He was kicked by one of the horses and one of the wagon wheels passed over his chest. He lived but a few minutes. Mr. Moore was about 60 years of age, and had been a resident of Dorchester township for the past quarter of a century. Mrs. Moore died four years ago. Four sons and two daughters survive. Deceased was one of the best-known residents of Dorchester, and his bereaved family will have the sympathy of a host of friends.

CARRIED AWAY THE STORE DOOR

A Lady's Narrow Escape From a Runaway Team.

A runaway team of horses crashed into the plate glass door of Cairncross & Lawrence's drug store, Dundas and Clarence streets, yesterday afternoon, at 5:30, carrying the door off its hinges and knocking it back into the store about fifteen feet, where it fell broken into a thousand pieces. A lady customer, who was just about to leave the store started back in time to avoid receiving the full force of the flying door. She was struck a glancing blow on the shoulder, which knocked her down. She was completely prostrated with fright.

The team was attached to a C. P. R. express wagon, and had been left standing untied in front of Saunders' wholesale. The horses ran, one on either side of the door post, in the middle of the doorway, the pole striking the door with terrific force. The wagon was loaded with boxes, which were scattered in all directions. The noise of the crash sounded like an explosion.
