FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, Nov. 7—The delightful weather of Saturday added to the enjoyment of an exciting paper chase, which started from College Hill in the afternoon, being led by Miss Dorothy Purdy and Mr. Withers, followed by Mr. and Mrs. Corfield, Miss Nan Brock, Mr. Harold Brock, Miss Jean Daniel, Misses McKean, Miss Sophie Robertson, Miss Madge Robertson, Miss Johnson, Mr. Purdy, Mr. Schaefer, Mr. Morrison and others. After the run a pleasant hour was spent at Blairgowrie, the home of Miss Brock, others coming in for a cup of tea being Rev. W. R. and Mrs. Hibbard, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell, Mr. George Trites, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Mr. and Mrs. J. Willis Davidson, Mrs. W. S. Allison, Miss Davidson and others.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Flood are returning to St. John tomorrow, having made arrangements for the winter at the Carleton street apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Starr returned home yesterday from a visit to Boston.

Miss Ethel Kennedy will leave by tomorrow afternoon's C. P. R. to visit Mr. and Mrs. Steele in New York and may be away all winter.

Mr. Parrish, of the Courtenay Bay works, spent the week-end on College Hill, guest of Mr. Mallett.

Among those who attended the Fredericton Diocesan Synod meetings in St. John this week are Rev. A. W. Daniel and Rev. W. R. Hibbard, of Rothesay.

On Saturday afternoon a football match is to be played on College Hill, between St. John High School and a Rothesay college team. Yesterday the third team of Rothesay played the High School third team in St. John and brought home the honors.

Mr. Donald Cook, of the Bank of Montreal, St. John, who has spent several months at the Kennedy House, is removing to the city on Monday.

There have been several small bridge parties, of two or three tables, during the past week. Among the hostesses were Miss Davidson, whose guests were Miss Daniel, Miss Purdy, Mrs. J. W. Davidson, Miss Brock, Mr. H. Brock, Mr. Fritz Schafer and Mr. Frank Morrison.

Mr. Will Fairweather, of Amherst, spent the week-end here with his father and sisters, Dr. W. A. and the Misses Fairweather.

Miss Grace Ayer is this week visiting friends in St. John.

Miss Alice Cole returned on Saturday from Sackville, where she spent a week with relatives.

Tomorrow afternoon Mr. Percy Page will leave for New York, expecting shortly to enjoy a European trip with his sister, Mrs. Daniel O'Day, of New York.

Mr. A. B. Pipes, of Dorchester, who is attending the synod meetings in St. John, spent the week-end here.

Mrs. T. B. Roberts, who has been seriously ill, is somewhat improved.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Frank Morrison gave a bridge of three tables, the guests being Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Willis Davidson, Miss Brock, Mr. Harold Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard, Mr. Adams, Mr. Percy Page and Mr. Cooper. It being Guy Fawkes' day, very pretty score cards suggestive of the occasion were provided.

Mr. Morrison entertained again last evening at two tables of bridge, those present being Mrs. R. P. Foster, Miss Daniel, Miss Alice Davidson, Miss Purdy, Mr. Fritz Schaefer, Mr. Mallett and Mr. Withers.

A delightful missionary evening was provided for the members and friends of the Woman's Social Circle on Wednesday, the programme being in charge of Mrs. McMurray and Mrs. McFadzen. A very bright and interesting address on Woman's Misisonary Work was given by Mrs. Jameson, of St. John, which was greatly enjoyed. Miss Cole sang as a very sweet solo, The Homeland, and everybody joined in appropriate hymns. Ice cream and cake were served, during a social half hour, appreciation and thanks being expressed by all. A Longfellow evening is being arranged for the evening of Wednesday, 20th inst., with a quiet social night on the Wednesday between.

Mr. Horace Longley left yesterday on a trip to the west.

Mrs. G. Ludlow Robinson is guest at the Kennedy House for the winter.

Yesterday being the first Wednesday of the month, the principals and teachers of Netherwood were at home to their friends, and received many callers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Schaefer and Mr. G. P. Trites have issued invitations for a dance and bridge to be given at the Kennedy House on the evening of Thursday, 14th inst.

Mrs. Wetmore Merritt and Mrs. Atwater Smith, from St. John, were among Rothesay friends on Monday.

On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Verner McLellan, Miss Doody and Miss Sears motored from the city and had tea at the Kennedy House.

Mr. Fritz Schaefer is leaving here next week for Montreal.

DALHOUSIE

Dalhousie, N. B., Nov. 6—The go-ahead citizens of our town are delighted with the result of the vote on electric lighting. The mayor thinks that before June next, Dalhousie will have installed a modern plant.

