Fishing schr. N. Baker, Smith, at Chatham, from Bay Chaleur, picked up a boat containing Capt. Haley, crew, and one passenger, a woman, of brig Gipsy, of and from Yarmouth, N. S., for New York, having for her cargo the engines and part of the materials saved from the wreck of the steamship Viceroy, wrecked on the passage from New York to Galway. The Gipsy sprung a leak on the 19th inst., and was left in a sinking condition. One man jumped overboard and was drowned after being taken on board the N. Baker.
The British schooner Brothers Capt. Clark, of and from Annapolis, N. S., for Boston, with wood, struck on the outer ledge, off Swampscot, on Sunday evening. The crew, seven in number, left her in their boat and pulled for the shore. Mr. E. C. Bates, of Boston, who resides at Phillips' Beach, heard their cries for assistance, and with his servant succeeded in landing them safely at his residence at 12 o'clock at night, where they were kindly provided for. They saved only the clothes they had on their persons. The schooner drifted ashore on the rocks, on the north side of Nahant, near Mr. Tudor's cottage, where she now lies a wreck.
Schr. Pearl, from St. John, laden with fish, got ashore on the East end of Long Island, on the 27th ult. during the storm—Vessel and cargo expected to be saved at a light expense.
The steamship William Penn, from Boston, for Philadelphia, ran down the winning schooner Belle Isle, off Provincetown, off Cape on the 25th ult., causing her to sink immediately and roll over. There were 20 men on board of the schooner, 4 of whom were lost.
PRINCE EDWARDS ISLAND, Oct. 21.—Picked up at Covehead, on Monday the 6th inst, by Capt. McMullen of Brackley Point, a schooner called the Brothers, Andrew Holmes, master, of St. Andrews, N. B., owned by Bissett & Holmes, of that place. All hands lost. Four dead bodies were found on board, which were decently interred by some of the inhabitants of Covehead. The hull of the schr. is sound, and is now lying dismasted in Covehead harbour. On the Memorandum Book found on board, were the following names of the crew:—Andrew Holmes, Robert Mitchell, Edward Burns, William Batson, George Trot, Thomas Bisset and Thomas Neal.—Herald's Gazette

WRECK ON LAKE ONTERIO AND THIRTY LIVES LOST.—The steam propeller Henry Clay, which was wrecked off Long Point, Canada, in the gale on Thursday night, 23d ult., had a cargo of flour and 30 persons bound for Ogdensburgh. While the wreck was lying side up in the the trough of the sea, the passengers and crew lashed themselves to the rigging. Shortly after, the deck went off, and the hull then turned over, carrying down all except David Keefe and nine others, who succeeded in getting on a part of the wreck, but of these eight were washed off before morning; the other two held out until eight o'clock on Friday morning, the wind and sea both continuing high. The brig John Martin then hove in sight, and, bearing down to the wreck, threw out ropes. Keefe succeeded in catching one of these, and was dragged about a quarter of a mile, holding on to the rope with his hands, before he was rescued. The other of the two, Capt. Collard, formerly of the Texas Navy, and the inventor of the signal lanterns, failed in getting aboard the brig, and was drowned.

Oct. 7. W. H. ADAMS.

To the Freeholders of the City and County of St. John.

GENTLEMEN,—
YOU are again called upon to exercise one of your dearest privileges in the election of two Representatives to serve you in the General Assembly of this Province, in consequence of the resignation of two of your late members.
Many friends in the City and County having expressed a desire that I should offer for one of the vacancies, I am induced to comply with their solicitations, and will feel honoured by your suffrages to the extent necessary to return me one of your County Members for this important representation.
In thus coming before you and asking your approval and confidence, it will be necessary for me to give you an outline of my principles, and also of my political creed, so far at least as I have framed one—for, being but a Juvenile in Politics, I have much to learn.
I profess to be a liberal—in the true acceptation of the term—with that necessary portion of conservatism which I have ever been instructed to respect as a grand fundamental principles that actuates and moves in every true and Loyal subject of Her Majesty.—One that respects the feelings, interests, and prejudices of his neighbours, while at the same time he regards and will protect especially his own peculiar tenets.
A Liberal in sentiment, I would be one also in Politics.—My duty should be to give such Protection to Home Industry against Foreign Manufactures as would be the means of developing our native talents and resources. To encourage by all legitimate means industrious habits in manufacturing for and amongst ourselves, having a due regard for all particular interests, so that in framing our Tariff, no one interest should be sacrificed to that of another. Our duties for Revenue should be imposed on superfluous articles and such as are not absolutely necessary for domestic consumption;—those for Protection should be on such as we are capable of affording ourselves.—To our Ship Builders, I would afford every facility and inducement to compete with the world in this important branch of science, while I would also keep in view the best interests of our Mechanics.—To our Agriculturists, I would render such Protection as they might require to meet a hostile Tariff abroad,
A Reciprocal Free Trade throughout these Colonies I would advocate; and whenever the United States may be prepared to deal with us upon an equality, I would meet them half way with becoming spirit.
Our Fisheries should have the special care and protection of the Legislature and Government, to which their great (but until lately unknown or unrecognized) importance entitles them. And I would not hesitate to recommend from the Public Treasury for this purpose in the shape of Bounties, or in any other practicable way, as would induce parties to engage much more extensively in that branch of business than they now feel authorised or encouraged to do.
Our Public Schools Acts require much amendment and Revision—in fact, there is a great necessity for a change in the system and practice of them throughout,—I have not however given this subject much consideration, and am therefore unprepared to say at present if we can beat a moderate direct Tax for their support in an efficient way.
With respect to Rail Roads,—I would give every encouragement towards the construction of them with a due regard to our circumstances and means, and other claims upon our resources.
GENTLEMEN—
I belong to no party. I am unconnected with any society or association of men united for any particular object or purpose, political or otherwise. And so I hope to continue. I come before you free and independent—I make no promises or pledges either to uphold the present Government or denounce it. I shall take it as I find it, and on all occasions when necessary express my sentiments in accordance with my judgment. If I go to the House of Assembly as your representative, I must be sent there unfettered and with your entire confidence in my judgement to do what I conceive best for your interests, being guided therefore by the principles herein embodied.
I: only remains for me to say, that if elected I will look after your interests faithfully and fearlessly; and my humble abilities shall be devoted to the Public good.
I am, with esteem,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN JOHNSTON.

