McLAUGHLIN AND GARRISON, THE CRACK JOCKEYS, GO TO EARTH.

A Big Attendance and a Good Day's Sport With the Brooklyn Jockey Club—Games of Baseball Yesterday—General Spots of Sport.

GRAVESEND, L.I., June 16.—The attendance at the Brooklyn Jockey Club races to-day was large. What was expected to have been the star event of the meeting failed to come up to expectations. The St. James Hotel Stakes, in which Hanover and The Bard were confidently expected to meet and settle their respective claims to superiority, was somewhat mild owing to the absence of the Dwyer's crack. Nevertheless it was a good card and produced some excellent contests.

Mr. J. B. Haggin's colors finished in front for The Oaks Stakes for 3-year-old fillies with Ferona, and Mr. Cassatt scored another victory with The Bard in the St. James' Hotel Stakes at 1½ miles, a quarter which was very popular. The weather was fine, the track fast and the racing good.

But the enjoyment of the day was marred by an accident to the two crack jockeys, Garrison and McLaughlin. In the fifth race the former rode Billy Brown and the latter Tampa. After going but little more than a furlong Tampa fell and Billy Brown stumbled over him. Both jockeys were badly stunned, but fortunately neither was seriously injured. The accident, it is said, was caused by Church on Subaltern, who made the running keeping his horse in, so that McLaughlin had to pull his horse almost upon his haunches.

Dust from the Diamond.

"It is pleasant to note the fact that Syracuse audiences applauded the good plays made by a visiting clubs. The city and Newark are the only two places in the international circuit where such courtesy is accorded."—Newark Journal. When the "Little Giants" were here it was remarked that the spectators seemed to be entirely Newark partisans. At least those who agreed their money on the visitors applauded their favorites more liberally than the backers of the home team. Toronto, however, always appreciates a good play, and The World's statement will be verified by every visiting club.

Toronto plays four games abroad next week, two at Syracuse and two at Scranton.

The "coal heavers" meet the Torontos for the first time this season on the home grounds this afternoon. Should Toronto win their games with Scranton and Binghamton their percentage will place them well up with the leaders in the pennant race.

Anna of the Newarks, according to Manager Simmons, is the fastest runner in the league. Where does Gilman come in, Mr. Simmons?

The Newark Journal has taken The Hamilton Spectator to task for its reference to Walker's "foul" catching ability, and the probabilities are the breach between these cities, which last week appeared to have been healed, will widen. Brother Gideon is not likely to submit to The Journal's unstinted and uncalled for abuse without striking back. Then the fun will begin.

The Wanderers' and Torontos' Bicycle clubs will play a match on Monday evening at 5 o'clock, on ground six yards selected. The Wanderers' team will be: Alf. Dixon, Charles Brown, Bert Rowland, W. McGee, G. H. Orr, W. Harstone, F. Foster, H. Billings and G. E. Brown. The Torontos will be: C. E. Maddison, S. Sykes, G. Smith, A. S. Webster, P. Monteith, F. Burton, J. West, C. Lindsay, A. T. Blachford. C. Riggs of the Wanderers will umpire.

The first three goals were won by the Dufferins in 3, 9 and 10 minutes respectively. The Beavers secured the fourth in 1 hour and 10 minutes. The fifth was taken in 3 minutes by the home team.

The Ontario-Niagara Lacrosse Match.

Editor World: Will you kindly give space to the first letter the Ontarios have ever written to your paper with regard to the deciding of a match. They can usually play their games on the field and stand a defeat, which, by the way, they are pretty well used to by this time. Yet when such an untruthful report is sent your paper from a rural town as being the result of Saturday's match, I must as captain have a few words in the matter.

The game between Niagara Falls and Ontarios was advertised to start at 2 o'clock. One of the Niagaras did not arrive till 2.45, our team being on the field sharp on time. When the teams were drawn up in line, in hearing of them all I said to the referee, a Niagara man, but a gentleman, "we must stop at 4.30 to catch our train." He said "All right," and we compared watches, so that we had the same time. The Niagara team and their captain said nothing but looked on, which I naturally took for consent in the arrangement. Had they not made this arrangement and insisted at the start like gentlemen that the match must be played 2½ hours, full time, we could have claimed from 2 o'clock, but they started without saying a word. Between each game, to prolong the time, one of the players left the grounds for some purpose. I asked the referee to start but he would not till the player would return. At 4.30 the game stood 2 games each with our team playing better than they had all day. At no stage of the game did they outplay us, as your correspondent stated in his very wild report.

We had to leave the field to catch the train, some of the players not fully dressed. Before leaving the grounds the referee gave his decision as a draw, 2 games each. The Niagaras after we left put the other 2 games in, hence they claimed 4—2. They taunted us with the remark, "You are afraid to stay over and finish the game," when the trip had already cost us $50 and we got as our share of the gate the magnificent sum of $3.10. No Committee of Management would give them the game after hearing the above facts.

Apologizing to the gentlemanly Niagaras for sending over a weak team to fill our engagement, five of our defence players being unable to get away because of press of business.

JAS. D. BAILEY, Capt. Ontarios.

The Jubilee Yacht Race.

LONDON, June 16.—The relative positions of the yachts in the jubilee race are still uncertain, as the haze prevents them from being seen. Mr. Popham writes to the papers protesting against the gross negligence of which the captain of the steam yacht Pandora was guilty, in running into the American yacht Dauntless. He says the collision took place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and that the Dauntless had her mizzen gaff carried away and sails split, and only escaped being cut into amidships by the Pandora through the smartness of the Dauntless' skipper.

Yachting Breezes.

The Toronto Yacht Club is going to celebrate the jubilee in first-class style by a regatta and hop at Niagara on Saturday, July 2. The celebration will really extend over two days, July 1 and 2. They have extended invitations to all the clubs of the Lake Yacht Racing Association to take part, and already the Royal Canadian and the Rochester club have accepted. The yachts will assemble at Niagara on June 30 and July 1. The race on July 2 will be twice over a fifteen-mile triangular course opposite Niagara. The winner will receive a beautiful $75 silk flag to be known as the "Toronto Yacht Club Jubilee Championship Flag," and a silver cup, the gift of Commodore McIaw. The second prize will be donated by the citizens of Niagara. In the evening the club will hold a grand hop at the Queen's Royal Hotel.

Mr. Geo. Gooderham has finally decided that the Oriole will not make the proposed cruise to Lake Superior this summer. She will remain here and take part in the Lake Association's races. Yachtsmen and lovers of yachting hereabouts will be pleased to hear this.

There will be a race for fourth class yachts under the auspices of the Toronto Yacht Club to-morrow, starting at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Andrew Rutherford has purchased the Whistlewing from Mr. Lonillie Jarvis of Hamilton. The Whistlewing will be here to-morrow.

The Rivet, Mr. Hume Blake in command, starts to-day on a two weeks' cruise.

The Verve, Cyprus and perhaps the Oriole will go to Niagara to-morrow.

Spots of Sports.

The first spring meeting of the Toronto Athletic Club will take place at the Rosedale Grounds to-morrow. Among notable athletes who have entered are Geo. Gibbs, the Guelph flyer, and Mr. Strickland of Lakefield. The handicappers have finished their work, which is such that the events cannot fail to prove close and exciting.

The tickets for the Wanderers' Bicycle Club's entertainment in Mutual-street Rink to-night are selling rapidly and the boys will surely be greeted by the big attendance they deserve. The Citizens' Band will play some fine selections, the club will parade and there will be pedestal club swinging by eight Wanderers, a 20 yards slow race, fancy riding and gymnastics on the horizontal bar and trapeze.

"THE FLYING DUTCHMAN."