Mrs. John Baldwin has returned home from Boston, where she had been spending several weeks the guest of her sons and daughters.

Mrs. Fred O'Leary, of Montreal, was in town last week, and was the guest of Mrs. P. B. Troy.

Miss Cook of New Mills ,was the guest of Mrs. L. D. Jones recently.

Mrs. C. H. LaBillois has returned home after a six weeks visit to friends in Quebec and Montreal and is very much improved in health.

Mr. Jack Racey, of the Royal Bank here, has been transferred to a branch of the Royal in Montreal.

Mrs. Albert Tait, who has been very ill, is now convalescent.

Mrs. James Anderson, of South Nelson, who spent the summer here with her husband, a guest at the Allain House, left for her home on Tuesday's Limited.

Mrs. A. C. Belle Isle, of Campbellton, and her sister, Miss Juliet Cyr, of Ruisseau LeBlanc, Bonaventure county (P.Q.), were visitors to Dalhousie on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Simpson celebrated their crystal wedding on Monday evening. Their home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Over seventy invitations were issued. Dancing was kept up till a late hour, and dainty refreshments were served. Their many friends took the occasion to show their appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, who received many pretty pieces of crystal and china.

Mrs. Wm. McNaughton, of Quebec, and her little son, Gerald, are the guests of their friends, Hon. C. H. and Mrs. LaBillois.

The supper given on Hallowe'en night in the Morris Hall, by the ladies of St. Mary's Episcopal church, was a success in every way. The sum of $70 was realized.

Rev. R. J. Coleman has been in St. John this week attending the Diocesan Synod.

The Misses Samson, of Dalhousie, were among those who went from here today to attend the whist party to be held this evening in Murray's Hall, at Campbellton, for the hospital.

Mr. Joseph McIntyre and his family left Dalhousie today to reside in future in their old home at Upper Charlo.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, N. B., Nov. 6—Miss Marian Bullmer, of Moncton, is the guest of Miss Lily Williamson.

Mrs. John Clark, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Robbins, at Hopewell (N. S.), for the past month, returned home last week. Mrs. Clark's many friends regret to hear that the hoped for improvement in her health has not taken place.

Mrs. Stanley Simpson, of Loggieville, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John McKeen, for the past fortnight, returned to her home yesterday.

Mrs. E. H. Sinclair and little son, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harris, of Moncton.

Mrs. W. H. Sapper, of Montreal, who has been visiting her former home in Chatham, spent the week-end in town, the guest of Mrs. Jas. Troy.

Mr. Jared Lozer, who has been very ill for the past fortnight, is convalescing. His son, Dr. F. W. Lozer, who was called home on account of his father's illness, returned to Portland (Me.), last week.

Mrs. William Banks, and Miss Grace McDonald, of Eastport (Me.), are visiting their sister, Mrs. Harrison, at the Methodist parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hilton and Mr. Charles Ramsay, of New York, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Williston.

Miss Lindsay, of Toronto, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Sinclair.

Miss Harriet E. Vincent, of St. John, spent the week-end in town, the guest of Mrs. J. Caie.

Mr. Cameron Smallwood left last Saturday for Montreal, where he will visit friends for a couple of weeks before returning home with Mrs. Smallwood, who has been in the hospital there.

Mrs. Jas. A. Rundle spent the week-end in Millerton, the guest of Mrs. David Barrow.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stables are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter.

Mrs. William Harley was hostess at a most enjoyable tea last Monday afternoon at her residence on Pleasant street. Among those present were Mrs. John Burchill (Nelson), Mrs. Wm. Aitken, Mrs. Bate, Mrs. D. Morrison, Miss Ritchie, Mrs. Josephine Sargeant (Nelson), Mrs. Wm. Park and others.

Miss Noble, of Chicago, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Aitken.

Miss Gladys Irving, of Buctouche, Kent county, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Alex. Rettie, at the manse in Millerton.

Mrs. A. Ernest Clark, who has been in Millerton the past week, the guest of Mrs. John Betts, returned to town today.

Mrs. Bate entertained a few friends at the tea hour, at the rectory, last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Ramsay and son Allen, of New York, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Brander.

Mr. DeTracy-Gould, of Montreal, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Williston.

Mr. James P. Whalen, who for the past five years has been proprietor of the Miramichi Hotel here, left last Saturday for the Canadian West. Mr. Whalen will make his headquarters in Saskatoon. His many friends wish him every success in his new home.

