UNIDENTIFIED BODY FOUND.

Queenstown, Aug. 14.—The body of an unidentified American bluejacket, about 24 years old, was washed ashore here yesterday. Keys tied around the neck bore the letters "U. S. N." An investigation is being made by the United States consulate.

CHEESE MARKETS.

St. Paschal, Que., Aug. 14.—At the regular meeting of the dairy board today 700 boxes of cheese were offered. All sold to Alexander, Montreal, at 21 1-16c. Ninety-five packages of butter sold to Emond & Cote, Quebec, at 40¾c.

LIVE STOCK MARKET

There was a steady but quiet market out at the Union Stock Yards yesterday, the receipts being only about 300 cattle, together with an ordinary Tuesday run of small stuff, being in striking contrast to Monday's big rush, the largest of the season.

But the 400 head of fresh stuff added to about 350 left overs from Monday made quite a fair run, which was, however, well cleaned up in good time. There were none of the extra choice lots of export cattle on hand, which marked Monday's trading, and for which fancy prices were paid, but a lot of good useful to inferior cattle, all of which, however, went out.

Fair to good butcher cattle held steady and a feature of the market, which is becoming more apparent every day, is the improved demand for the better grades of stockers and feeders, and the firmer prices quoted yesterday fully ¼c better than a week ago. This is attributable in a great part to the splendid outlook for pasture and coarse grains all over, drovers from all parts of Ontario who came on the market stating that there will be an abundance of feed of all kinds.

Sheep and Lambs.

Sheep and lambs were steady at Monday's quotations.

Calves.

There was a good strong calf trade yesterday for all but the grassers. Real choice calves sold at from 14c to 15c, with a few extra ones at 16c. There was a good sheep and lamb trade as stated with the close at from 14c to 14¼c, and extra lambs brought 14½c.

Hogs.

Higher prices on the Buffalo market and a light run of hogs gave them another boost of from 30c to 40c per cwt., as high as $17.75 being paid fed and watered. Predictions are being made that hogs will reach $18 within a fortnight, but this remains to be seen. Taken altogether Tuesday's market was a pretty good one, and generally satisfactory all round.

Total Receipts.

Receipts, 30 cars, with 409 cattle, 101 calves, 402 hogs, and 271 sheep and lambs.

WHOLESALE FRUIT AND VEGETABLES

Raspberries.

Cherries.

Montmorency cherries sold at $1.25 to $1.50 per 11-quart basket, and 70c to 75c per six-quart basket, while the Morellos brought 60c and 65c per six-quart basket.

Blueberries.

Blueberries were practically stationary at $1.25 to $1.75 per 11-quart basket.

Thimbleberries.

Thimbleberries were shipped in a little more freely, and sold at 18c to 20c per box, only a few extra choice ones bringing the 20c.

Currants.

Both black and red currants continued to bring high prices, the black selling at $2 to $2.25 per 11-quart basket; a few very poor quality going at $1.50—and $1 to $1.25 per six-quart basket; the red ones selling at $1 to $1.50 per 11-quart basket; 50c to 75c per six-quart, and 10c to 13c per box.

Beans.

There is a very good demand for choice beans, and this class sells well at 50c per 11-quart basket, the inferior ones, however, are not wanted at any price.

Corn.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET.

Winnipeg, Aug. 14.—There was an undiminished demand today for cash wheat. Again holders made offers, altho there was stiffening of prices for grades below those that have reached the maximum quotations. Traders are beginning to wonder if there is much of the 1916 crop available for the market. Receipts are growing less daily. It is possible that most of the available supply has already been sold.

There was a slight improvement in the demand for cash oats today, while some enquiry was made for the October delivery.

Offerings were small and prices were easier. Barley was in some demand, but, as was the case with other cereals, offerings were small. No. 1 N.W.C. flax was traded in at October quotations, while the other grades were unchanged. There were but few transactions in the future options. Price fluctuations were in narrow range for oats, but October wheat and flax showed a decided weakness, tho the opening quotations were higher than yesterday's finish.

Cash wheat closed at $2.40 for No. 1 northern, and No. 2 northern and lower grades mostly were one cent higher than yesterday. October closed 3.08¾, one cent lower. October oats closed 66⅝c, ½c l
