MASONIC ENGAGEMENTS.

March, 1891.

Meetings will be held at Freemasons' Hall Germain street, during the month of March, at o'clock in the evening, as follows:

Wednesday, 18th—Carleton Royal Arch Chapter. Thursday, 19th—The Union Lodge of Portland No. 10.

POINT LEPREAUX, March 13. 9 a, m.—Wind east, partly cloudy, calm. Therm. 24. Lansdowne passed outward.

THE FISHERMEN are beginning to put up their weirs in the harbor.

CHARTERED.—Sch. Ann E. Valentine, Calais, Me., to Madeira, lumber $6.

DANCING.— Prof. Spencer's advanced class in dancing will commence this evening at 8 p. m.

INFLUENZA, or la grippe, is very prevalent in various sections of Digby and Yarmouth counties, Nova Scotia.

NEW LEAD.—The New Glasgow Iron & Coal Co., have discovered a new and valuable lead of iron ore, and are to be congratulated upon their find:

THE CENTURIES.—All ladies interested in the refreshment room of the Centuries are requested to meet at Mrs. G. R. Pugsley's to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

ONLY ONE GRIT.—New Larig, Pictou County, is the banner Liberal-Conservative section of Canada. There the Liberal-Conservatives polled 107 votes against a solitary grit one!

AROUND THE BAR-ROOMS.—The chief inspector accompanied by Sergt. Hastings is at present inspecting the barrooms throughout the city. So far he has found them in good order.

In the case of Quinn vs. Wm. Bell in the county court at Woodstock on Wednesday, Bell was found guilty of assault with intent to commit rape and sentenced to six months imprisonment.

THE ALMS HOUSE MATRON,—Mrs. Cunningham, for forty years matron of the Alms house, has resigned. Mrs. Edward Woods, wife of the superintendent of the institution, has been appointed matron.

NEW ORGAN.—The erection of a new organ for St. James church, Broad street, is expected will be completed, on the 20th inst' and it is intended to give a recital that evening at which Mr. Morley will play.

SEVERAL STITCHES.—A long and deep cut was inflicted in one of Samuel Galbraith's wrists, by a stone rolling over on him, while working at the Dominion steps, Carleton yesterday. Dr. Kenney, who was called, put several stitches in the wound.

THE CARLETON CORNET BAND.—The young men comprising this organization have been practising diligently during the winter and are making satisfactory progress. There will soon be a concert given in the City Hall, West side, for their benefit, probably Easter Monday night.

EACH IN ITS TURN.—The street scavengers spent several hours to-day dusting up and cleaning out that well known business thoroughfare, North street. Less important streets such as King, Mill, Charlotte and Dock will have to wait their turn and in the meantime the spring-like atmosphere will go far towards drying up the crossings.

ON SATURDAY MORNING, 7th inst., Mr. John Moses of Hebron, Yarmouth Co, N.S. took his gun and axe and started to go down through a bit of woods to the river, thinking to get a shot at some ducks, and also to cut a road to some wood which he intended to haul to his yard. Whilst engaged in cutting the road he suddenly fell to the ground and died almost instantly.

LOTS OF HOUSEHOLD EFFECTS belonging to families moving back to St. John and the province from the United States continue to come in on the International Company's steamers nearly every trip. A customs official told a GAZETTE reporter the other day that numerous lots of household effects also came in on the cars, and that the stream of people coming back from the states is almost constant.

THE ANNUAL FESTIVAL OF CALVIN CHURCH was held last night in the Sunday school room. Supper was served at 6 30 o'clock after which the following programme was carried out: Address by the pastor, Rev. T. F. Fullerton; solo, Mr. Burton; solos by Miss Crawford; duet by Messrs. Lawrence and Hopkins; address, Bev. T. F. Fotheringham; solos, Mrs. Logan; readings, Fred Simonds; address, Rev Dr. Macrae; duets, Mr. and Mrs. Mills; reading, Mrs. Dailey. John Willet, and Major A. J. Armstrong also addressed the audience. The children and younger members of the congregation are to be entertained tonight.