A Grand Presentation—"Lakme" To-night and Two Performances To-morrow.

A season of grand opera, the first in Toronto for some years, was opened at the Toronto Opera House last night by the National Opera Company in Wagner's romantic opera "The Flying Dutchman." The audience was large and fashionable, and from the frequent bursts of applause it was evident that their highest anticipations were gratified. All the elements necessary to a most perfect performance were brought together in the production of this opera. The chorus was composed of excellent and well-trained voices, whose singing throughout was admirable. The opera was accompanied by Theodore Thomas' orchestra. Wagner, as in all his operas, has given great scope for descriptiveness and weird effects in the orchestration of "The Flying Dutchman." In the first act the hissing of the wind, the lashing of the waves, the roar of the thunder so ably portrayed by the orchestra, and the shifting clouds and flashing of the lightning in the scene behind, combined to depict the fearfulness and grandeur of the occasion.

Miss Emma Juch, who is perhaps the only one of the cast who has appeared in Toronto before, sang with that purity and sweetness of tone which has popularized her here. As an opera singer she has added further laurels to her high reputation as an eminent artiste. William Ludwig filled the role of the Dutchman satisfactorily in every particular. His beautiful baritone voice has great resonance and volume. Mr. M. W. Whitney, basso, as Dalana, was a complete success, his deep voice being admirably used. Charles Bassett sang the music allotted to Erik, with much satisfaction. In his last solo, "Hast Thou Forgot This Day," he displayed his sympathetic tenor voice in a most pleasing manner and gave evidence of careful training. The other parts were well taken. The scenery throughout was elaborate and was as fully put on as the necessarily limited stage admitted. The electrical effects were excellent.

The opera of "Lakme" will be given to-night. Arrangements have been made for the production of Flotow's "Martha" at a matinee to-morrow, and for to-morrow night a grand ballet together with the second act of Gounod's "Faust" is announced. Manager Shaw is deserving of praise for his enterprise in securing such a grand bill and it is to be hoped that his efforts will be fully appreciated by the public.

The Troubled Trades.

A regular meeting of the Master Carpenters' Association was held last night in their rooms in Victoria-street. A letter was read from J. P. Wager, tendering his resignation as a member of the association, stating that he intended retiring from business in a few months, and therefore he could not stand a tedious strike without sacrificing too much. He hoped this explanation would be satisfactory to the association and that his action would not interfere with theirs.

A discussion took place on the present strike, the opinion of those present being that in consequence of the unsettled condition of the trade, they would not be able to employ on existing work any considerable number more than they now had.

It was resolved that the communication sent to the Carpenters' Society on Feb. 21 last fully covers the position of the organization on the relationship between the two societies. viz.:

That in the opinion of the meeting there was nothing in the position of the trade to warrant an increase of wages, or a departure in any respect from the agreement of last year. That, taking into consideration the change to nine hours and the advance of wages in July last, it is not desirable to make any change this season.

The carpenters and plasterers held meetings yesterday morning, but no change of importance was reported in the strikes. The plasterers held their meeting last night in Dufferin Hall for the transaction of general business.

BILIOUSNESS.

Bilious symptoms invariably arise from indigestion, such as furred tongue, vomiting of bile, giddiness, sick headache, irregular bowels. The liver secretes the bile and acts like a filter or sieve, to cleanse impurities of the blood. By irregularity in its action or suspension of its functions, the bile is liable to overflow into the blood, causing jaundice, sallow complexion, yellow eyes, bilious diarrhœa, a languid, weary feeling, and many other distressing symptoms. Biliousness may be properly termed an affection of the liver, and can be thoroughly cured by the grand regulator of the liver, and biliary organs, Burdock Blood Bitter. Act upon the stomach, bowels and liver, making healthy bile and pure blood, and opens the culverts and sluiceways for the outlet of disease. Sold everywhere and guaranteed to cure.
