CAPTAIN OF "KOEPENICK" IN ANOTHER BIG HOAX

Denies the Report of His Address After Press Had Reported It

London, July 8.—Wilhelm Voigt, of Berlin, the famous "Captain of Koepenick," who set all the world laughing a few years ago by his exploit in holding up the town of Koepenick by the aid of the Kaiser's soldiers, is the central figure in another hoax.

A few days ago the Berlin papers published a telegram from London, stating that Voigt had died in a hospital there. Columns of obituary notices were published, and the story of his exploit was retold. Today the papers print an indignant letter of protest from Voigt, who says he is in excellent condition, and has no thought of dying.

Voigt has been living peacefully in Luxemburg on an income received from an anonymous Berlin widow as a token of her admiration of his success in fooling the Koepenick officials. He was travelling from Luxemburg to Lauscha, in Thuringia, when he read the report of his death in the train.

He got out at Coburg, and taking his stand in the market place started selling picture postcards of himself, shouting: "Here is the world-famous Captain of Koepenick. I am not dead, but still alive and kicking."

The police arrested him, but when he proved his identity they let him go. It is suspected here that the story of Voight's death has been started to attract public attention to him previous to his appearance in a music hall.

DOUBLE DROWNING NEAR AMHERSTBURG

Brothers Took Cramps While Bathing in Pond at the Stone Quarry.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Windsor, July 7.—Cecil Farmer, aged 8, and his brother Wilhelm, aged 17, were drowned this afternoon. Cecil had gone in bathing in the old stone quarry pond, near Amherstburg, and getting beyond his depth, sank. His brother went to rescue him, and he, too, was drowned. It is supposed both boys were seized with cramps. The bodies were found late in the evening in 35 feet of water, clasped in each other's arms.

The brothers had been hauling gravel from the quarry, and while their wagon was being loaded, a snort distance from the pond, they went to take a bath. The pond is an excavation in the quarry which has not been in use for two years. Cecil was unable to swim, and, not knowing that the bank sloped off abruptly, walked into deep water. The pond is fed by springs, making it very cold.

The boys were not missed until one of the workmen, having finished loading the wagon, went to call them. He found their clothing on the shore.

NOTED LAWYER DEAD

Father of the Court of Criminal Appeals in Great Britain.

London, July 7. — Hon. Roger Dawson Yelverton, a noted lawyer, is dead. He is the man who was chiefly responsible for the establishment of the court of criminal appeals in Great Britain. He was the successful defender of George Edalji, the cattle maimer, who was vindicated by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.

MARVELLOUS RELIEF FOR CORNS, BUNIONS, SORE FOOT LUMPS.

Five corns on five toes for five years. Was he lame? You bet. That man was a chump—sure he was. One quarter spent on Putnam's eases 'em, in good style—lifts them out quick—without pain, and never fails. This is why Putnam's is superior to the cheap imitations that afford the dealer more profit. ENGLISH WOMEN HOLD A "SHOOT"

The Female Rifle Association Members Gather Like Old Veterans.

USE THE BISLEY RULES

Exercise Is Good for Nerves and Tempers, Declares One of the Contestants.

Bisley, England, July 6.—The Surrey Ladies' Rifle Association met here on Saturday morning for their annual team and individual competition meeting. The competitors looked very businesslike in their mackintosh greatcoats, padded at shoulder and elbow, as they trod the slippery field with martial serenity. Away from the shelter of the "dry canteen" rain fell in whizzing bullet-colored torrents, which reduced the "anti-rheumatism" shooting-mats to pulpy lumps of wet string.

But there were no damped spirits among these daughters of the regiment. A "miss" or "five o'clock outer" had more terrors for them than wet hair and sodden boots. The Inter-County team competition, in which six counties will be represented, is being anticipated with a certain grim eagerness.

The events have taken place in strict accordance with Bisley bylaws. The ranges are 25, 50 and 100 yards—seven shots to be fired at each range, no "sighter" being allowed. The competitors may use slings, and may adopt either prone or sitting position.

"Veterans," who have faced similar ordeals before, wore white armlets and acted as range officers. One of these, belonging to the Surrey team, said with all enthusiasm of a victorious general:

"This is only our second meeting, but we mean to make it an annual affair. Last year only one team shot against us in the Inter-County team competition—this year there will be five. That shows how popular rifle shooting is becoming for women.

"I think it is splendid training. It steadies nerves and tempers, and we can practice all the year round, either outdoors or under cover. We have no special uniform but just wear ties of our team colors.

"We shall all be sorry when it is over, though we are desperately keen on hearing the competition results."

A smart double to the "dry canteen" ended the day's proceedings.

BUBONIC PLAGUE REACHES THE CUBAN CAPITAL

One Case Authenticated at Havana But Talk of Isolation Has Not Begun.

Havana, July 7.—The existence of bubonic plague in Havana has been definitely determined. A special board of physicians has pronounced a case at Las Animas hospital true bubonic. The patient is said to be dying and three other patients are reported dead at the same hospital with marked symptoms of the plague.

At the present time the question of isolating Havana from the interior is not being considered. The rat-killing corps of the health department has been largely reinforced. All street cars, 'buses and ferry boats have been ordered to be washed with disinfecting fluid.
