Orioles Win Second Game of Series
Both Teams Wallop the Sphere

Skeeters Shut Out Bisons—Pitcher Lundgren Has Been Secured—McGinley Pitches To-day.

Don't run away with the idea that because the Orioles trimmed our Leafs yesterday 6 to 2 that they had things all their own way, because you would be in wrong, like the Kelleyites, who had just as many men reach first as the visitors, but the locals found the going heavier and blew up when they reached the stretch.

Moffitt, who did the flinging for our side, had everything breaking against him, both in the field and on the bases, the men from Oystertown winning the game in the fourth, when Weldy misjudged Dunn's hit, which would have retired the side, but instead it went for a double, scoring a run, while Dunn crossed the pan a minute later. This offence gave the visitors two runs, making three in all, as Hall had pasted the leather in the opening innings for a homer.

Dessau, the Baltimore mound artist, was at his best in pinches, the Torontos being unable to solve him, but it was not this that lost the game, but two or three sleepy plays on the bases, as the Leafs were continually getting the men started on the four lap circle, but the pinch hitter was conspicuous by his absence.

The bright feature of the game was the hitting of Hall and Mitchell, the old scout having three cracking singles, while on the fourth attempt Ump never gave him a chance. Houser and Grimshaw kept up their good clouting, Smiling Ben having a homer in the eighth and he was given a great reception, altho it would have been greater still if he could have accomplished the feat in the third when the bases were full.

The Leafs scored their first run in the seventh, Mitchell singling with Weldy down. Kelley batted for Moffitt and got a life on Dunn's error. Goode beat out a infielder hit, while Mahling scored Mitchell with a sacrifice fly, but Grimshaw popped to Lewis. Toronto still had a chance up to the ninth, when the visitors counted two and at that they came within an ace of making a garrison finish, Poland just getting to Houser's hard hit, which, if he had missed, would have been another homer, or three runs, making the score 6 to 5, with Bill Phyle at the bat. Tim Hurst Punched Elberfeld.

NEW YORK, May 7.—Lake's two-bagger and Cree's single won a hot twelve-innings game for the Highlanders to-day. It was a slashing battle, and for kicking on a decision in the eleventh innings Elberfeld was put out of the game, also getting a punch in the jaw from Hurst. There was not anybody on hand to put Hurst out of the game. He umpired poorly. Elberfeld and Knight fielded brilliantly. Score:

PITTSBURG, May 7.—In a very hard-hitting game, Pittsburg again defeated St. Louis to-day.
