REPORTS.

Halifax, Sept. 8.—Steamer Maratha, from St. John, deal laden, for Cardiff, put in here this afternoon for assistance, the crew having refused duty, claiming she is overloaded.

London, Sept. 9.—The Netherlands-American line steamship Heardam, Capt. Bohjer, which sailed from New York on August 29th for Rotterdam via Boulogne, has passed the Lizard and signalled that they have picked up all hands of the British bark Perfection, Capt. Loomer, which sailed from Quebec on August 17th, and afterwards from Montreal for Rio Janeiro, and which has been destroyed by fire at sea. The British bark Perfection was a wooden vessel of 509 tons register. She was built at Spencer's Island, N. S., in 1893, and hailed from Parrsboro in the same province. She was owned by Capt. Johnson Spicer, who formerly commanded her, and others.

Capt. Loomer is a brother of the junior partner in the firm of McAfee and Loomer of St. John.
