The Storm at Brantford Does $12,000 Damage.

Twelve-Year-Old Horse Thief in Stratford—Mr. Porter's Health Worse—Breezy Budget of News.

BRANT.

A careful estimate of the damage done in Brantford by Tuesday's wind storm shows that it will amount to $12,000.

By the bursting of a water main on Brant avenue, Brantford, the street car service on that street was suspended for several hours Friday.

It will be with regret that the people of Brantford and Bruce county learn of the death of Wm. Moore, of Langford, Thursday last, at the ripe old age of 71 years. Deceased was a native of Hampshire, Eng., and came to Brantferd about 50 years ago.

Isaac Hutchinson, an old employe of the Massey-Harris works, Brantford, is dead.

BRUCE.

John Fletcher, aged 17, was asphyxiated at the Grand Pacific Hotel, Winnipeg, Thursday night, having fallen asleep with the gas in his room turned on. He was a native of Holyrood, Bruce county, Ont.

D. Porter, M.P.P., has returned from his trip to California, where he spent the winter months with his family, with the hope that it would improve his health. The change did not have the desired effect. His health is rather worse than before.

The receipts for the registry office in Essex county last year amounted to $5,072; disbursements, $2,403.

ELGIN.

A general meeting of the East Elgin Reform Association will be held in the Town Hall, Aylmer, on Monday afternoon, the 5th of June.

The exhibition train of the New York Central Railway Saturday passed through St. Thomas and was witnessed by large crowds.

KENT.

The usually placid surface of Wallaceburg society has been somewhat ruffled of late, though efforts are being made to calm it again. It was gravely charged against a number of young married couples that they attempted to establish an "upper tendom" or local aristocracy; but as some sensible people declined, it is said, the invitation to step within the select circle around which the social wall was to be built, the plan was exposed. There was so much derisive talk about it that a public denial of the whole affair was made by one of the parties accused.

LAMBTON.

The Wm. Kenny bankrupt stock of groceries was put up at auction at Sarnia. The highest bid was 42 cents on the dollar from M. A. Sanders. The assignee would not accept it.

Forepaugh's circus appears at Port Huron June 28.

Fish are very plentiful in the upper waters of Lake Huron this season, and the fishermen are making great catches. The tugs engaged in the business are averaging from 1,500 to 2,500 pounds of fish to a lift.

The barge Iron Cliff, bound down in tow of the steamer Iron Chief struck the barge M. A. Goffe and sunk her below Stag Island, on Wednesday. The accident was caused by the captain of the Iron Cliffe mistaking the lights on the Goffe for those of his tow barge. The Goffe lies decks to at anchor with her bows all broken in. She was loaded with cedar ties for the Cleveland Cedar Company of Cleveland, and is owned by Captain Thomas Fish, of Port Huron.

PERTH.

Alex. F. Maclaren, the cheese manufacturer, was given a grand send-off at Stratford Friday.

The contract for erecting a new edifice on the Mitchell road, Blanshard, in place of the old Methodist Church, the roof and walls of which were partially destroyed, has been awarded to Benjamin Roadhouse, of St. Marys, for $2,200.

The automatic telephone system is being placed in St. Marys in opposition to the Bell.

Stratford has been visited by a 12-year-old horse thief whose name is unknown. The young stranger hitched up a valuable mare to a buggy at Jim King's stable Friday night, drove off and was not seen again. Outside police have been notified.

James Oliver, an old resident of St. Marys, while on his way to town on a load of wood, stepped on the hub of the wheel to get off; it turned and he fell off into the ditch by the roadside, fracturing the bone at the thigh joint. Owing to the peculiar nature of the fracture it was not possible to set it.

Peter Oliver, an old Listowel bachelor who lives alone, was robbed of 10 cents and a silver watch the other night.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CONGRESS.

Sharp Attack on the Anglican Church by a Delegate.

Dr. Briggs' Trial To Be Resumed To-Day (Monday)—Resolutions Adopted Urging the Repeal of the Geary Law.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—A breathing spell has been given the members of the Presbyterian General Assembly and for a time they will be able to rest from the consideration of the case of Dr. Briggs, which goes over till Monday. The morning session was devoted to routine business, but there was one little breeze that came very near developing into a well-developed storm. It was in the form of an attack upon a sister denomination by the commissioner to the assembly. It followed directly upon the reading of the report of church unity. Pleasant references had been made to other churches which had shown their desire to co-operate with the Presbyterian Church on the basis of a common faith and order. The report touched particularly upon the attitude taken by the Protestant Episcopal Church, which had evidenced a decided willingness to meet the Presbyterian Church on the basis of a common faith and order.

Then the trouble came. Dr. N. Hollifield, of Newark, N. J., stepped to the platform, and with a paper in his hand fired a stinging shot at the Episcopal Church. He spoke of her as the "maiden in the proposed union on account of her smaller size and love of dress." The "road to Rome," "burning candles, genuflexions and confessions" were a few of the epithets he hurled at the Episcopal Church. Dr. Booth, of New York, protested against "such an undeserved and uncalled for attack," and was warmly applauded.

The reports of the committees on church unity and church co-operation recited the progress made in its conference with the episcopal commission, stating that while organic unity could not now be expected, there was a basis of co-operation upon which they could work.

The postponement of the trial of Prof. Briggs until Monday is said to be largely due to an inability of the parties to decide upon the amount of time they will ask in which to present their case.

The report of the committee on the Chinese Exclusion and Registration Act—or the Geary Law as it is known—condemns the act as "a reproach to our Christian civilization. * * * And should be repealed or so amended as to make its provisions consistent with just and honorable dealings with the Chinese Government."

ROBBED PARIS VISITORS.

A French Couple Who Made It a Life Business to Steal from Hotel Guests.

PARIS, May 27.—A man named Parizot and his mistress, Mlle. Dedieu, a good looking young person, will shortly appear before the Police Correctional Tribunal in Paris, charged with committing over twenty robberies from hotels. So numerous were hotel robberies becoming that the police imagined that they were being perpetrated by a well-organized gang, but it has now been clearly established that the two prisoners acted alone. Although Parizot belongs to a good family and is well educated, he has been sentenced for swindling on several occasions. His father, a retired merchant, to avoid the scandals caused by his son's behavior, disappeared one day and has never since been heard of. As his fortune had disappeared at the same time it was thought that Parizot had something to do with the matter, but no proofs could be discovered and the affair dropped.

After that, for three years, nothing was heard of Parizot. It was during this period that he and his mistress were robbing the hotels. The pair lived in an elegantly furnished apartment in the Rue Gracieuse, which they never quitted during the day. To the astonishment of the doorkeeper, however, they never slept in it at night. Parizot always carried a large black bag, and his method simply was to take a room for a night in a good hotel, fill the bag with everything valuable and leave early in the morning. When he and his mistress were arrested their apartment was found to be so full of stolen goods that it took the police weeks to catalogue them. The instructing magistrate was obliged to utilize Parizot's services for the distribution of the property to its rightful owners. Frequently two persons claimed the same article, and then the matter had to be referred to the thief.

"Praise be to him whose wondrous skill

Of Dr. Pierce, the "world-renowned,"
