January 20/81
(Inauguration of Ronald Reagan)
Here is the Score

Dwn
Wake up Wake up, it's
Time to open your eyes
Chorus { There is no one steering
the ship may capsize. And Dwn
There's fear in your faces
Your jobs are in jeopardy
You know that your god Amas
Is only as good as a Chrysler

Computers and robots
They have no feelings
They have no consciences
They have no genitals
Machinery, so

Chorus

Dioxin a toxin
Like Richard Nixon
And Three Mile Island
And Love Canal but
Where's the love?

It's easy to bury
Your heads in the sand
And mortgage your spirits
For ever and ever but You'll be sorry
You'll be sorry, so

Chorus x2

P.S. Wish I knew the score of this song but all I know is how to sing and play it on the guitar. The song rages in D major and has a bridge in E. That's the score John. Onward.
