THE NEW

System of Medicine.

Have you heard of the reform in Medicine? If not, you are behind the times. Send 3-cent stamp at once for free medical book of nearly 200 pages—"The Entire Revolution of Medicine," by Dr. J. Eugene Jordan.

The greatest boon ever given suffering humanity, no poisonous drugs used in this beautiful system, and medicines perfectly tasteless. Hundreds of dollars saved in doctors' and undertakers' bills and lives of misery through pain and suffering converted into happiness by using this system. Why destroy yourself with poisonous drugs and fill a suicide's grave? It will be a poor excuse for the drunkard at the last great day to plead that the traffic was legalized. Send for our free book then and read it with an unprejudiced mind if you love life and would see many days.

In order to spread the fame of these wonderful remedies quickly, we have decided to sell them at half price for one month, beginning Monday, Dec. 21. Each patient will receive one month's treatment only at the reduced price. We do this to allow sufferers to test the medicines at a small outlay, which will only be $4, $6, or $8 respectively, according to the number of kinds of medicines required to cover the case.

Invalids treated successfully at a distance by means of question sheets. Testimonials on application, many of our patients in London and Toronto request us to send inquirers to them for personal interview. All business or communications strictly confidential. Send money by post-office order. No duty on medicines going to patients in United States.

—Walter Sanford's great melodrama, "My Jack," will be seen at the Grand Opera House on Thursday and Friday nights, Jan. 7 and 8. The play is a stirring old-fashioned melodrama of English build, crowded with incidents of an exciting nature and abounding in hair-breadth escapes of many descriptions. The twelve sets painted by the late Matt Morgan represent among other things the explosion of a lighthouse and the rescue from a watery grave of the hero by the heroine. The hero in this case is Walter Sanford, who, although still a young man, has had a wide experience in melodrama.

"My Colleen" To-Night.

"My Colleen," which will be seen at the Grand Opera House Monday and Tuesday nights, is an Irish comedy drama by James A. Herne, author of "Hearts of Oak." The piece is said to be a magnificent word painting of exquisite beauty entirely different from any Irish comedy before the public. Tony Farrell, for whom the piece was especially written, portrays a wholesouled "trouth" of a lad, the part affording him ample opportunities to display his versatility as actor and comedian. Incidentally he introduces his Irish ballads, the rendition of which have made him so famous. Mr. Farrell will also introduce to the melodious strains of the Irish pipes his inimitable Irish reel. The piece is beautifully staged.

Liquor Caused the Smash-up.

Two young men from this city found themselves in a rather not-to-be-desired position Saturday night. They had a livery rig and one was driving east near Kensington bridge, while the other, who had just got out of the rig, was following on foot close behind. Suddenly horse, buggy and driver turned a summersault down a small hill and landed in a hollow. The buggy was smashed to atoms and the harness was also damaged to a great extent. Both of the animals, however, escaped uninjured. Liquor caused the whole trouble.

Robert Wall and Tim Sullivan were arrested on a charge of being drunk, and they proved to be the two who had the rig. At the Police Court this morning Wall was discharged and Sullivan was remanded for a week. The latter is a boy with a bad record, having been discharged with a severe reprimand within the past week for being drunk. Detective Allen arrested them after the court adjourned on a charge of being disorderly in London West.

East Middlesex Conservative Nomination.

The adjourned meeting of the East Middlesex Conservatives was held Saturday afternoon in the Masonic Temple. After firing an ADVERTISER reporter the attendants got down to business. A motion was made nominating Joseph H. Marshall, M.P., as the standard bearer for the party in the next election. That gentleman accepted. Then the usual speeches were made by delegates, the most amusing of which was that of D. F. Moore, of South Dorchester, who announced that Marshall would have 800 majority next time. The speaker hinted at a traitor in the camp, said he was going to write to Reeve Cline about it and got thoroughly mixed up. Peter Eison, of London township, said he had always been a Conservative, but when the Government allowed any agricultural firm or firms to go to work and form a monopoly for the purpose of raising the price of machinery so as to encroach upon the farmers' rights, then he would ask that Government to do away with the duty on machinery altogether and give them free trade. His remarks caused consternation, because it was known that the implement combine is in full force to-day. Hon. John Carling's name was not mentioned. The wirepullers met and agreed to switch him off the track, despite the earnest desire by the London Conservative managers that he should be permitted to run in the east riding. Reports from the constituency are to the effect that opposition to Mr. Marshall is as strong as ever.

