TORONTO CONTINUES TO WIN

Beat Montreal in Opening Game of the Series By Eleven Runs to Two.

MADE FIVE IN THE FIRST INNINGS.

Mills' Balloon Work and Sensational Catches By Hargrove and Bonner Were Features.

Toronto won the first game of the present series from Montreal by a big margin. Mills went thru everything in the calendar, including base on balls, wild pitch, hit batsman, struck out a man and made an error. This collection, with singles by Bonner and Hargrove, gave Toronto five runs, which proved an insurmountable lead.

Sensational catches by Hargrove and Bonner in the eighth, the latter resulting in a double play, were other features of a game that pleased the big crowd present.

Dooley lost his temper in the same innings, when Brown beat the ball to first. He threw the ball away and Brown scored.

A single by the pitcher and Raub's hit over the fence yielded Montreal's pair of runs. Score:

International Cricket To-Day.

The Toronto members of the Canadian eleven arrived in Ottawa on Sunday, where they meet the United States team in the annual international match that begins today and will be continued to-morrow and Wednesday, if necessary.

Football Kicks.

There is likely to be a hot time at the Ontario Rugby meeting on Tuesday night, when the schedule will be drawn. The London team are now guessing what the O.R.F.U. will do with their players that were expelled by the Hockey Association last season. They have written asking if the O.R.F.U. intend upholding the O.H.A. The denfence London will put in is that the O.R.F.U. and O.H.A. are two separate bodies, and the they were suspended by the latter it does not affect them in the good standing of the former. It is likely the Rugby men will uphold the Hockey Association's decision.

The Wellesley Rugby Club will reorganize to-night at the Globe Hotel. The following players are requested to attend or any others wishing to join: Hewitt, Good, Wright, Purse, Miller, Lamont, Haire, Rogers, Sloan, Grady, Marsh, Mathews, Parrott, Walls, Robertson, Bedford, Mitchell, Doughty, Tolley, Dale, Gledhill, White, Evans, Cashman, Marcicomer.

The Broadview Football Club meets on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the club rooms to reorganize for the season. There will be senior, intermediate and junior tems in the city leagues.

The Toronto Junior League meets Thursday at the Central Y.M.C.A. to make arrangements for the fall championship games.

Betting on the Yacht Race.

New York, Sept. 8.—The odds in the betting on the international cup races are now 10 to 9 against the Shamrock. Several small bets were made yesterday in Wall-street and there is plenty of Columbia money to be placed at these odds. Frederick H. Brooks of Sellsberg & Co. offers to bet $2000 to $1800 on the Columbia, or $1000 to $900 the same way. Some bets were made that the Shamrock would not win one race of the series.

Caddy Bags

We have just put in stock an attractive line of caddy bags in fancy and ooze leathers. The highest prices in this new line are only $4.50 and $5, and the $5 bags are equal to the average $6.50 caddy bags heretofore shown Toronto golfers.

We also have an excellent line of ladies' caddy bags.

We invite visitors.

Golf Sundries

We have the many little things which golfers need—such as rubber grips for clubs, ball cleaners, rubber and paper tees, Silvertown O K and Vardon flyer balls, rubber shoe discs, etc.

A new line worthy of mention is an adjustable golf spike, which the player attaches or detaches instantly from his shoes, and which he carries in his caddy bag.

Paddles

We have a line of Peterborough paddles that will replace the broken or lost paddles of summer and give the canoeist full service next summer.

These are the only available paddles in Toronto for canoeists. We can obtain no more from the makers until next spring.

A DAY WITH THE AMATEURS

Crescents Beat the Cadets By a Run and Park Nine Blanked Night Owls.

GOOD CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

Intermediate and Other League Teams Play—North Toronto and Atlantics Won.

The games on Saturday afternoon at old U.C.C. grounds were well attended. The first between the Crescents and Cadets was good, both teams hitting and fielding in first-class form, both Pitchers Scott and Sweeney doing effective work. The Cadets had a batting streak in the seventh innings and tallied 5 runs, putting them ahead of the veterans, but the Crescents got together in their half of the innings and scored a couple of runs and won out by a narrow margin. Frank Scott had his busy day at the bat, having 2 two base hits and a single for four times up. The second game between the Park Nine and Owls was too one-sided to be interesting. The Park Nine played first-class ball in every department of the game. Scores:

Shamrocks 5, Capitals 3.