Mechanics' Institute.
THE LECTURE SEASON of the above Institution will commence on Monday Evening, the 10th November next; when the Rev. Dr JACOB, Principal of King's College, Fredericton, will deliver the Introductory Address.
The Directors have much pleasure in stating, that the following Scientific, talented and well known Gentlemen have consented to Lecture during the Season:—
Rev. Dr. Edwin Jacob, Rev. Dr. I. W. D. Gray, Mr. Babbitt, Rev. Mr. Wishart, Mr. Blatch, Dr. R. Bayard, Messrs. C. L. Hatheway, D. S. Kerr, M. H. Perley, C. Duff, John McLardy, Rev. A. Stewart, A. M., Rev. W. Ferrie, A. M., James Johnston, Dr. Patersen, S. R. Thomson, R. Foulis, R. Parker, Jr., Rev. R. Cooney A. M., and Rev. J. R. Lawson.
The Directors are in correspondence with a number of other Literary Gentlemen, from whom they expect to receive assistance, whose names with the Subjects of the Lectures will be published as soon as the arrangements are completed.
From the increased resources of the Institute during the past year, the Directors have been enabled to apply a large sum towards extending the LIBRARY of the Institute, which, at present, contains a valuable collection of Scientific, Historical, and Literary works; in addition to which, another selection of works have been ordered, and are expected to be ready for distribution at the opening of the Lecture Season.
The GESNER MUSEUM, which has now for the most part, become the property of the Institute, will be opened for exhibition to Members during each Lecture evening, from 7 to 9 o'clock.
The READING ROOM is now so arranged as to afford additional accommodation to visitors; a number of popular Newspapers published in Great Britain, the United States, and the Colonies, are now received for the use of the Room, together with the leading British and American Reviews.
The Library will be opened on Monday and Friday Evenings, from 7 to 8 o'clock; the Reading Room from 7 to half-past 9, every evening in the week, Saturdays and Sundays excepted.
As the Directors have used every exertion to render the Institute as useful and attractive as possible they hope their exertions will be appreciated, and that the Institution will this Season receive a large accession to its membership.
In consequence of the want of sufficient accommodation in the Lecture Room, the Directors are constrained to adhere to the Rule of the Institute, in allowing but one Lady to accompany a Member to the Lectures.
Members' Tickets, 15s.; Non-Members' Tickets, to admit to the Lectures for the Season, 15s.; Ladies', Youths', and Apprentices' Tickets, 5s. each. Admission to one Lecture, 1s 3d.
No Tickets Transferable. It having come to the knowledge of the Board that Lecturers have heretofore felt great inconvenience and annoyance from the numerous applications made for free Tickets: To relieve them from such importunities, and to compel all persons desirous of attending the Lectures to pay their fair scot and lot, only a limited number of Tickets will be placed at the disposal of the Lecturers for distribution among their immediate friends.
Members, and others, may obtain Tickets, by application at the Institute, on Thursday and Friday evenings, between 7 and 8 o'clock.
☞ The Board of Directors return their grateful acknowledgments to the several persons who kindly loaned their Paintings, Works of Art, and Specimens of Mechanical Skill and to those who offerded gratuitous services at the late Industrial Exhibition, by which they were enabled so successfully to carry out the objects they had in view.
