Canadian, British and Foreign.

[To the Associated Press.]

OTTAWA, April 29.

Despatches from Washington have been received regarding the violation of the Washington Treaty by the United States Government in imposing customs duties on packages containing preserved fish. It is reported a demand is now to be made through the Imperial Government for reparation of injury done, and forfeiture of observance of Treaty stipulations.

Emigration from the United States is setting steadily towards this city. The baggage of people coming to take permanent residence in Canada passes the Custom House in large quantities daily.

QUEBEC, April 28.

Capt. Wylie, of steamship Manitoban, reports passed through one hundred miles of field ice this side of Bird Rocks.

NEW YORK, April 29.

By the fire at Oshkosh all the newspaper offices, banks, telegraph office, Harding's opera house, post office, Universalist church, all the hotels but one, and nearly all the business portion of the city, were destroyed. Several person were killed by falling walls. The burnt district is a mile and a half long and half mile wide. Hundreds of persons are homeless.

LONDON, April 29.

The trouble with the miners at Charleroi, Belgium, continues, and serious riots are reported.

LONDON, April 30, 6.30 a. m.

SENSIBLE BISMARCK.

A despatch from Berlin says the Prussian Government intends to ignore the letter of sympathy addressed by the Roman Catholic Bishops of Great Britain to those of Germany.

OLD CATHOLICS.

A committee of the Prussian Diet has prepared a bill declaring that the old Catholics are entitled to a share of the Roman Catholic churches' cemeteries and revenues proportionate to their numbers as compared with other Catholics.

BISMARCK'S ASSAILANT.

The Times special despatch from Berlin reports that the Belgian Minister of Justice has made an explicit statement that the Belgian courts are incompetent to take up the proceedings against Duchesne, and that this statement has been transmitted to the Berlin Government.

A lively hail storm this afternoon took the place of the usual April showers.

The examination of the Hasletts is going on at Portland Police Court to-day.

Mr. Meade has completed a bust of Mr. Lanergan, as "the noblest Roman of them all."

Look out for showers, fire alarms, lost babies, stray household pets, and profane fathers of families at this moody period.

A man who turned the corner of Mill and Pond streets, on a half run, this morning, came in collision with a migrating individual who was carrying one of the old style oblong clocks, with the face outwards. The result was that the unfortunate mover was knocked completely "out of time."

County Court.

This afternoon the case of the Queen vs. James Vaughan and Hiram Brown, charged with larceny, was called, and at the time of going to press the jury were being sworn.

"Free Lance."

The correspondent who wants to know what is meant by speaking of a newspaper as a "Free Lance," is informed that it means independent, not prevented by party ties or Government patronage from telling the truth.

The Mayor and the Market.

The grand Country Market to be built on the site of the sheds that line Market street will be a monument of Mr. Smith's reign. The Common Council should employ Mr. Meade to make a marble bust of Mayor Smith for the adornment of the new building.

Shipping Notes.

Steamers.—The R. M. S. Moravian, from Halifax, arrived at Queenstown yesterday.

The Nyanza, Fisher master, from Liverpool for this port, sailed from Halifax this morning at 8 o'clock, and will probably reach here by to-morrow afternoon.

The Tyrian, of the Anchor Line, is 14 days out to-day, from Liverpool for Halifax and this port.

The Severn, now discharging cargo at Halifax, is expected to leave for this port some time to-morrow.

The City of Portland, from Boston is due here about 5 o'clock this evening.