Mrs. Richard Hutchinson, of Brookline, (Mass.), is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hutchison.

Miss Dorothy Wilson and Miss Margaret Miller, of Millerton, spent Wednesday with friends in town.

Miss Maud Ramsay, of New York, is the guest of Mrs. James Stables.

Mrs. Harold Loggie, of Regina, spent Thursday in town, the guest of Mrs. J. W. Miller.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Nov. 7—Mrs. F. A. Dixon and Mrs. Harmon Humphrey, who have been spending several months in the Canadian West, arrived home on Sunday, very much delighted with their trip.

Mrs. Davies, of St. John, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Andrews, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Humphrey, of Halifax, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Humphrey for a few days last week.

Principal and Mrs. Palmer were at home to the teachers and students of Mt. Allison Academy on Hallow'een, and a very jolly time was spent.

Dr. and Mrs. Snow returned from Moncton last week.

Mr. N. H. Woodworth spent a couple of days in St. John last week.

Miss Mollie Lockhart, of Moncton, was the guest of Miss Edith Huntor for the week-end.

Miss Bessie Wildon and Miss Annie Ford went to Moncton on Tuesday.

Prof. Harold Black, of Acadia College, spent Sunday in town. Prof. Black graduated from Mount Allison University in 1907.

Mr. W. H. Matthews, of the Royal Bank, Springfield, has been transferred to the Royal Bank here.

Mr. H. F. S. Paisley, of the staff of the Leader, Regina (Sask.), who has been spending the past two weeks at home, left last week for Regina.

Miss Bess Carter visited friends in Amherst last week.

Mr. J. B. Andrews and Mr. F. J. Wilson visited St. John last week.

Miss E. M. Inch, who has been living in Sackville for some time, left Saturday for Fredericton, where she will spend a few days before proceeding to Hosmer (B. C.), where she will take up her professional work again.

Captain McHaffey has just returned from a trip through Massachusetts.

Mr. Cecil Murray, for some time accountant for the Bank of Nova Scotia, has been transferred to Toronto. He will leave in the course of a few days.

Mrs. A. Floyd Atkinson will receive her friends on Thursday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. B. Atkinson.

Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Wood were entertained last Wednesday in St. John by Lady Tilley.

Mrs. J. W. S. Black returned home on Tuesday, after spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Charters, at Point du Chene.

Mrs. Christopher Wry, of Boston, paid a short visit to Sackville friends on Monday.

Mrs. A. C. Chapman, of Moncton, is spending a week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Tawcett.

MONCTON

Moncton, Nov. 7—Mr. and Mrs. William Hutchinson, of Truro, are spending a week with Mrs. Hutchinson's mother, Mrs. McDonald.

Miss Hazel Lowthers, of Hillsboro, is the guest of friends in the city.

The Misses Reta and Margaret Davidson are spending a few days with friends in Amherst.

Miss Nan Shea, of Truro, is the guest of Mrs. John Robertson.

Mrs. James Maloney has returned from Richibucto, where she was spending the week-end with her sister, Mrs. M. Flanagan.

Mr. and Clarence Grace have returned from Hillsboro, where they were spending a few days with friends.

Mrs. D. D. Johnson is in the city for a few days, the guest of her niece, Mrs. Allan Irving.

Miss Pineo is the guest of friends at Hillsboro.

Mrs. W. C. Hicks has returned from a visit with friends in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilkinson, of Halifax, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. McD. Cooke.

Miss Madeline Walker has gone to Montreal to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Charles Myers.

Mrs. W. W. Jardine, who has been visiting Mrs. W. J. Woods for some weeks, has returned to her home in Chatham.

Mrs. W. T. McAliese has returned from a visit with friends at Amherst.

Mrs. Roy Sumner has returned from Boston, where she was spending a few weeks with relatives.

Mrs. James Scott, of Brunswick (Me.), is the guest of her son, Mr. W. Scott.

Mrs. J. McGinty, who has been visiting Mrs. A. E. Killam, has returned to her home in Amherst.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lodge, Jr., are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby girl in their home.

Mrs. Freeman Goodwin, of Bathurst, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. W. Hayes.

Mr. Edward Chisholm, of the staff of the Bank of New Brunswick, has been transferred to Campbellton.

Mrs. A. E. Killam has returned from a trip to New York and Washington.

Mrs. J. B. Magee and daughter, Miss Bessie have returned from Montreal, where they have been spending a couple of weeks.

Rev. Canon Sisam is spending the week in St. John.

Mrs. J. J. McKenzie left on Monday for Boston, where she expects to spend a month with friends.

