New Lamp Burns 94% Air

BEATS ELECTRIC OR GAS

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. M. Johnson, 246 Craig St., W., Montreal is offering to send a lamp on 10 days FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

There is an old proverb that the goodness that you may do this day, do it, and abide not nor delay it not till tomorrow.

DR THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL
A SURE, SAFE AND SIMPLE REMEDY FOR ALL THE COMMON AILMENTS. IT ALWAYS BE KEPT ON HAND, AS MORE SERVICEABLE PREPARATION FOR SUCH USES CANNOT BE FOUND. GET A BOTTLE TO-DAY AND HAVE IT READY FOR THE TIME WHEN YOU WILL NEED IT.

To Safeguard quality and flavor
"SALADA" TEA
is always sold in an air-tight aluminum packet, never in bulk.

List of Prizes and Doners for School Work

An interesting time was spent in the Assembly Room of Macdonald School one morning last week when the School Commissioners, the teaching staff and others, heard the prize list read for the current year. Chairman of the School Board, Dr. F. S. Messenger, presided and on the platform with him were Principal Bustin and staff, W. G. Parsons and J. A. Gates.

The children sang two choruses, a hymn and patriotic song. Prayer followed, led Mr. J. A. Gates. The flag salute, with its obligation followed by the National Anthem, was very pleasing. The chairman then addressed the pupils, reading also the donors of prizes and the various subjects and grades to which they are assigned which are as follows.

To stimulate scholarships and good citizenship in the student body of Macdonald School, the following prize list has been donated and appropriated by the School Board, Teachers and friends of the School. The list is not to be considered as complete, for the donations have been voluntarily made, and any friends wishing to contribute a prize for some special work in any grade may do so, and know that all such will be gratefully received.

BANNED BABY

PARIS—A French woman, Mme. Athimon, who has been living with her husband in New York for many years, came to France in the summer and while here her baby was born. A few weeks ago she sailed for New York with the baby, but the infant was refused admission to the United States as "outside the quota."

Mme. Athimon was obliged to return to France, and she landed at Cherbourg from the Momeric. Her husband has a prosperous business in New York.

Thankful Mothers

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little one she would use nothing else. The Tablets give such results that the mother has nothing but words of praise and thankfulness for them. Among the thousands of mothers throughout Canada who praise the Tablets is Mrs. David A. Anderson, New Glasgow, N. S., who writes:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my children and from my experience I would not be without them. I would urge every other mother to keep a box of the Tablets in the house." The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach; drive out constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make teething easy. They are sold by medicine dealers, or by mail at 25c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

STOVEPIPE TIME

Along about this time of year there is always fifteen jobs to do, agin' the winter settin in for handy folks like me and you. Into the broken window panes we stuff therein the cast off shirt and round the kitchen base we pile great mounds of faded sod and dirt.

And then when all them things is done there be one job to which I'm drove, a-cleaning out the sooty pipes what's hitched unto the kitchen stove.

And if that job we'll pause a spell until we're cool within the head, and prune from out this simple yarn the heated words and phrases said.

It ain't no trick at all to go and take the things down length by length, it only needs a kitchen chair and plus a little of the brute strength. But after they all is cleaned out it's then, me boy, me face the chore, of stickin' them pipes up again just how they was stuck up before.

I stick the first one on the stove, the thing seems simple as mud, but when I jam in number two they both come down with crashin' thud. 'Tis then I jam in one again, and say some things unto that tin, and try to take up number two and put the third one straight with him. The kitchen table holds one foot, the other's on the pantry shelf, the folks keep a-warnin' me as how I'm apt to kill my self.

At last them three is sittin' tight. I take an elbow in my paw; and wipe the sweat from off my brow and mow the soot from off my jaw. I minded the job I had before when I went through this spell last fall, a-tryin' to make them pipes perform and hit the pipe hole in the wall.

I get the elbow in just so and some one holds it with a broom, me figurin' that the way we're doin' we'll have the job cleaned up right soon.

"'Tis then I find that four won't fit, and some one hollers out to me, as that I've gone and put in four instead of using number three. And then the devil comes to me I holler back, in fact, I roar, if they was knowin' now so much, they should have spoke up long before.

