Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

CARNIVAL.—The Carnival of the season at Chatham Skating Rink is to come off on Thursday evening next, 4th March.

THE FUNERAL of the late Herbert Parker which took place at Newcastle on Thursday last was very largely attended.

FIREWARDS' MEETING.—The Firewards of Chatham are to hold their regular monthly meeting in the Benson Block tomorrow evening at eight o'clock.

PERSONAL.—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Whittaker's "Crystal Wedding" celebration, which took place at their residence, St. John, last week is referred to by the city papers as a most enjoyable occasion. The numerous presents made by friends afforded evidence of Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker's popularity.

Wm. Swin, Esq, ex-M. P. P., is in town.

CURLING.—Married vs Single rinks played on Monday at the Skating Rink, Chatham. The scores were Single 58, Married 53—another victory for the bachelors.

Vice President Clarke has presented Chatham Club with an elegant solid silver cup to be played for by eight of the "old skips."

OBITUARY.—The death of James McMillan, Esq. of St. John took place on Wednesday evening 17th inst. He was senior member of the well known firm, J. & A. McMillan, St. John loses in him one of its oldest and most respected business men.

THE PRESBYTERY COMMITTEE, consisting of Messrs. Aitken, McKay and Waits, is to meet in St. Mark's Church, Douglastown, this, Thursday, evening at 7 o'clock. The business is, to confer with commissioners from Nelson and Douglastown for the joint supply of their churches.

"ESTHER."—This Cantata was presented with very good success at Newcastle under Prof. Westendorf's direction on Thursday and Friday evenings of last week. Mr. C. B, Thompson's King, Mr. Joseph Treen's Haman, Mr. E. B. Thompson's Mordecai, Miss Cottier's Zeresh, Miss Lou Harley's Esther were well rendered parts and the minor characters and chorus made up a capital performance. The Children's marching evolutions and singing were not the least of the attractive features.

CURLERS' DANCE.—The Chatham Curling Club is to hold a "Curlers' Dance" in Masonic Hall, Chatham, on Wednesday evening next, 3rd March. The arrangements are in the hands of efficient committees and the affair cannot be otherwise than a very enjoyable one. The Hall is to be decorated with Curlers' emblems and the implements and surroundings of the game and the programme of dances will be in keeping with the auspices under which the gathering will take place. It is expected that Newcastle, Bathurst, Moncton and other Curling centres will be well represented on the occasion.

MIRAMICHI TALENT. — The Lowell Times pays a high compliment to the acting of Miss Minnie Hall, late of Chatham, in the play of The Two Orphans, recently presented in that city by an amateur company. She was called before the curtain and honored with a handsome bouquet The company is to repeat the play in Lawrence, Mass., on 17th March.

Miss Ida Fayle's Miramichi friends will be pleased to learn of her success at an entertainment held in the Town Hall, Belmont, Mass., on Thursday evening, Feb. 4th. She had a most difficult part and acquitted herself in such a manner as to win the admiration of all present.

LECTURE.—J. E. B. McCready, Esq, chief editor of the St. John Telegraph, was the lecturer in the regular I. O. G. T. course on Tuesday evening, his subject being "Scenes in the Canadian Parliament." The audience was large, and the lecture a very entertaining one. The chair was occupied by Rev. Mr. Treen and a vote of thanks, moved by Rev. Neil McKay, was unanimously tendered to the lecturer.

The next lecture—the last of the course—is to be delivered by H. A. McKeown, Esq., of St. John, on 11th March.

A GIRL MYSTERIOUSLY SHOT.—At Campbellton, Thursday afternoon, a rifle ball passed through the wall of Mr. John Gallant's house and struck his niece, aged 15, just behind the ear. She was sitting in a chair with a little child in her arms at the time. She fell to the floor, but got up and staggered across the room. The bullet fell to the floor, the wound bled freely and it was the opinion of Dr. Lunam, who examined it shortly after the occurrence, that the girl's skull was slightly fractured and her life in danger. The bullet was flattened at one end, so that it was shaped exactly like a horse's hoof. In its passage through the wall it took a slightly downward course, showing that it had come from a distance. Several persons heard the report, but our informant could not find anyone who knew who fired the shot.—World.

TRAVEL TO THE STATES.—A short time since we referred to the change of time now adopted by the International S. S. Co. Ever since the formation of the Company the first trip of the week from St. John to Boston was made on Mondays. This, as will readily be seen, obliged the travelling public from this vicinity who wished to take the Monday's steamer, to incur the inconvenience and expense of stopping over at St. John from twenty-four to thirty-six hours. The management of the I. S. S. Co. fully appreciating the patronage that has been given the line since the "Palace Steamers" were built and put upon the route, determined to try this new feature of a Tuesday's trip to better facilitate the wants of the travelling public. As yet but three trips have been made but they have given sufficient encouragement to warrant their continuance. By this new departure a person may leave home from any point on the I. C. R'y and connect the following morning with one of the finest steamers afloat, either the "Cumberland" or the "State of Maine," which arrive in Boston the following morn.

Chatham Street and Fire Services.

Editor of the World.