Miss Muriel Barnett has returned from New York, where she was spending some weeks with relatives.

Miss Mabel Moore, who is training for a nurse at the Newport (R. I.), hospital, is spending her vacation at her home in the city.

Miss Alice McKeown is the guest of friends in New York.

Mr. Joshua Peters left on Tuesday for Montreal, where he intends spending the winter.

Miss Addie Weldon spent the week-end in Shediac, the guest of Miss Bessie Wortman.

Mrs. A. B. Carson and two little sons, of Rexton, are spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. Bruce Steeves, of Hillsboro, is the guest of relatives in the city.

Miss Bessie Dunning and Miss Hazel McInnis, of Summerside, have arrived to visit friends in the city.

Miss May Jones, of Welsford, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Herbert Jones.

Mrs. E. H. S. Flood and son, of Barbadoes, are spending a few weeks with Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Purdy. On Wednesday Mrs. Purdy and Mrs. Flood were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Robinson and enjoyed a motor ride to Hillsboro, where they were entertained by Hon. C. J. and Mrs. Osman.

Mr. and Mrs. John McArdle announce the engagement of their daughter, Veronica Gertrude, to Mr. Joseph Edgar Nadeau of Grand Cascapedia (Quebec.) The marriage is to take place on the 20th of this month.

Mrs. E. H. Sinclair and little son, of Newcastle, are spending a few weeks with Mrs. Sinclair's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harris.

Mrs. John Marr has returned to her home in Waterville (Me.), after a pleasant stay with her sister, Mrs. N. L. Rand.

Mrs. Walter McFarlane, of Fredericton, is spending a few days in the city, the guest of Miss Florence Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Short, of Vancouver, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harris.

Mrs. H. C. Davidson has gone to St. John where she intends spending the winter.

Mrs. Mundell, of Montreal, is spending some weeks with Mr. and Mrs. William Powell.

Miss Martha Dalton, of St. John, is the guest of Miss Verna Hunter.

Rev. J. L. Batty spent Sunday in Halifax, taking the anniversary service at Charles street Methodist church. Mr. Batty went on to Charlottetown on Monday where he lectured and returned home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McSweeney have the sympathy of their many friends in the death of their infant son, which took place on Monday evening.

Moncton, Nov. 8—Rumors that the I. C. R was about to adopt the "divisional system" of accounting in vogue on the C. P. R. are confirmed by Mr. Millan, an official of the railway department at Ottawa, who is here to introduce the new system.

Two convicts were taken to Quebec on the Maritime express for deportation. Both had been convicted of theft, one in Digby, the other in Halifax. One was an Englishman, the other a Frenchman. Both had been in Dorchester penitentiary pending the decision of the department of justice.

Rev. Dr. G. M. Campbell, president of Mount Allison Ladies' College, who was to speak last evening at the Sunday School Convention, received a telephone message that his aunt, Mrs. M. Moran, widow of Robert Moran of Wallace, N. S., was dangerously ill. He left for Wallace this morning.

Wesley Memorial church on Sunday next will celebrate the twenty-first anniversary. Rev. Dr. Campbell will preach. He was at the laying of the corner stone twenty-one years ago. The present pastor is Rev. W. G. Lane. The church recently acquired property in St. George street adjoining, for which $1,500 was paid. The erection of a school room will be begun soon.

The United Baptist church at Petitcodiac will be reopened on next Sunday. Rev. Dr. McLeod of St. John will preach in the morning, Rev. G. A. Lawson, of this city, in the afternoon and Rev. J. B. Ganong of Havelock, in the evening. The pastor is Rev. Milton Addison.

Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner left last night after the Sunday school convention. Next week she will attend a convention in Michigan and the following week in Missouri.

A. W. B. Little, for some time accountant in the Bank of Montreal here has been transferred to Toronto. He left this morning for Chatham and will proceed this afternoon to Toronto.

The marriage of Charles J. Wilson and Miss Blanche Barbara Livingston of Albert was solemnized in Highfield street Baptist parsonage on Wednesday evening by Rev. E. H. Cochrane.

Moncton, Nov. 16—(Special)—Wesley Memorial Methodist church today celebrated its twenty-first anniversary. The preacher for the occasion was Rev. Dr. G. M. Campbell, principal of Mount Allison College, who had preached the dedication sermon twenty-one years ago. The present pastor, Rev. W. G. Lane, assisted in the services which were attended by large congregations. Among interested members of teh congregation present was G. R. Sangster, founder of the church.