ORANGE VISIT AND PRESENTALION.—The officers of the St. Johu L. O. lodge paid a visit to Gideon lodge, No. 7, last night. The visitors received a very cordial welcome from W. M. C. White, on behalf of Gideon lodge. Addresses were made by District Master D. McArthur; P. D. P. A. Melville; Deputy District Master C. W. Stockton, T. E. Dwyer, A. W. Macrae, J. K. Kelly and others. W. B. Marter contributed an organ solo. A handsome framed engraving of King William Prince of Orange was presented to the lodge by District Secretary Dyer, through the district master, Mr. D. McArthur. The worshipful master of the lodge, Mr. Chris White, received the gift and extended the thanks of the lodge to the doner.

EVERYBODY smokes the celebrated Pace's twist mixture. Guaranteed a pure tobacco that does not bite the tongue. Sold only at Louis Green's, 59 King street, St. John, N. B.

THE PROPOSED WAREHOUSE.

The Sub-Committee of the Board of Works Arranging for the Purchase of the Properties Fronting on the New Pier—A Large Warehouse to be Built There.

The lack of warehouse room at the New Pier, where the Furness line steamers land their cargo, has often been referred to in the GAZETTE, and the necessity for providing increased warehouse facilities at that point has been recognized by the common council. At the meeting of the council on the 18th of February, it was decided to authorize the board of works to purchase for the city the properties fronting on the New Pier, providing that they could do so at a price not exceeding $17,000, and also to advertise for tenders for the erection of a warehouse covering these properties and a part of the pier. Director Smith and Aldermen Baskin, Robertson, and Blizard have been appointed a sub-committee to arrange for the purchase of the properties. The properties to be bought are owned by J. J. Kaye, the estate of Rev. Wm, Scovil, the estate of Wm. MacKay and Jane E. Chubb. In consequence of some legal technicalities attending the transfer of the deed of one or two of these estate properties, which necessitate the matter being arranged in the legislature, it is thought that it will be about a month before the properties are in possession of the city. Tenders will be called for, and it is probable that the work of erecting the warehouse will be commenced about the 1st of May.

The old warehouse now used by the Furness Line, and probably the one used by the Monticello, will be removed and the new warehouse will extend along the wharf for about 500 feet or from near the new warehouse on the Pettengill wharves to the southern end of the Monticello's present warehouse.

This extentive warehouse will be arranged so that the cars can be run through it when the railway is extended along the harbor front and will be fitted up so that freight can be handled in it in the most expeditious manner.

Together with the new warehouse on the Pettingill wharves, built last year by the city, and under lease to the New York Steamship company, the proposed warehouse on the New Pier will give the city a range of splendid warehouse room along the harbor front of about 700 feet in length. These improvements will greatly facilitate the handling of freight from steamers coming to this port.

HE WILL BE THERE.—Mr. Hedley V. McLaughlan has been requested by several of his friends to run as alderman for Duke's ward at the coming election, and he will probably accept the nomination.

ONE DAY LAST WEEK, as a young son of Mr. Flockton of Campobello, was coasting at that place, by some mischance he caught the little finger of his right hand in a loop of iron well frozen on the ice, which tore the finger entirely from his hand.

THOSE WHO ARE ENGAGED, in the lobster canning industry are making great preparation for the coming season so far as fishing gear and boats are concerned. Stimulated by last year's success and the hope that the next May be as favorable, is probably the best answer for the large number of new firms about going into the business along this part of the coast.—Richibucto Review.

SKATING.—Fred Breen, despite the mild weather is daily practising at the Palace rink for Monday evening's race. He has the corners down fine and will show up in good form. Laidlaw skates to-night at Marysville and will return tomorrow for the race of Monday with Breen. It is most likely the ice will then be in good condition as the weather will not long continue mild so early in the season.

MR. W. C. STIKEMAN, who has been for several years one of the staff of the Bank of Montreal agency at Chatham, has been transferred to the Brantford agency of the same bank, where he is promoted to the position of teller. He left Chatham on Monday last. Mr. Jack Benson takes Mr. Stikeman's place in the agency here and Mr. Jones, son of the St. John agent, takes Mr. Benson's place as "junior."—Chatham Advance.

SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

THE OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE RACES.

The 'Varsity boat race is now one of the absorbing topics of the English public. It is to be rowed on Saturday week, March 21, and both eights are practising hard for the great event. Oxford is the favorite in the betting at 9 to 4. The general opinion is that the dark blues will repeat their victory of last year. There have been 47 contests, of which Oxford has won 24, Cambridge 22, while the other was a dead heat. Both crews will row in New Casper shells.