Recent Society Events.

A fashionable New Year's wedding took place in Woodstock, being the marriage of Miss May Doyle, only daughter of J. B. Doyle, to John F. McKay, editor of the Leamington Post. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, and was witnessed by a large gathering of friends from Chicago, Port Huron, Strathroy, Niagara, St. George, North Branch, Mich., Leamington and other places. Miss Lizzie McKay, sister of the groom, and Miss Frank, of Strathroy, acted as bridesmaids, and Messrs. F. Chalmers and F. Karn supported the groom.

W. E. Hueston, Centralia, and Miss L. B. Miller, McGillivray, were married on Wednesday by Rev. E. Hunter, Lucan. Miss Clara Miller, sister of the bride, and G. Hueston, Grand Forks, Dakota, assisted as bridesmaid and groomsman. The wedding took place at the residence of James Miller, the bride's father.

At Squire Sheppard's residence in Wardsville on Wednesday, his son, F. W. Sheppard, of St. Louis, Mo., and bride were tendered a reception. The bride was handsomely attired and the elite assembly enjoyed a pleasant evening after a sumptuous banquet had been served. The gem of the evening was a love solo, sung by the bride, entitled "What Shall I Say?" The spacious parlors of the host and hostess were filled to overflowing on the occasion.

Dr. L. M. Ardeil, a graduate of the London Medical School, of class 90, was married on Wednesday to Miss Kate, daughter of John Colbert, London township. Miss Kate Colbert, a cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Wm. Ardeil, a brother of the groom, as groomsman. The happy couple will locate in Avoca, Mich., after a bridal tour, the doctor having already established a lucrative practice there.

About 150 guests assembled a few days ago at the residence of W. S. Whillans, Forest, where his second daughter, Miss Mary, was married to Alexander Karr, teacher, Warwick township, Rev. James Pritchard, officiating. Miss Bella Whillans, sister of the bride, and R. Foster, teacher, were bridesmaid and groomsman. Numerous friends were present from a distance.

WORK AND WAGES.

Railway Men Leave the Knights of Labor — Watchmakers Want Better Pay.

The organized employes of the Lynn and Boston Railroad, Boston, representing over 300 conductors, drivers and motor men, have withdrawn from the Knights of Labor and formed Progressive Union, 61, the National Association of Surface Railway Employes.

Three thousand operatives of the Elgin (Pa.) Watch Company stand ready to quit, and only wait the signal to quit work. Several hundred skilled workmen in the departments walked out Saturday, and unless all signs fail the strike will become general. The trouble is due to a reduction of wages.

Mortality in a Chicago Baby Farm.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Mrs. Annie Hanson was arrested here last night on a charge of manslaughter, it having been discovered that she runs a baby farm on Calumet avenue. Six babies are known to have been taken to her house during the last five months, while five dead little ones have been found within a half mile of her place. The police claim to have a chain of evidence that will be sufficient to convict her of many crimes.

The Priest Sent the Dancers Home.

BRICK CHURCH, N. J., Jan. 4.—The Young Men's Catholic Union of Orange Valley held a reception in Temperance Hall Thursday night. At midnight the dancers began to waltz. Father William M. R. Callan, of the Church of Our Lady of the Valley, who has repeatedly prohibited round dancing, entered the hall just then, and immediately requested the dancers to leave the hall. He had the lights extinguished, and in fifteen minutes after he entered not a single dancer was to be seen. Father Callan even refused to allow the members of the union to serve the refreshments at the house. He told the young people that they could enjoy their refreshments at home.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Demise of Col. C. S. Gilmour, Dr Orton, of Guelph, and Thomas A. Pekins.