J. S. Rayworth, collector of customs, while working about his home Saturday fell from a ladder sustaining severe injuries but fortunately breaking no bones.

Edward Casey was taken suddenly ill on the street Saturday night and as symptoms of poisoning appeared a hasty application of an emetic saved him from probable serious results. The antidote had the desired effect and Casey is now out of danger. It was found that Casey had apparently been poisoned by eating a pie which had been gnawed by rate, supposed to have had a dose of rough on rats put out by neighbors.

HAMPTON

Hampton, Nov. 6—On Sunday the following St. John parties were here in automobiles: Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. deForest; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harrison, and two children; Mr. and Mrs. J. Royden Thomson and three children; Mr. Joseph A. Likely, Miss Jessie Likely, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Likely.

Mrs. Charles A. Palmer, of St. John, and Mr. Harry Palmer, of Montreal, were week-end visitors to Hampton.

Miss Fales, of St. John, and Mrs. R. Cary, of Fort Fairfield (Me.), were visitors here on Saturday.

Mr. H. J. Fowler returned last Friday from a trip to Woodstock and Grand Falls.

Mr. E. G. Evans, his son, Ronald Evans, and Mr. Joseph Heaton, went to Chatham the last week-end to resume the coast survey from Richibucto to Chatham.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid Society held its weekly meeting today at the home of Mrs. John S. Ryan, Lakeside. About twenty-ladies from the village and station partook of tea, at the close of the work and gossip session.

Miss Florence Peters, who has been visiting at Sackville during the past month, returned to her Hampton home yesterday.

Mrs. Edwin Evans, who has been in poor health for the past few weeks, is much improved and is able to be up and about again.

Mrs. Lawrence Killam and little daughter, who have been guests with Mrs. N. E. Humphrey for a week or so, returned to their home at Sackville yesterday.

The Hampton Auction Bridge Club held its weekly sitting on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Henry Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Davidson and Mr. Miles Innes have returned to town after an enjoyable trip of several weeks spent on the Pacific coast.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, Nov. 6—Rev. Mr. Robinson, rector of Trinity church, left on Monday for St. John to attend the Synod.

Miss Landry, who has been the guest of Judge Landry, has returned to her home in Bathurst.

Miss Mary Bartlett, of Charlottetown (P. E. I.), who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Mahon for a few weeks, left for her home on Wednesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wilbur have returned from St. John where they spent Thanksgiving, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Eagles.

Miss Marjorie Thomas has returned from Petitcodiac.

Rev. Father Comier has returned from a shoting trip to Carleton (P. Q.)

Mrs. J. W. Wallace, who spent Thanksgiving in town with her sister, Mrs. Jas. Friel, has returned to her home in Pictou, accompanied by Miss Kathleen Friel.

Mrs. Rogers and Miss Frances Rogers, who spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. MacDonald, returned on Thursday to their home in Albert county.

The Women's Auxiliary for Trinity church met on Tuesday at the residence of Mrs. M. B. Palmer.

Mrs. Lockhart and Master Myron Horne have returned from Fredericton, where they spent Thanksgiving.

Mrs. G. L. Buck occupies the position of teacher of Grades III and IV in place of Miss Mabel Logan, who was forced to give up her duties on account of ill health.

Miss Mollie King and Miss Hazel Corbin, both of Pictou, who have been visiting in town the guest of Miss Mina Tait have returned home.

Miss Muriel Thomas and Miss Grace Buck were the guests of Miss Hazel Alward for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. deBlois and Miss Wilhemina returned on Tuesday last from Amherst, where they spent a few days the guests of friends.

Miss Mina Tait, her guests Miss Mollie King and Miss Corbin, were in Sackville on Friday last for the Mount Allison vs. U. N. B. game.

Miss Mina Tait gave a very enjoyable Hallowe'en party on Thursday evening last for her guests, Miss King and Miss Corbin, of Pictou. Those present were: Miss Mollie King, Miss Hazel Corbin, Miss Carmelita Richard, Miss Josephine Oulton, Miss Muriel Chapman, Miss Lulu Bishop.

Mrs. Irvine and Miss Margaret Wilkins, of St. John, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Piercy, have returned home.

Rev. Mr. W. Foster, who has accepted the position of rector of Christ Church, Amherst, is a son of ex-Warden Forster, of the Dorchester penitentiary. For a number of years Mr. Forster has been carrying on successful church work in Providence (R. I.), and his many friends here will be glad to hear of his coming to Amherst, and wish his success in his new field of labor.

The friends of Mrs. David Chapman will be pleased to hear she is convalescent.

BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, Nov. 6—Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. MacNichol, who enjoyed a delightful motor car trip to Toledo (O.), have arrived home safely and are most heartily welcomed bock by their friends.

A very pleasant social event on Hallowe'en was the miscellaneous "shower" given to Miss Maude Trundle at the home of Mrs. Livingston Strange, in honor of Miss Trundel's approaching marriage to Mr. Edward McWha, which takes place this month.

Mrs. Donald McLean, who spent a day or two here with Mrs. J. M. Deacon, has returned to her home in Sydney (C. B.)

Ven. Archdeacon Newnham, of Christ church, and Rev. Craig Nichols, of Trinity church, are in St. John attending the meetings of the Anglican Synod.

The ladies of Christ Church Aid Society have arranged to give their annual supper in the school room near the church on Thursday, the 14th.

Miss Mabel Murchie has returned from a visit in Boston.

Mrs. Willis Y. Patch, of Bangor, is the guest of Mrs. Percy Lord, in Calais.

Mr. Lowell Copeland, of Chicago, is in Calais visiting his father, Mr. Henry Copeland, who is very ill.

Miss Grace Maxwell, of Old Ridge, has been spending a day or two with Mrs. Skiffington Murchie, in Calais.

Mr. Roy Murchie, who has ben visiting Calais friends, has returned to his home in New York city.

Messrs. Arthur and Walter Ganong have gone to Boston and other American cities on a business and pleasure trip combined.

Dr. W. S. Carter, chief superintendent of education, was in town last week.

Mrs. Herbert Johnson, who is always heartily welcomed by her St. Stephen friends, is here for several weeks' visit with her father, Mr. Gilbert S. Wall.

Mrs. Colin Campbell, of Ottawa, is visiting in Calais, her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Eaton and family have been enjoying a hunting trip in the vicinity of Grand Lake.

Miss Jessie Whitlock, who has been very ill, is now reported to be daily improving much to the joy of her friends.

Miss Maida Baskin, who has been spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. George L. Baskin, has returned to her home in St. John after a most pleasant visit.

Miss Hazel Grimmer and Miss Bessie Grimmer, of St. Andrews, were recent visitors in town.

Letters have been received from Mrs. Walter K. Murchie announcing her safe arrival in Strathcona (Alta.)

Miss Jessie Graham has gone to Boston to visit relatives.

Mrs. Herbert B. Mason left last week for New York city, where she will take passage for London (Eng.), to visit her sister, Mrs. Emma Kimber.

Mr. and Mrs. William Keaney, who have spent the summer and autumn in Calais, have returned to their home in Waltham (Mass.)

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McAllister have been visiting friends in Providence.

After many weeks of illness Mrs. Caroline Smith passed away on Wednesday afternoon. She was a woman of many fine traits of character and was highly esteemed among her circle of friends. The funeral service was held on Friday afternoon and was conducted by Ven. Archdeacon Newnham of Christ church. The pall-bearers were her cousins, Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer, Messrs. Parker, Charles and Walter L. Grimmer. The interment was in the Grimmer lot in the rural cemetery. Mrs. Smith leaves a daughter, Miss Winnifred Smith, to mourn the loss of a devoted mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cameron, of St. John, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Cameron returning to St. John on Monday evening.

Mrs. Albert E. Neill, is spending this week in New York city, the guest of her friend, Mrs. Bradley Eaton.

Miss Gladys Blair on Friday evening entertained at her home the bridge club of which she is a member.

Mrs. J. M. Flewelling entertained most pleasantly the Neighborhood Club at her home on Monday afternoon.

St. Stephen, Nov. 8—The members of St. Andrew's Society held their annual meeting last evening in Windsor Hotel and elected their officers: Andrew Mungall, president; James Murray, 1st vice-president; F. K. McGeachy, 2nd vice-president; John A. Young, treasurer; R. G. McFarlane, secretary; Dr. Jas. D. Lawson, historian; Rev. E. Wylie, chaplain; Dr. W. H. Laughlin and Geo. McAndrews, marshals. An interesting feature of the evening was the excellent rendering of several Scotch songs by George Dishart, a guest at the Windsor Hotel. The society will celebrate St. Andrew's day by a banquet at the Windsor on Thursday evening, 28th inst.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grimmer have moved into their home recently purchased from the Fred Grimmer estate.

The curling club is getting ready for their winter's sport and have elected an energetic set of officers.