So down she comes, I start again, I jam in two and three and four, when number one she jumps the job and goes a tumblin' on the floor.

Then some one's sure to laugh out loud which riles my blood and fans my fire. I'm thinkin' new wild things to say, my eyes is bulgin' with fire.

I pull the kitchen table out, a slab of skin comes off my thumb, I'm yearnin' for the time to come when this here kitchen pipe is done.

I mind how Bruce's spider died, just how he fired the fightin' men, and so I clambered to the roof and try to place them pipes again.

At last I get the things in place and bind 'em with ten feet of wire, then calmly tell the folks to start and belch away their kitchen fire. Yet I would like to find the man who first invented kitchen pipe I'd smite him with a crowbar first, then swat him with an egg what's ripe.—ARK in the London Advertizer.

NEW STYLE WEDDING

LONDON—The bride was not "given awa," and the vow to "obey" was omitted at the wedding of Mr. A. Taylor and Miss Doris Newham at the White City, near Mansfield.

The couple promised to serve each other, and the father simply conducted the bride to the altar.

THANKFUL HEART

If one should give me a dish of sand, said Oliver Wendell Holmes, and tell me there was iron in it, I might look for the particles with my eyes and search for them with my clumsy fingers, and be unable to detect them; but let me take a magnet and sweep through it, and how it would draw o tiself the most invisible particles by the mere power of attraction! The unthankful heart, like my finger in the sand, discovers no mercies; but let the thankful heart sweep through the day, as the magnets finds the iron, so will it find in every hour some heavenly blessings; only the iron in God's sand is gold.

WOMAN DOCTOR IN PIT

Descends Shaft With Miners to Aid Man Buried Three Hours

LONDON—Dr Michael the Clay-cross woman doctor, descended a pit there to attend a miner buried by a fall of roof.

It was impossible to extricate the man for three hours and when at last he was released she insisted on attending to him at the coal face, only a few yards from where the fall occurred.

The man is progressing satisfactorily. The miners who went down with Dr. Michael were loud in their praise of her pluck and coolness.

LOOK FOR RECORD GAME SEASON

Returning victorious from the chase—via the St. Lawrence River.

The moose and deer-hunting season is now in full swing in the Province of Quebec and the indications are that game is more abundant than it has been for many years. This fact, together with the rainy weather of the summer, which caused many sportsmen to postpone their visit until the fall, may quite possibly lead to a record season.

The fish and game preservation policy of the provincial government, which has resulted in the phenomenal increase of wild life, is of interest to all sportsmen. Interviewed on the subject recently, Mr. J. A. Belleisle, superintendent of that branch of the government concerned in this policy, said: "For the last fifteen years we have concentrated on game preservation in this province. This has been most effectively accomplished by the establishment of small preserves which are leased to private fish and game clubs. We have now no less than 500 of these and are working steadily to establish more. As a condition of the lease we insist that each club provide at least two fully qualified game wardens whom we license as such. The result is that we have 1,000 game wardens more than our own corps of about 125, maintained at no expense to the government, a far larger number than we could possibly supply were we compelled to do so from public funds. Were it not for this policy, large tracts of country into which the fish and game overflow from these preserves would be utterly destitute of such life on account of the great numbers of sportsmen drawn into the province over whom we could exercise little or no effective control. As it is, the whole country teems with trophies awaiting the sportsman, whether he belongs to a club or not.

"As a proof of the increase of game," Mr. Belleisle continued, "I might say that moose, bear and deer have lately been seen even in the suburbs of our cities and towns. Of recent years, a moose was shot in the very heart of Quebec city, in the square between the Basilica and the city hall, and another near a large apartment house a stone's throw from the Parliament Buildings. On another occasion, a bear was shot in the suburb of St. Roch. All over the province, this increase is apparent. Lake Meganic, the Laurentians, the Gatineau Valley, Temiskaming, Kipawa, St. Maurice, Lake Edward, Maniwaki and other places on the Canadian Pacific lines, are packed."

And, to clinch Mr. Belleisle's case, the following comes to hand from Tem-kip Camp, on Lake Temiskaming: "Moose, deer and bear are very plentiful this season, especially moose. They are all over the place. I have been out for four days with a party from New York city who have never seen anything like the abundance of game we have here."