In the Oxford boat there are four new men—Poole, N. Nickalls, Hodgson and C. W. Kent. The light blues have only four of last year's crew in the persons or Franckiyn, Fison, Rowlatt and Elin. The names and weights are :

Football.

PRINCETON'S OUTLOOK.

PRINCETON, N. J., March 12.—Jessie Riggs, '92, who was elected to the captaincy of the football team, to succeed Edgar Allen Poe, is about to leave college.

The members of last year's team held a meeting last night and elected Ralph H. Waring of the sophomore class as Riggs' successor. Warren has played end on the team the last two years, and has shown not only playing ability, but power to control and captain a team. His election is received with satisfaction.

The loss of Riggs' is a severe blow to Princeton's prospects for '91. He was the only giant rusher left of last year's team, and as yet there does not seem to be anyone capable of filling his important position in the rush line. As Heffelfinger has determined to stay at Yale another year and to fill his usual place, it will be still more difficult to make up for Riggs' loss.

The Turf.

The Sunbury Effigy.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE GAZETTE.—

Sir.—I notice in the editorial column of the Evening Globe, that reference is made to the burning in effigy of Sir Richard Cartwright at Oromocto, a gross misrepresentation of what took place.

The facts of the case are these :—On Declaration day an over-enthusiastic opponent of Sir Richard without the consent or knowledge of any Conservatives of authority, took it upon himself to erect the effigy. When many of the people had returned to Oromocto from the court house, some boys brought this effigy into the street and burnt it.

There was no Wiman, no Laurier and no Cross.

Mr. Wilmot, Mr. Glasier and Mr. Hoyt had nothing whatever to do with the proceedings. Yet, on the authority of an unreliable partisan correspondent, Mr. Ellis makes some very uncalled for remarks, in which he reflects upon the usefulness of Mr. Wilmot as a member of the House of Commons.

Would it not be well for Mr. Ellis to look up some back numbers of the Telegraph and get a Liberal opinion of his own usefulness to his party and his country? If that is not convincing I would suggest that he refer to the official returns of the city of St. John in the late election, which to say the least are significant on that point. But be that as it may, Mr. Ellis, if he has his own reputation and the reputation of his party at heart, will cease publishing slanderous reports that he cannot substantiate; even though they be of his political opponents.

SUNBURY.

Oromocto, March 12, 1891.

Mr. Wilmot's Reply to Ellis.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE GAZETTE:—

Sir.—Some malevolent correspondent of the Globe of 11th inst., from Oromocto, endeavoring to give a discription of the burning of Sir Richard Cartwright in effigy, would lead the public to suppose that the person, engaged therein, wished to insult the feelings of a certain denomination of Christians—coupling my name with others as witnesses thereof—I may say that I had taken no part whatever in the above exhibition, and to any one of ordinary intelligence, there was no evidence of, or a desire to hurt the feelings of any particular church.

The Globe man in a slimy way adds, that "Mr. Wilmot would be poorly employed, engaged in, or even applauding the cremation of the effigy of two prominent members of the House of Commons, of which he is so inconspicuous and useless a part."

If to be conspicuous requires one to edit a paper, the principal object of which is to bring about annexation to the United States, and on every occasion to seize, as a sweet morsel, anything said belittling St. John, and derogatory to our fair Dominion; if to be conspicuous, one should be a member of the House of Commons, holding a seat contrary to the spirit of his oath of office, and at the termination of parliament to be politically kicked out, by an outraged and loyal electorate, then God preserve me from being conspicuous.

As to my usefulness as a representative during the past four years, I would respectfully refer to the decision of the electors of Sunbury on the 5th inst.

R. D. WILMOT.

Only Once.

It was a pitiful mistake,
An error sad and grim;
I waited for the railway train,
The light was low and dim.

It came at last, and from the car,
There stepped a dainty dame
And looking up and down the place,
She straight unto me came.

"Oh, Jack; oh dear old Jack," she cried,
And kissed me as she spake:
Then looked again, and frightened cried
"Oh what a bad mistake."

I said, "Forgive me, maiden fair,
That I am not your Jack,
And as regards the kiss you gave,
I'll straightway give it back."

And since that night I've often stood
On the platform lighted dim;
But only once in a man's whole life
Do such things come to him.
