NO. 10 EFFICIENCY WINS PRAISE FROM UNIT'S SHIPMATES

Western U. Hospital Thanked by Other M. O.'s.

GIVEN GREATEST OF CARE

Crossing to Old Country Brought Out Excellent Qualities of A.M.C. Men

Evidence of the esteem in which the work of No. 10 (Western University) Hospital is held, is contained in letters sent back to the city which describe the work of that unit among the troops who made the voyage overseas with it.

The letters state that to make this crack London corps still more efficient among the various English hospitals for the purpose of receiving instruction, Col. Seaborn has been granted the privilege of visiting any of the hospitals. The training is reported as being well under way and it is expected that the unit will take up actual hospital duties soon.

Lieut.-Col. Seaborn,
O.C., 10th Stationary (Canadian) Hospital.

Dear Sir,—Hereby I beg to thank you as P. M. O., troops, your officers and orderlies of the 10th Stationary Hospital for the unstinted services rendered in the conduct of the ship's hospital during the voyage from Halifax to Liverpool, England.

It has always been my desire during the many voyages made in the transport of Canadian troops to arrive in England without an infectious case. I have great pleasure in thanking you for the genial and painstaking professional assistance rendered during embarkation at my behest, and that our combined efforts have met with success, that the attainment of my wish has been ratified. A great deal of this success is due to yourself, Major Wilson and staff, to whom kindly convey my appreciation of their services. In conclusion accept my best wishes for your future and I trust that yourself and staff of the 10th Stationary Hospital will render such signal services with the success which your organization wholeheartedly deserves. Yours very sincerely,

(Signed) P. F. HOPE., M.A.M.D.

August 30th, 1916.

To Edwin Seaborn, Lieut.-Col.,
O.C., No. 10 Stationary Hospital.

Dear Sir,—Will you please accept our thanks for your services in the treatment of our serious cases in troops hospital, and convey to your staff and men our appreciation of their services.

Yours truly,

(Signed) D. R. DUNLOP, Capt.,
M.O. 137th Os. Battalion, C.E.F.
P. M. HILLARY, Lt.-Col.
M.O. 127th Os. Battalion, C.E.F.
R. D. MACKENZIE, Capt.,
M.O. 129th Os. Battalion, C.E.F.
O. L. BERDAN, Lt.-Col.
M.O. 135th Os. Battalion, C.E.F.
W. A. WATSON, Capt
M.O. 138th Os. Battalion, C.E.F.

The following report regarding H.M.T. Olympic, which arrived at Liverpool on 30th August, is also given:

This vessel which arrived at Liverpool on the above date had on board eight cases of illness. Of these seven were cases of general illness and one with a sloughing sore throat covered with a white patch, was removed as a case of diphtheria (?) to Mill Road (Sanitary) Hospital. Otherwise the health of the troops was reported as being free from infection.

I am pleased to report that on this occasion, for the first time during my experience as E.M.O., the cases appear to have been carefully looked after during the voyage. The medical history sheets were kept up to date, temperature charts recorded and the line of treatment noted.

In this instance, there was a P.M.O. in charge who directed affairs and handed over the sick in a businesslike manner.

I understand that this improvement was largely due to the effort of Dr. Hope, the ship's surgeon, who insisted upon the appointment of a P.M.O., and on the removal from the ship at Halifax of several cases of illness that were discovered before she sailed.

I was also informed that the dispensary was looked after by the P.M.O., who appointed dispensers from amongst the troops. This worked in relays, so that there was always one in the dispensary.

WEDDING BELLS

MULLEN—BELL.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Frank Bell, 947 Elias street, when George Fordyce Mullen of Toronto, son of the late Rev. J. B. Mullen, D. D., for many years Presbyterian minister at Fergus and later of Elora, was united in marriage to Violet Fern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bell. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. McIntosh, pastor of the King Street Presbyterian Church.

Miss Bell was assisted by Miss Clara Robinson of Brantford, while Fergus W. Hayes, now of Montreal, but formerly of this city, supported the groom.

After the ceremony the bride and groom left on the 5:10 C. P. R. train for the east and will reside in Toronto on their return from their honeymoon. The groom is a member of the headquarters staff of the Bank of Commerce in that city.

Guests were present at the ceremony from Dunnville, Brantford, Hamilton, Toronto, Fergus and Elora.

DEVER—FLYNN.