The funeral of Samuel Milberry, of Old Ridge, took place this afternoon from his late residence. The services were conducted by Rev. A. D. McLeod and interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

G. W. Ganong left last evening on a business trip to Ottawa.

SHEDIAC

Shediac, Nov. 7—Mrs. Thomas Gallagher left recently for Halifax, where she is spending some days.

Mrs. Irving has returned home from a trip to Hillsboro, where she was the guest of relatives for a week.

Mrs. D. Charles Harper spent the week end in Sackville at the home for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. D. S. Campbell.

Mr. Hugh Dysart, who has been visiting at his old home in Cocagne for the past fortnight this week spent a few days with Moncton friends.

Mrs. J. M. Lyons, of Moncton, spent Tuesday in town, the guest of Mrs. L. J. Bellivau.

Miss Lena Tait left for St. John recently to re remain for some little while in the city, the guest of Mrs. H. A. Powell.

Rev. R. G. and Mrs. Fullton and little child, of Chatham, were the guests this week of Mrs. George White.

Messrs. Walter Pickup and Charles Thompson, students at Mount Allison University, were the guests for over unday of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Tait.

Capt. Johson, who during the past season, has been in charge of the dredge Bruiser in Shediac harbor, left this week on board the Bruiser for Sydney, where he will remain for some time before proceeding to his home in Virginia. Mrs. Johnson, who was also in town for the summer, left on Tuesday for Moncton to spend a few days with Mrs. Frank Smith, at the end of which time she will go south to spend some time with relatives in Alabama before seeking her Virginia home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Black, of Sackville, in company with their little son, Master Bobby, were the guests for over Sunday of Mrs. Black's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Charters, Point du Chene.

Miss Evelyn Doherty, of Memramcook, is spending a few days with friends in town.

Miss Lena McEncrowe left last week for Edmondston, where she is to occupy a position with the Telephone Company in that town.

Miss Wililams, of St. John, has been the guest of the Misses Tait.

Mrs. W. H. Cox, of Moncton, recently spent a short time in town at the home of Mrs. James McQueen.

Mrs. C. C. Bent, of New Glasgow, has been spending some time in town the guest of Mrs. A. G. Lawton. Mr. Bent was also the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lawtown for over Thanksgiving.

Mr. Boyce, student of theology, Sackville, was the guest for the week end of Rev. George and Mr. Steel and on Sunday morning filled the pulpit of the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Walker have closed their summer residence at the Point and returned home to Moncton. Miss M. Walker upon returning to Moncton left for oMntreal to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Wright.

Rev. A. F. Burt, of St. Martins-in-the-Wood, Epescopal church, Shediac Cape, and Rev. W. Armstrong, of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, are in St. John this week attending the Church of England Synod, being held in that city.

Miss Addie Weldon, of Moncton, was the guest for a few days recently of her friend, Miss Bessie Wortman.

The ladies of the Mehodist Sewing Circle are being entertained this week by Mrs. A. J. Tait.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart have closed their cottage at the Point and taken rooms at the Weldon House for the winter. Mrs. Stewart left recently for Montreal to remain for some time the guest of relatives.

Miss Jennie Webster, who left recently to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. J. White, Moncton, was in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. Givan, of Shediac Cape, was in Moncton this week owing to the death of the late Mr. Charles Jones, whose death occurred at his home in Moncton on Tuesday afternoon. Shediac friends extend sympathy to Mrs. Givan in her bereavement.

Mrs. Emil Paturelle very plesantly entertained at bridge on Wednesday of this week and is entertaining again this evening (Thursday) at a "500" party.

Mrs. W. A. D. Steven, of Moncton, visited town during the week.

The ladies of the sewing circle in connection with the Baptist church were entertained this week by Mrs. H. Glendening.

Miss D. Anderson, of Dorchester, has been spending the week in Shediac the guest of Mrs. Atkinson.

HAMPTON VILLAGE

Hampton Village, Nov. 7—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Seely entertained a number of their friends at a Hallowe'en party on Thursday last. Music and games were enjoyed during the evening and a dainty luncheon was served, the tables being suitably decorated. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood, Miss Annie De Mille, Miss Edna Fisher, Miss Edith Thompson, Messrs. Wetherall, George De Mille and Charles De Mille.

Miss Maggie Bailey, of Newcastle, is the guest of her sister, Miss Lida Bailey.

The members of the Girls' Reading Club went to St. John on Tuesday and were guests for the evening of the Girls' Club of the city, at the home of Mrs. Melrose, Orange street.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray, of Fredericton, were visitors last week at the home of Mrs. Murray's sister, Mrs. I. B. Colwell.

