HUMORS of the BLOOD & SKIN Cured by CUTICURA

HUMORS OF THE BLOOD, SKIN AND SCALP whether itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted, pimply, blotchy, or copper-colored, with loss of hair, either simple, scrofulous, hereditary or contagious, are speedily, permanently, and infallibly cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES consisting of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Purifier and Beautifier, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new Blood and Skin Purifier, and greatest of Humor Remedies, when the best physicians and all other remedies fail. CUTICURA REMEDIES are the only infallible blood and skin purifiers, and may effect more speedy cures of blood and skin diseases than all other remedies combined.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 50c.; SOAP, 35c.; RESOLVENT, $1.50. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Boston, Mass.

Send for "How to Cure Blood and Skin Diseases."

Pimples, blackheads, chapped and oily skin prevented by CUTICURA SOAP.

Backache, kidney pains, weakness and rheumatism relieved in one minute by the first CUTICURA ANTI-PAIN PLASTER.

IRISH NEWS.

Lord Rosse has been appointed Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of Kings' County.

Patrick Cinch, a farmer of Lingstown, died suddenly at the Weaved fair on July 1.

The Reverend Alexander Morrissey, pastor of Commeen, was on Sunday, July 7, Canon of the Diocese of Cork, in succession to the late Canon Fitzpatrick of Midleton.

Mr. William Henry Boyd, of Ballymacarol, Letterkenny, and Mr. David B. McCorkell, of Brevarnet, Derry, have been appointed deputy lieutenants of County Donegal.

The dead body of Mrs. Reed, wife of Dr. Reed, C.S., of Castlewellan, County Down, was found floating in the reservoir of the water works on July 2.

At a meeting of the Poor Law Guardians of Cork on July 8, three new members of the Board—Mr. R. J. Alcock, Jr., Ald. John Dwyer and George A. Scott—the resolution of Council to have guardians removed from corporate ranks was rescinded.

Mrs. Breslin, wife of Mr. Patrick Breslin, of Derry, died on July 2. She was the daughter of Mr. James Dunleavy, well-known merchant and member of the Poor Law Board of Guardians for Donegal, and a sister of the Rev. Patrick Dunleavy, Adm., of Tullamore, and Mr. James Dunleavy. Mrs. Breslin was highly accomplished and much esteemed throughout the neighborhood.

On June 30, a steamer named William Kinsella, aged seventy years, was found lifeless in bed in his house at Tonaghmore, shannon, Ennis, early. He had attended church in perfect health, and appeared to be in good health. Edward Redmond, another steamer, aged three years old, of Lockeen, Ballinalacky, dropped dead on July 2 while at dinner.

A pilgrimage to Croghan Mountain at Newry was made on Sunday, July 3, under the patronage of the Irish National Foresters' Society, Rose Ely of the Shamrock Society, and other societies. A large procession, headed by the local brass band, marched through the town to the Leinster Literary Society's grounds.

Mr. Patrick Jennings, of Newry, died on July 3 in the effects of a carbuncle on the neck. The deceased gentleman was extensively known throughout the district, and was a member of the Newry Harbor Board. He was a prominent Nationalist, and was twice elected to represent the town in Parliament, but was unseated on petition. He was a member of the Newry Board of Guardians for many years, and was a member of the Newry Town Council for a number of years. He was a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and was a member of the Catholic Club. Mr. Jennings was one of the trustees of the Newry Nationalist Club, and was one of the most popular men in the town. He was a member of the Catholic Club, and was a member of the Catholic Club, and was a member of the Catholic Club. He was a member of the Catholic Club, and was a member of the Catholic Club. He was a member of the Catholic Club, and was a member of the Catholic Club. He