning with one out, Merkle was safe on Downs' error, Herzog doubled, sending Merkle to third. Meyers was purposely walked, filling the bases. Fletcher hit to Tinker, who caught Meyers at second. Downs shot the ball to Saier getting Fletcher and retiring the side.

Richie pitched splendid ball for Chicago, holding his opponents to six hits. The score:

1Batted for Fletcher in ninth.

Rochester Shut Out Providence With Donovan in the Box—Jersey City Took a Double-Header.

Newark, Aug. 15. — Enough excitement and slugging to satisfy the most exacting fan was crowded into the battle between the Indians and Maple Leafs at Wiedenmyer's Park this afternoon. The Toronto terrors celebrated their last appearance of the season in this city by coming through with a ninth inning rally that allowed them to walk off with an 8 to 6 victory. Almost every available man on the rival teams was pressed into service. Manager Joe McGinnity, of the Indians, had fourteen men in the game, while Manager Joe Kelley, of the Leafs, used fifteen. Each side used three twirlers—Gaskell, Lee and Dent being on the mound for the Redskins, while Gaspar, Maxwell and Rudolph were used on the firing line by Kelley.
