[illegible] that no one could [illegible] be called to account.

[illegible] Mr. De [illegible] and the following [illegible] by the Rev. M. L. Oder, M. [illegible] A. [illegible] Dixon, Esq., [illegible] Lyell.

[illegible] which this [illegible] to injuries to the church to [illegible] in any other [illegible] of the Diocese;

[illegible] that the Ordinance be [illegible] as [illegible].

[illegible] Harper, seconded by [illegible] it was resolved [illegible]

[illegible] consisting of [illegible] Mr. Delaplaine, [illegible] Rev. H. L. Grant, [illegible] H. Hale, to prepare [illegible] to be submitted to the next month[illegible] meeting, [illegible] whom the right of preamble to the Ordinance in this Diocese shall be [illegible] vested.

The Bishop was then moved from the Chair, and the Venerable Archdeacon of Kingston called [illegible] the chair, [illegible] the meeting being [illegible] the business, the meeting closed with [illegible].