Montreal, Sept. 8.—The Shamrocks succeeded in defeating the Capitals in the championship lacrosse series on Saturday afternoon by a score of five games to three, after an exceedingly hard-fought battle. An immense crowd was present to witness the match. The betting was rather light. There was lots of shamrock money in sight, but the Capital supporters wanted long odds. At 6 was a little after half-past three when the referee's whistle summoned the players to the field. The Shamrocks with the exception of Quinn had been on the field for some time. The Capitals came out in a bunch at the sound of the whistle, and the teams lined up. The first game was of the red-hot variety, and there was not a dull second from the moment Currie drew the ball out until Powers landed the ball in the net 9 minutes and 55 seconds later. The ball was first brought down to Shamrocg goal. Howard stopped a likely-looking shot from Murphy, and the ball went to the Capital end, where O'Doherty picked it out of a dangerous position, then of course it came back again, and once more Howard came to the front. His stop and the manner in which he attired the ball out dodging the Capital men, was really wonderful to behold. With the ball at the Capital end, the shamrock home poured in a hot attack, and it seemed almost miraculous that Howard did not be stopped. There Hoobin secured the ball, but his shot went wide, and the Capital defence relieved. Quinn was the objective point of two wicked-looking shots, one he stopped with his shoulder and the other broke his stick, but in each instance he managed to clear safely. When the play was in centre field Starrs developed tendencies for cross-checking and went to the side for his offence. While he was off the Shamrocks lined shot after shot on the Capitals' poles, but without any degree of success, and when Starrs resumed play the state of affairs remained unchanged. Finlayson did an amount of unnecessary slashing, and while he was off the Capitals did the trick. Just previous to this Brennan missed a likely-looking chance.

The second game changed the aspect, and in a very short time. The Shamrocks lost the face and the ball went to the Shamrock end. With the defence at this time still short of Finlayson's services, things looked serious. There was some nice work and the ball went out in the field to Curry, who dodged in a little at his heels, slashing in hard style, and wh with a few feet of the goal shot the ball. It struck Hutton's feet and bounced to the side, where Brennan got it and passed it to Dade, who shot. This shot was also stopped, but Brennan secured the ball on the rebound and sent it into the net.

The third game was all Capital right from the start, and did not last very long. From centre Starrs carried in the ball, passed to Powers, and the latter gave it to Eddie Murphy, who shot from the side and found the net. The Shamrocks still suffering from Finlayson's absence, the big Shamrock defence man remaining off until play had been started in the next game.

The fourth game opened with a hot attack on the Capitals' poles, and in a minute behind the net Dade was slashed across the face and had to leave the field, Butterworth going off to even up. Robinson and Woods were also ruled off. Play at this stage the game was not only red-hit, it was sizzling, slashing and cross-checking and tripping was quite common, but Referee Hanigan did not appear to worry about it to any extent, and matters finally adjusted themselves. Then Dade recovered and joined the forces and Robinson was on for a second later. There was a lovely time in front of the Capital poles, and Ralph considered it his duty to give Hoobin the foot. He was caught in this act, and was sent off. After this Brennan had a beautiful chance from the edge of the goal crease, but he shot too quickly, and the ball just grazed the pole. The Capital homes developed sudden strength, which was added by the loose work of the Shamrock defence, and it was really not surprising when Powers shot in the front of the poles and scored.

In the fifth game the Shamrocks moved. Hayes back to cover and placed Howard out in front of him. This move being calculated to strengthen the defence. The game was thoroly Shamrock's, altho rie Capitals made a few attempts to shake rock home performed herculean feats, and they simply rained in shots on the Capital poles; some went wide, others were stopped and others went above, but in the end it was almost robbery that the ball did not get into the net before it did. Finally Currie got the ball. The little centre fielder got in a nice position and made a perfect pass to Hoobin. The big home fielder wheeled by his man and was in like a flash. Dade had slid into the proper place and Hoobin gave him the ball. It ripped off his stick and an instant later the net waved the impact of the shot. The Shamrocks' hopes had taken an upward turn. Time 8 mins. 20 secs.

The sixth game caused joy in many hearts, and the evidence of it was very apparent, for the Shamrocks tied the score, and this was regarded as the forerunner of victory. It was like its predecessor, a Shamrock game; that is as the play went. The defence had pulled together, and they were just about right. Finally the Capitals' home did not have many chances, but they were always dangerous, when they did have the ball. From this out the Shamrocks had the best of it. They scored the seventh game in 6 minutes 40 seconds and also took the eighth game. The teams were:
