Maid Marion Won the Feature Race.

LATONIA, June 14.—The peerless Yo Tambien made her first appearance for the season in the Merchants' Stakes yesterday. She finished second to Maid Marion, her stable companion, and she was pulled hard to let the latter win by a length. Maid Marion covered the mile and a furlong, the distance of the race, in 1.53, the fastest time ever made over this track. The first mile was run in 1.40¾, and the fact that Yo Tambien was fighting for her head at the finish of such a race shows that she is as good as ever. She is being especially reserved for the Columbian Handicap at Chicago.

The Suburban at Lamplighter's Mercy.

NEW YORK, June 14.—In a trial at Sheepshead Bay on Tuesday Marcus Daly's great colt Tammany, the Suburban favorite, split his fore hoof and pulled up lame. Thus all hope of seeing him oppose Lamplighter next Tuesday must be abandoned.

Henry McCalmont, the owner of Isinglass, winner of the Derby, lives at Cheveley, once the seat of the Duke of Rutland, not a great way from Newmarket. Mr. McCalmont has just entered his 33rd year. At Eton he was a successful athlete, playing on the football team and rowing on the eight. He inherited a fortune of $20,000,000 from his great uncle somewhat unexpectedly, into the full possession of which, however, he did not come until his last birthday.

CANADA V. CHICAGO.

The Big Association Football Match in the Windy City on Saturday.

A representative Canadian Association football team will leave for Chicago to-morrow, where they play at the World's Fair on Saturday. It is expected to be the biggest event which has ever taken place in Association football in the Windy City. The eleven will play a match with a selected team of Chicago footballers.

The Canadians' forward line will be composed of Duncan, Buckingham, Thomson and Senkler of Toronto University, and Cresswell of Preston. The defence is a stone wall and the Chicago forwards will require to play a purely combination game in order to break through.

The Chicago team is strong from goal to forwards and should be able to make matters highly interesting for the visitors. The match will be played on the Indiana-avenue grounds, corner Thirty-seventh-street. Canadians, visiting and resident in Chicago, are expected to be present in large numbers to encourage their countrymen.

The second game of baseball between Commerce and Dominion bank nines was played yesterday, and resulted in an easy victory for the Commerce men. Each team has now won a game, and the final contest will take place next week. The features of yesterday's game were Jackson's home run, several brilliant catches by Noble in left field, and Paterson's steady work in the box. Kingston is Surprised.

[From The Kingston News.]

Whatever earth has struck the Queen City lacrossists (the T.L.C.) this season? Like Rip Van Winkle they have awakened from their slumber. Last year they couldn't win a single game—couldn't even "do" a country town—except when they tackled the St. Regis Indians (and some people were unkind enough to say that that game was "fixed"). This year they opened the season by doing Cornwall, and on Saturday they got the better of the Montreal Crescents. Verily, there must be rejoicing in Toronto town (over the success of imported players).

SEEMS BENT ON MURDER.

An Ex-Convict Serves Five Years for Shooting a Man and Returns to Shoot the Wife.

HAMPTON, N.B., June 14.—Michael Gallagher, a laborer, was released from Dorchester Penitentiary about three months ago, having completed a five years' sentence for an attempt to kill Robert Fowler of Smithtown. Michael is now in jail again at Hampton awaiting trial on a similar charge. The only difference is that this second attempt at killing was not made against Fowler, but against his wife, Charlotte.

Mrs. Fowler is reported to have been the cause of the previous trouble. Fowler was shot in the head near one of his eyes. The assassin, instead of running away, did some chores about the premises, summoned a doctor to attend his victim and then gave himself up. Fortunately, Fowler's injuries were not serious, so he only got five years' imprisonment.

Since his release, three months ago, Gallagher has been living about Hampton. On Saturday he went to Fowler's house and first ordered Mrs. Fowler to give him a drink of water and then a drink of milk. The woman finally became frightened at his actions, and picking up her child started to leave the room. She had only taken a step or two, it is said, when Gallagher drew a revolver and fired. The bullet struck Mrs. Fowler in the neck, inflicting an ugly wound.

