This subject will be discussed by ladies chosen from the different churches of the city. An interesting and profitable meeting is anticipated. Special music will be rendered. All are invited.

James Isaacs, an Arabian, complained at the police court this morning that Thomas Callahan, of St. Patrick street had torn his overcoat. Isaacs experienced some difficulty in getting his auditors to understand his remarks. The trouble occurred in the laborer's hall on Water street. Isaacs says that Callahan without provocation, hauled both lappels off his coat. Callahan will be notified to be present in court tomorrow morning.

WAGES SPENT FOR LIQUOR

Young Man Ordered to Stay Away From Home--Bobby's Troubles.

The police court was well filled with spectators this morning and for a Monday very few prisoners were on the bench.

Gilbert Reed pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was fined $4 or ten days in jail with hard labor. Gilbert Sinclair forfeited a deposit of $8 for being intoxicated.

The old familiar figure of "Bobby" Dixon appeared in court this morning, this time on the bench for being drunk. "Bobby" pleaded guilty and said in answer to the court that he met a Dalhousie friend and had a few drinks. He was fined $8 or two months in jail with hard labor. Dixon immediately asked for a chance.

"Work is starting now, your honor, and I don't want to go and serve two months. Why, you know how they use me there. They even take the meat out of the kettle and give me nothing but dry bread to eat," exclaimed "Bobby." He was sent below with the other two.

Frank Moore, of the north end, was charged with assaulting his brother, Stanley, on Saturday night. This morning the prisoner stated that he did not recollect the assault.

The evidence given in the case this morning showed that Moore spends all his money in liquor, and does not support himself, although he earns good wages.

It appears that overcome by rum Moore went home Saturday night, and caught his brother, who is delicate, by the throat. Subsequently he bit off the end of his brother's finger.

Judge Ritchie gave Moore a sound lecturing and stated that at his mother's request he would have to remain away from home and support himself in future. He was fined $20 or two months in jail with hard labor, and the fine was allowed to stand on condition that he remains away from his mother's home.

MUST QUIT RUM FOR ONE YEAR

Karl Lindstrom, the young Swede, arrested some time ago for stabbing his brother Edrick, was brought into court this morning and a fine of $100, including costs, or six months in jail, was allowed to stand against him on condition that he keeps away from rum for one year, and be subject to the commands of his elder brother.

The Swede consented to be tried by Judge Ritchie and pleaded guilty to cutting his brother. The latter stated that he did not wish Karl to go to prison. Judge Ritchie told the prisoner for five years, but tried him under another section of the code and allowed the fine to stand against him. The young Swede looked very much relieved when the interpreter informed him that he had been given his liberty.

FELL OVER THE WHARF

Michael Mahoney's Life Was in Danger Yesterday Morning.

Michael Mahoney, residing on St. David street, had a narrow escape from death yesterday morning.

About nine o'clock yesterday morning four citizens were walking along the Courtenay Bay track, and when nearing the foot of Clarence street espied a man under the influence of liquor walking close to the edge of the wharf. Suddenly he staggered and, losing his balance, fell over the wharf into the soft mud below. The witnesses to the accident ran with all haste, and in a short time had, with some difficulty, walked out on the mud to where Mahoney lay in a stunned condition. The four men, after lifting the seemingly lifeless man, conveyed him to his home on St. David street, where he lives with his wife. After some time he felt much better.

The distance from the wharf to the mud below is quite a drop, and had it not been for the soft mud Mahoney undoubtedly would have been killed. The presence of the four men, who conveyed him home, was also a lucky thing for Mahoney, as he would have been smothered in the mud in a short time, or perhaps no one would have happened along until the tide had come in.

MEN AND WOMEN HERDED TOGETHER

Scandalous State of Affairs in the Vermont State Prison.

BURLINGTON, Vt., April 8—The special legislative commission appointed in July 1905, to investigate the management and affairs of the Vermont state prison at Windsor, has just made public the text of its report to Governor Charles J. Bell. In considering the charge that immorality existed in the prison, the commission found the cause of this condition in the interior construction of the prison building which afforded no barrier between the quarters occupied by female prisoners and by female employes, and the portions of the building occupied by the guards. Special alterations are recommended which will more thoroughly isolate the women inhabitants of the prison.

MORE HOT SHOT FOR BRO. DOWIE

He is Charged With Polygamous Intentions and Will be Deposed.

CHICAGO, April 9—While the great meeting at Shiloh tabernacle was in progress yesterday, more than 1,500 Chicago members of the Christian Catholic church gathered in the central tabernacle at 1625 Michigan Avenue and heard Overseer Piper deliver a stern arraignment of the deposed leader and his family. In response to a request for an expression of opinion, the audience almost unanimously voted to stand by Overseer Voliva and his cabinet.

In his address Overseer Piper accused Dr. Dowie of teaching polygamy. Through it all was a note of sorrow for the shame of the old leader, but paramont in the sermon was a challenge to Dowie to do his worst.

"You will not find the people of Zion City standing behind the lace factory when Dr. Dowie gets back," said the speaker. "What will he do? I don't know. He may find some judge foolish enough to grant him an injunction, or some court silly enough to put him back in control, but I don't believe so.

"If he gets back in power, those of you who have invested money may as well say good-bye to it. He's a master at weeping. All he'll need to do is to weep and some of you will fall on your knees."

SUNDAY GAMES OF FOOTBALL

Football was blooming in Carleton yesterday, and it kept the west end police busy trying to have the Sabbath observed in a proper manner.

Between ten and eleven o'clock yesterday morning Sergeant Ross espied teams from the Lake Champlain in mortal combat on Market square. The stewards and the cooks were chasing the leather, and the Sergeant chased them to the boat.

About half past two yesterday afternoon, officer Lee found the crew of the Tunisian on the Queen square gridiron, and had to follow them to their steamer.

The city proper, too, was not without its Sabbath breakers. Sergeant Campbell had to leave central station yesterday afternoon and pike it to the "Barrack Green" to chase other foot-ballists, who were enjoying a quiet tackle on the side.

All the games have been reported to police head quarters.

Officer Finley reports a dangerous hole in the sidewalk on Brittain street, near Germain.

Officer Lucas reports a flow of water on Haymarket square opposite No. 356.

Officer W. J. Sullivan reports George Smith, 93 Brittain street, George Lawson, St. James street and George Dudley, St. James street for shouting on the corner of Germain and Queen streets, and also for kicking at the door of Gilbert E. Purdy's house on Queen street.

Officer W. R. Lee has reported Duncan Pollick and George O'Reilly for wilfully breaking a pane of glass in Jake Ham's laundry shop on St. John street, W. E., on the 5th. inst.

A SAD TIME FOR MODERN APOSTLES

SALT LAKE, Utah, April 8—Apostles Matthias F. Cowley and John W. Taylor of the Mormon church, polygamists, today were dropped from the quorum of twelve Apostles. Cowley and Taylor offered to resign on Oct. 28, 1905, because they were not in harmony with the quorum.

NEW YORK, April 8—Overseer George E. Mason, of the Christian Catholic Apostolic Church in Harlem today denounced John Alexander Dowie in an address from the pulpit.

John Russell, jr., left on Saturday evening for Montreal en route to England. He will sail from New York tomorrow on the Cunard steamer Carmania. Mr. Russell will return about May 1.