DEAR SIR.—There is much in your paper of to-day concerning me to which I have neither time nor inclination to reply. I may say, however, that if, out of the discussion raised by your leader and correspondents in reference to a call for amalgamating Chatham street and fire services, a feeling will grow in favor of making the board less, thus promoting what I have always believed to be the correct principle in such matters, I shall have the less cause to regret the undeserved and untruthful accusations you made in reference to the Councillors privately circulating printed copies of the bill and making, under oath, false declarations—charges which you have not yet withdrawn although you know they have been disproved.

I am not of those who reject what, of itself, is right, because the proposer may happen to be an opponent, although you must admit that the idea of the ratepayers electing such bodies could only be claimed as an original one by an ignorant person, or one willing to take credit where he was not entitled to it.

The reason why we did not propose in the bill, to make the whole board elective by the people of the district was because the resolution of Council under which we acted simply affirmed the principle of combining the two services. The necessity of making the Councillors members of the board was impressed upon us by the fact that ratepayers having suggestions or complaints to present applied to the Councillors quite as much as to the Street Commissioner or Firewards, naturally thinking their Councillors ought to be responsible for the town services.

Truly Yours,
D. G. SMITH.

Chatham, Feby. 20th 1886.

The above letter, which was sent to the World in due time, has, like the others, been suppressed, and that paper makes untruthful statements respecting it and gives its readers nearly two columns of parish logic, a part of which is in reference to the subject under discussion and the remainder characteristic reflections on Councillor Smith, who is, in the World's estimation, a very cunning and dangerous person who wants to swallow the town, bones and all It is to be hoped that when Chatham shall pass through the terrible ordeal prophesied, the World will survive as the one element in it too nauseating for even so voracious a monster as the terrible Counciller.

Black Brook Entertainment.

A very large audience attended the literary and musical entertainment given at Black Brook School House on Tuesday evening. The chair was occupied by Peter Loggie, Esq., of Chatham. The programme consisted of a short lecture, "Sugar plums for Big Babies, or the right sort of stuff to make a man" by Rev. E. Wallace Waits, followed by a dialogue, "Josiah's Courtship," character songs by Mr. Howe, "John Smith's adventures in London" by Messrs. Tait, Babcock, Dickson and Peter Loggie, Jr. and Misses Ellsworth, Scott and Alexis Loggie, and several choruses by the local choir under the efficient direction of Miss Ellsworth, A vote of thanks to the entertainers, moved by Mr. F. S. Russell, seconded by Mr. Alex. Loggie was passed unanimously. The gross proceeds amounted to $20.65 The net proceeds will be devoted to the Presbyterian S. S. library fund.

Kent County Notes.

RICHIBUCTO, N. B., Feb 23, 1886.

Mr. Robert Law has disposed of his interest in the schr "Jeanne D'Arc" to Mr. David McAlmon.

Mrs. George W. Robertson had her left hand badly scalded one day last week.

Mr. Wheten, M. P. P., purposes leaving for Fredericton on Thursday.

The list of electors for Kent under the New Franchise Act furnishes a fair illustration of what ignorance and political partizanship can produce. 1033 names were left off the old list, while many without qualification were added. More of this anon.

Captain Wm. Malley has sold his schooner "Black Watch" to parties in Albetton, P. E. I.

Among the recent assignments in business is first: that of Hugh M. Ferguson, merchant tailor, of Kingston, to C. Richardson, Esq., and second Robert Law, general dealer, to Mr. J. A. Morrison of Halifax—representing J. S. McLean & Co. The latter assignment is a surprise to many and causes considerable speculative comment. Mr. Morrison has charge of the store.

Inspector Hanford of the Inland Revenue Department, was in Kingston yesterday trying, it was said, to extinguish a distillery which it is believed exists in that locality.

The addition of Mr. John A. McIsaac to the staff of the Merchants' Bank Agency at Kingston adds much to the popularity of that institution—located as at present in such comforfable, cozy and convenient quarters.

Hon. John McMillan, P. O. Inspector, paid us a flying visit last week and went to Kouchibouguac over the worst roads to be found in the County. He left for St. John on Thursday morning.

Mr. Wm. Brown, jr, son of Wm. Brown, Esq., late Tide Waiter in H. M. Customs, is on a visit to his relatives here. He is still an old "bach" although rumor says a change may be made at an early day.

That Ticket.

The Advocate publishes the requisition sent through the County to their political and other friends by Messrs. Allan Ritchie (Chairman) John O'Brien, J. S. Benson, M. D., John McDonald, M. D., John C. Miller, Reuben S. Cormier, Dan'l Crimmin and C. E. Fish, Secretary, asking Messrs. M. Adams, W. A. Park, L. J. Tweedie and E. Hutchison to run for the Assembly at the next election as opponents of the local Government. As we have already stated, every parish was personally canvassed by members of the Committee or their agents, who were provided with the requisition in printed form. The requisition sets forth the claims of the proposed ticket on about the grounds stated by the ADVANCE two weeks ago and has now been presented to the four gentlemen named, signed—the Advocate says—by some thirteen hundred electors. As there are 4,347 electors in the County it is to be assumed that the other three thousand wouldn't sign it.

Respecting our correspondent's statement that Mr. John Fish had made certain assertions regarding Mr. Snowball favoring the ticket, the Advocate states that Mr. Fish says the charge is untrue. We presume our correspondent will set the matter right, as he could hardly be mistaken. The Advocate also states that a certain journalist "amuses Mr. Tweedie." Who is he?