Officers went out from Hampton and found Gallagher sitting by the roadside not far from the Fowler residence. It was surmised he was waiting for Mr. Fowler to put in an appearance to have a shot at him also.

A BRAKEMAN'S INJURIES.

He Fell Off His Train While Rounding A Curve.

George Walker of West Toronto Junction, a brakeman on the C.P.R., fell off his train as it was rounding a curve near Orangeville and sustained a fracture of both ankles and injuries to his back. He was taken in the ambulance to the General Hospital, where his injuries were attended to.

It Is Surprising What Fine Hair Goods Styles Will Do.

A lady's refined expression of the face is produced by the fine lines of a well-becoming Bang. The fineness or coarseness of that style if wound on the front of head will give effect to the face, whatever is desired. Ladies' own hair in most all cases is not adapted to accomplish this. Dorenwend, 103 and 105 Yonge-street, sells and manufactures such artistic styles that ladies can pin on with the greatest ease on their own hair, a most charming effect, at his Great Clearing Sale that is now going on. Ladies can buy Bangs, Switches and other styles so cheap that the sale should be taken advantage of by all. He sells Bangs from 75 cents up, Switches from $1 up. Go and see them and be convinced.

Cheaper Rates.

Half fare is always such a popular rate with the masses that quinn makes the startling announcement that on Saturday, the 17th inst., he will sell any bow, tie or puff scarf in his mammoth collection for twenty-five cents. Remember that this opportunity of buying at half price only lasts for one day and not more than six ties will be sold to any one person.

Special thanks are due to Messrs. A. & S. Nordheimer for the use of piano which they kindly lent for the occasion.

VACANT HOUSES OF THE CITY

CAN TORONTO BE PROSPEROUS AND HAVE MILES OF VACANT STORES?

Is Business Dull, Or Does It Mean Concentration of Trade—Rapid Transit Enterprise and Wonderful Improvement Going on In the City.

A superficial observer passing through the streets of Toronto and seeing the great number of vacant stores might be inclined to attribute it to a general business depression in our city. Why, even some of our knowing ones at times seem to be of the same mind. I heard one of this class say the other day, "I counted 90 vacant stores coming down Yonge-street yesterday, and times must be dull." Now this man's eyesight was all right, but his judgment was faulty. To understand why Toronto may be prosperous and yet have you must remember the wonderfully rapid increase in the population of Toronto, that forced the people to live outside the centre of the city, and as the means of intercommunication were the primitive horse cars, 'twas a necessity that a number of small stores should spring up on all sides, expecting to make a living out of the local trade. But with our better roads, more rapid transit, and the wonderful enterprise of the central retailer, the small stores have had to go, as it is simply impossible for a man doing a business of $5000 or $15,000 to compete with those doing one of $300,000 or $500,000. One must not say then that Toronto is not prosperous because the business that was spread over two hundred stores is now done in one. Before the

opened up the country, business was spread over numberless little towns and villages, where now the grass grows in the principal streets. But surely business, because concentrated in the cities, is no less a reality. So it is with Toronto. If the towns and villages had to become farms again, the small stores of Toronto may have to return to

Private Houses,

but the business is done here. Why, there is the firm of Guinane Bros., 214 Yonge-street, that can't find room enough to hold one-third of their stock, owing to the unavoidable delay in the intended alterations and re-building of their premises, and are, as a consequence, forced, regardless of loss, to clear out $100,000 worth of boots and shoes at most ridiculous prices. For instance, men's tan shoes and lace boots that they were selling for $2.75 are offered for $1.25; ladies' $3 Russia calf Bluchers, $1.50; ladies' $2 white kid strap walking shoes, 85c.; men's $3 Cordovan, whole foxed, sewed lace boots, $1.50; men's Cordovan walking shoes, actually marked down to 85c. No, business is not dull in Toronto, it is lively, but with the improvement going on in the city, the wonderful concentration of trade into the centre of the city, and the quickness of the people to discover where they can get best value for their money, it is to say the least, inside of 10 years the only shoe house in Toronto will be Guinane Bros., 214 Yonge-street.