St. Patrick's Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday morning, when Rev. P. N. Doyle united at a high mass Martin Kane Dever and Miss Jean C. Flynn. The bridal pair were assisted by the brother and sister of the bride, Walter Flynn and Miss Mabel Flynn. Miss Helen Leech, who during the past year has been finishing her musical education in New York, presided at the organ, assisted in the singing by Mrs. Frank Forristal, Mrs. Joseph Leech and Joseph Leech. The latter rendered Gounod's "Ave Maria" at the offertory.

After a merry wedding feast surrounded by their friends, the bridal party departed on the evening C. P. R. train.

After the honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Dever will live in Kempville, where Mr. Dever is ticket agent for the C. P. R.

Truanted from Mount Elgin Institute, Muncey, three Indian boys, ages ranging from 9 to 14 years. Anyone phoneing the principal or otherwise giving information leading to their return will receive a reward of five dollars for each boy. 85c

FEAR OF SPREAD OF PLAGUE ELIMINATED

Westminster Case Isolated and No Danger of Epidemic.

The case of infantile paralysis which developed in Westminster Township on Saturday last is now thoroughly isolated and the family quarantined. The child is improving as well as could be expected and, with the precautions adopted from the outset, it is not anticipated there will be any spread of the disease in the township.

No new cases have been reported in the city, and Dr. H. W. Hill stated today that he has not even been called upon to diagnose any suspected cases in some weeks.

Of the seven cases reported and isolated in the city during the year but two developed here.

The other five were contracted at outside points, the disease developing after the patient came to London. Two were fatal, and the others have all recovered, the quarantine at the homes being lifted in each case.

EYEWITNESS' STORY

cleared their portion of the trenches, but they were not strong enough to maintain themselves.

A similar fate befell the Winnipeg battalion on their left, which reached the first line of German defence, but was too weakened to withstand the counter-attack. Next to them a Canadian regiment penetrated the German lines on a three company frontage and for four hours resisted all counter-attacks. Finally they were driven back, but not until the trench was full of German dead and wounded.

Held By Entanglements.

An Alberta battalion, on their left, was less fortunate. They were held by the wire entanglements while the machine guns of the enemy poured a withering hail of bullets into them. Still the survivors, with undaunted courage, pressed on. They finally broke through the entanglements, entered the German trench and took their toll from the enemy.

From that ground of conflict and death few returned. The gallant soldiers had fought and died, but dying they had exchanged their lives for those of the German foe.

Considered as a demonstration of the dash and courage of our infantry as a great incident in the military history of Canada, it will have an inspiring significance. We are back in the positions from which we started. From that fact the enemy may derive what satisfaction he can, but our men have reaffirmed their personal ascendency in battle, and they feel no sense of defeat. On the contrary, the living are more confident of victory, and the dead have not died in vain. They have but dedicated their lives to the assurance of that victory.

MRS. JOS. TRELEAVEN DEAD.

PALMERSTON, Oct. 11.—Sarah A. Hallet, wife of Joseph Treleaven, and mother of Alderman Reuben Treleaven of Palmerston, died last night, aged 62 years. Interment will be made at Owen Sound Thursday, October 12.

ANOTHER CHANCE FOR TRANSPORT DRIVERS

Army Service Corps Requires 500 at Once of All Classes.

Once more the Army Service Corps has sent out an urgent appeal for men. At least 500 men are required at once, as transport drivers, both mechanical, mule and horse. These men will be sent overseas practically at once. In addition saddlers, farriers and bakers are wanted.

The call sent out some weeks ago was productive of only about seven applicants, not all of whom were accepted. Men of the A. S. C., more especially the transport drivers, are serving in all parts of the Empire, and it is urged that in addition to doing one's duty to his country, a man enlisting in this corps has the opportunity of seeing the world.

Recruits are being accepted at the headquarters of the A. S. C. at Carling Heights.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

DEATH OF YOUNG BOY.

John Reuben Mills, youngest son of Thomas Mills, 68 Adelaide street, Chelsea Green, died in Victoria Hospital on Tuesday afternoon. He had been ill for only a few days, and was 7 years old.

The funeral was held from the hospital on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. W. Hendrie, and interment was made at Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

In addition to his parents he is survived by a brother, Thomas, and a sister, Beatrice, both at home.

The services were held at the house, and were conducted by Rev. Dr. H. S. Dougall, Rev. H. D. Moyer, and Rev. A. C. Tiffin. Interment was made at Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

FUNERAL OF C. E. TANNEY.

The funeral of Charles E. Tanney, who died Saturday in Charlottetown, P. E. I., was held this afternoon here from the family residence, 371 Maitland street. The services were conducted by Rev. M. Howson and Rev. Mr. Rogers. Interment was made at Woodland Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. George Perry, Joseph Moyer, Ed. Howard, Wesley Moyer, Ernest Sherlock and Fred Soper.

FUNERAL OF MISS GRAHAM.

Relatives and a few immediate friends of the family attended the funeral which took place on Wednesday afternoon of Miss Mae E. Graham from the residence of her mother, Mrs. M. J. Graham, 69 Maple street, to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The service was conducted at the house at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. H. H. Bingham of Talbot Street Baptist Church.

The sudden death in Detroit on Monday of Miss Graham, after a short illness with pleural-pneumonia, came as a shock to a large circle of London friends with whom she was a great favorite. As a child, she attended Talbot Street School and was also a member of the First Methodist Sunday School. Possessed of much ability, for some time previous to her illness, she held an important position in Detroit as private secretary of a large automobile company. Sick for only a few days, the end came with startling suddenness for her relatives, to whom much sympathy has been expressed in their bereavement.

FUNERAL THIS MORNING.

William Howard, who died in Victoria Hospital on Tuesday, was buried this morning at St. Peter's Cemetery. The funeral was held from his father's residence, 527 Hill street, to St. Mary's Church, where requiem high mass was sung by Rev. Father Corcoran.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Warwick, Quinn, Durten, Morkin, Sutherland and Pritchard.

COMMISSION EXPRESSES THANKS TO COL. SMITH

Grateful for Use of "Belvidere" as Military Hospital.

With reference to the closing of the Belvidere Military Convalescent Home by the military hospital commission, Col. A. M. Smith, owner of Belvidere, has received a letter, dated Ottawa, September 28, from the secretary of the commission, as follows:

Dear Sir,—In accordance with our recent conversation with you, arrangements have now been made by the commission to vacate your residence, Belvidere, on the 1st proximo. We are removing the patients now there to the Central Military Convalescent Hospital established at Victoria General Hospital.

At the last meeting of the commission, I was directed to write you and express the thanks and warm appreciation of the members of the commission for your action in placing your residence at the disposal of the Government for the purpose of a convalescent home. When this action was taken by you, it met a very difficult situation. Only now that the requirements of the first military district are increased beyond the capacity of Belvidere has it been necessary to make other and more extensive arrangements. Again thanking you, yours faithfully,

E. D. SCANNELL,
Secretary Military Hospital Commission, Ottawa.

Replying, Col. Smith has written as follows to Mr. Scannell:

Dear Sir,—Your letter of the 28th was forwarded to me in Montreal. I wish to offer my thanks for the kind words of appreciation from the members of the commission. I am only sorry you are not able to make use of my house for a longer period. As you are aware, I would have been pleased to have left the place in your hands as long as it could have been used for the purpose. Yours faithfully,

A. M. SMITH.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Praise for the 70th Band.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I received a bunch of papers the other day from a very dear friend of mine who lives in London, and must say that I appreciate the London Advertiser; also get a lot of news out of the papers which I receive. In one of your papers, dated August 30th, I saw our gallant commander's picture, Lieut.-Col. R. I. Towers, who is now in command of a casualty battalion at West Sandling, with two of our old officers with him, including Capt. McKenzie, our late quartermaster, also Lieut. McDonald, who used to be an officer in "A" Company of the 70th but since the colonel has had command of the casualty battalion he has been the adjutant for him, which position he fills as good as any officer could fill it.

I must say that our late colonel and Capt. McKenzie left for a trip of seven or eight days to France last Wednesday morning, and while there they will visit as many of the 70th original officers as possible, also men, and I must say that mostly all of the 70th officers and men who are at the front have shown themselves to be some of the proudest and bravest of Canada's sons, and although there has been very few casualties amongst our officers and men they are doing very well, and in the best of health, and Major Butler, who is with the 24th at the front, also Major Fairbank, who is with the 18th at the front, are both doing well and in the best of health.