TORONTO, Jan. 4.—Col. C. S. Gilmour, recently appointed Deputy Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, owing to the illness of Sir Alex. Campbell, and clerk of the Ontario Assembly ever since Confederation is dead.

Thomas E. Perkins, formerly of the wholesale grocery firm of Perkins, Ince & Co., this city, died at his residence, St. George's street, Saturday morning.

GUELPH, Ont., Jan. 4.—Dr. Orton died yesterday afternoon from blood poisoning, after a few day's illness, caused from the green lining of his slippers. He was a brother to Dr. Orton, of Winnipeg.

DIVORCED FOUR TIMES.

An Indiana Woman Beats the Record and Weds Again.

GOSHEN, Ind., Jan. 4.—Mrs. Minnie Hansen, who was Wednesday granted a divorce from her husband, was married in the evening to F. L. Morehouse, of Elkhart, who makes her sixth husband. She has been divorced from four of those who went before. Mrs. Morehouses maiden name was Minnie Betts and she was born in Elkhart. She first married John Williams, of Grand Rapids, Mich., who fell from a scaffold and was killed. Next came Henry Nye, of Battle Creek, who was sent to the penitentiary for life for killing Bob McMullen. The third was Daniel Lockhart, of Elkhart, with whom she lived a year, after which she secured a divorce and married Andrew Smith, of the same place. She lived with Smith two years, when she again got a divorce and married Charles Hansen. He was served in the same way after they had lived together for awhile, and now the insatiable Minnie embarks once more on the matrimonial sea.

LOVE REWARDED AT LAST.

Despite Parents' Objections an Ohio Man Weds the Sweetheart of His Youth.

ZANESVILLE, O., Jan. 2.—At Chester Hill, in Morgan county, Will Dewees when a mere boy fell in love with his playmate, Miss Carrie Worstell. The girl was willing, but the parents objected and the young lover went West. Five years later he returned and renewed his suit. Miss Worstall was still willing, but again the parents interposed, saying Dewees was too poor. Once more the lover turned his face to the West. This time he remained away ten years. A few days ago he returned for the second time, having acquired a fortune of $25,000. Again he asked for the hand of his youthful love and still the parents refused. The lovers agreed that patience had ceased to be a virtue, and decided that the time had arrived for them to follow the dictates of their own hearts. They therefore went and were married without the formality of getting the parents' consent. Last evening the happy pair started for the Western home that the boy lover had promised his faithful sweetheart fifteen years before.

THE AIM AND EFFORT

—AT—

shall be to keep the crowd of buyers at their store. This can be accomplished in one way and that is to give the cheapest goods in London. This has been our aim and from the number of people that visit daily and buy parcels we know that we are regarded as the cheap drygoods store in London.

We commence from this date to clear out all woolen and winter goods. Let all remember that piles of the goods we will offer have been bought awfully cheap to clear. Our big lines of goods and thousands of dollars worth of our present stock have been bought at bankrupt prices. These two facts in relation to our goods should have weight with everybody, because we know no small house in London will touch our prices as goods can't be sold at half price unless they are bought at half price. We are always on the hunt for goods at half price, and strange as it may appear we can buy piles of goods at such prices, when we are prepared to clear big lots for cash, which we do. Let nobody forget that at Powell's we will clear out the following goods at desperate prices, viz.:

Ladies' Mantles, Children's Jackets, Millinery and Millinery Goods, Black Henriettas, Colored Henriettas, all lines of Colored and Black Dress Goods, Colored Pongees and Silk Pongees for 25c. $1 and $1.25. Felt Hats selling now for 25c.

Big lot of Ladies' Cashmere Hose bought from a Toronto wholesale house. Every pair will be sold at desperate prices. Big lot of Lace Curtains to be cleared out at bankrupt prices. In addition to the above we will offer piles and piles of desirable goods at half price. We ask you, if you don't want to buy yourselves, just come in and see our prices. We will save you a pile of money on what you want to buy.

POWELL'S

Known all over this Western Peninsula as the cheap Drygoods, Millinery and Mantle Store, London.