Mrs. A. C. Dickson went to Moncton on Tuesday to attend the Sunday school convention.

Mr. Arthur Gass paid a short visit to his former home here last week, after an absence of two years.

The Women's Aid and the Mission Band of the Presbyterian church held their annual thanks-offering service on Thursday afternoon. There was a short programme by the children under the leadership of the Mission Band president, Miss Pauline Williamson, and Miss Belle Brittain, organist; and Rev. Mr. Mortimer gave an address on the Institutional Churches of Scotland.

CHATHAM

Chatham, N. B., Nov. 7—Mr. R. P. Donald, of the Bank of Montreal, left yesterday afternoon on the Ocean Limited for Montreal. Mr. Donald is away on a three weeks' vacation and will visit Montreal, Toronto and to the other Canadian cities.

Mr. Clarke, inspector of the Bank of Montreal, is in town.

Miss Snowball and her cousin, Miss Snowball, of Pasadena, left last night for Quebec.

Mrs. Geoffrey Stead and her sister, Miss Joyce, returned on Saturday after a trip to St. John.

Mrs. Beveridge entertained very pleasantly Saturday evening.

Mrs. William Dick was hostess Tuesday evening at a small but very enjoyable function given in honor of Mr. Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Fraser announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen C., to Mr. Gordon H. Logie, of the Bank of Nova Scotia. The marriage will take place the second week in November.

Dr. McKenzie, of Loggieville, went to Montreal last week in connection with some trouble that he experiences with the sight of one of his eyes. His many friends are pleased to see him back again and on his rounds.

Mrs. Richard Hutchinson has returned to her home in Brookline (Mass.) and Mrs. W. H. Tapper is visiting in Campbellton.

Miss Bessie McRae, of Newcastle, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Watters, has gone to Fredericton.

Miss Cecilia Fitzpatrick, of Nelson, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. W. P. Eaton returned home last week after a pleasant trip in the New England states. Mrs. F. D. Southard arrived in Chatham today.

Mrs. A. H. Marquis has returned after a pleasant visit with Pictou friends.

Mrs. James G. Miller is visiting her niece, Mrs. Griffith Bishop, in St. John.

Miss Ruth Phyall, of Wimbledon, Surrey (Eng.), is visiting Mrs. R. V. McCabe.

The Leap Year dance given in the Temperance Hall last evening proved a very successful and enjoyable affair. The hall had been very tastefully and prettily decorated by the ladies and when it was filled with upwards of sixty dancing couples the scene was a very animated and lively one. For the first part of the evening the ladies reigned supreme, having charge of the floor and making the engagements for the dances, much to the delight of the gentlemen, who only had to sit back and allow the fair ones to wait upon them. At midnight supper was served and then dancing was resumed with the ordinary formalities in use again. The ladies' committees were Mrs. J. C. McCormack, Mrs. A. P. Williams, Mrs. W. J. Groat, Mrs. H. D. Morris and Mrs. Donald Fraser.

Mrs. James Nicol has returned after a visit of four months in the Canadian west.

Mrs. C. J. Mersereau entertained this afternoon at a very pleasant at home in honor of her guest, Mrs. H. F. McLeod, of Fredericton. In spite of the disagreeable weather a large number of ladies were present. Mrs. Mersereau was assisted in receiving by Mrs. McLeod, Mrs. B. A. Marven served ices, Mrs. W. L. T. Weldon and Mrs. J. Y. Mersereau poured tea and Miss Alice Fisher, Miss Helen M. Loggie, Miss Mersereau and Miss Agnes Wilson served the guests.

Mr. G. H. Lounsbury, of St. John, is in town.

BATHURST

Bathurst, N. B., Nov. 7—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Doherty, of St. John, were called here last week by the death of Mr. Doherty's brother, Mr. Chas. Doherty.

Mr. D. Wilkie, of the Royal Bank staff, is spending a vacation in Montreal.

Miss Gwendolyn Bishop is visiting friends in Chatham this week.

Miss Pearl Branch is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Chambers, in Gibson for a few weeks.

Mr. Frank Gatain is spending a week in St. John.

Mrs. E. P. McKay and her little daughters, Misses Eleanor and Evelyn, are spending several weeks in Edmundston.

Miss Annie Melvin left on Tuesday for Boston, where she will remain for the winter.

Mrs. George Gilbert has returned after several weeks spent in St. John.

Mrs. R. Dunn has returned from a visit to Newcastle friends.

Mr. Robt. M. Bishop, of Boston, is spending a vacation here. On Monday, in the Church of the Sac