When the 70th Baitalion arrived in England our first camp was at Imsted Farm, Chorlton, where we were for nine or ten days; then we were moved to Lower Oibgate, where we remained, combined with the 37th Battalion until broken up and sent to the 39th Battalion at West Sandling, where most of the 70th men men were sent to the front in drafts and must say that a lot of 70th men are with the 18th, which was stationed and raised in your fair city of London; also some in the 58th and 5th C. M. R.; but we who are left in England to proceed over later, also those who are not at the front regret very much over being broken up as we all wanted and wished to go to the front as a unit under our colonel, whom we all thought the world of and would follow him anywhere; but hardly, and I may say not any battalions which come from Canada now go to the front as units as they are all broken up and sent over in drafts to respective battalions at the front and Canada ought to be proud of her sons, which I know she is, who are fighting, dying and also being wounded for their King and country and there are no better soldiers at the front today than our brave Canadian lads who are claimed, not only by Britain and her allies but by our enemy, Germany, to be the best fighters on the European battlefield today.

I also saw in your paper of August 32, a picture of our Bandmaster Nipper, also a piece regarding our band which was so highly thought of and praised by citizens of your city and must say that Bandmaster Nipper, since the 70th came across has received praise and congratulations of having one of the best bands that has ever come across and when they played open air concerts at Folkestone on the Lees, why, they were most highly praised by the people but the band is larger now than it ever was. Now, sir, I must close. But although I have not been to the front yet, but expect to before long, I could tell you lots of war news but I dare not for fear I get in wrong, so must close hoping this letter reaches you and thanking you for the two splendid poems of praise in your papers regarding our bandmaster and band; also our colonel, who is highly thought of in England. Wishing your paper more and more success, I remain failure to do so would result in his taking the necessary steps himself.

THE DEMANDS.

London, Oct. 11.—11:40 p.m.—Vice-Admiral Dartige du Fournet, commander of the Anglo-French fleet in the Mediterranean, has presented an ultimatum to Greece, demanding that Greece hand over the entire Greek fleet, except the armored cruiser Averoff and the battleships Lemnos and Kilkis, to the Entente Allies by 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, according to Reuter's Athens correspondent. Demand is also made for the control of the Piraeus-Larissa Railway.

"The minister of marine," the correspondent continues, "says Vice-Admiral Fournot's demands will be complied with and that the fleet will be handed over before the prescribed time.

"The demands were made as a precautionary measure to insure the safety of the Allies' fleet."

Will Remove a Peril.

It is explained that the dispatch of artillery and ammunition to the interior, the movements of Greek ships, and the continued activity of the reservist leagues, have aroused fears of a disturbance of order at points where the Allies' war vessels are anchored, and also endanger the security of the Allied troops on the Balkan front.

Vice-Admiral Du Fournet demands the disarming of the Kilkis, Lemnos and Averoff, and the dismantling of forts on the seacoast, while the two forts commanding the fleet's moorings are to be made over to the admiral. Control of certain points must also be placed in the hands of the Anglo-French authorities.

In addition to the disarming of the warships named, their crews are to be reduced to one-third the regular complement.

Five Battleships.

The Greek navy consists of five battleships—the Kilkis, Lemnos, Psara, Spetsai and Hydra; one armored cruiser, the Averoff; the coast defence ship Basileus Georgios; the cruisers Helli and Nauarchos Miaulis; ten gunboats; seventeen torpedoboat destroyers; nine torpedoboats; three submarines, and several transports and other craft. The Greek naval force has been estimated at 4,000 officers and men.

Recently there has been reports that Greek warships had deserted the navy and joined the revolutionary forces. Among these were the battleship Hydra and two torpedoboats, which, it was declared, left their anchorages and joined the Allied fleet in Salamis Bay. The Kilkis was also reported to have deserted, but this has been denied.

The best ships in the Greek navy are the Kilkis and Lemnos, which respectively are the former United States battleships Idaho and Mississippi. These vessels were sold to Greece in 1914, Greece paying $12,535,275 for them. The Helli also is an American-built ship, having been constructed by the New York Shipbuilding Company as the Fei Hung for China, and purchased by Greece in 1914. Some smaller craft were captured from Turkey in 1897.

At the outbreak of the war Greece had two dreadnoughts under construction, one in France and the other in Germany, and a protected cruiser building in England.

It is probable that the dispatch of Reuter's correspondent was delayed in transmission from Athens to London.
