WALL STREET IS WILD ON RUMOR WAR HAS ENDED

Practically All Leading Stocks Except War Issues Bound.

AVALANCHE OF BUYING

Mutiny at Kiel Gives Initial Impetus of One to Three Points.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Wall street experienced one of the wildest and most bewildering sessions in its varied experience today, the stock market responding feverishly to unconfirmed reports of the signing of the armistice by Germany. The financial community accepted these reports and gave itself over to a delirium of bullish enthusiasm.

Practically all the leading stocks, excepting those of the distinctive war group, made advances ranging from two to thirteen points, the rise being largely maintained at the close.

Great Press of Business.

In recognition of the desire of the brokers to celebrate, the authorities of the exchange suspended operations half an hour ahead of the regular period, but the press of business as represented by buying orders was so great that final transactions were not recorded until some fifteen minutes later.

Stocks opened at gains of one to three points, cables from neutral points telling of revolts and mutinies in the German army and navy, inviting further extension of long accounts.

Munition Stocks Decline.

Rumors of the alleged ratification of the armistice gained currency at midday, and exerted little influence for a time, except to cause further heaviness in the munitions and allied stocks.

Rails and oils were among the first shares to make strong response, high-class transportations mounting to the year's best prices at gross gains of two to seven points. Mexican Petroleum rose almost thirteen points, and related shares two to five.

Motors, coppers and peace specialties finished at net gains of two to four points. Total sales amounted to 1,500,000 shares.

Railway bonds gained 1 to 4 per cent, various foreign issues 1 to 2½ per cent, but Liberty issues were barely firm. Total sales, par value, were $16,300,000. Old United States were unchanged on call.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

IMPOSSIBLE TO WRITE SANELY OR SOBERLY IN THESE TIMES

The evening grain letter to The Advertiser sums up the general financial situation well when it says: "It is not possible to write sanely or soberly of commercial matters today. Sufficient to say that probably one of the greatest reasons in bringing about an armistice is the famine condition prevailing in all of Central and Western Europe. For some time to come North America will be called upon to feed what remains of the so-called civilized world. There has been heavy export business done in oats today."

THE LOCAL MARKET

Today's market was very small. A slight increase took place in the price of potatoes at yesterday's market, while all other produce remained firm.

GRAIN.

Winnipeg, Nov. 8.—Oats opened ¼c up to ⅛c off for December.

Flax unchanged.

Inspections, 1,003 cars; contract grades of wheat were 608 cars.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Fresh weakness developed in the corn market today as a result of expectancy that an armistice with Germany would soon be signed. Pressure to sell was general, and buying support scanty. Pending definite announcement from the White House regarding an armistice, the volume of trading was only fair. Opening prices, which varied from unchanged figures to 3½c lower, with December and January both at $1 20½@1 22, were followed by a moderate rally and then by a descent lower than before.

Oats showed a little more strength than corn, although affected to some extent by the bearish action of corn. Hedging sales were in evidence. After opening unchanged to ½c lower, the market scored a slight gains, which afterward disappeared.

LIVE STOCK.

East Buffalo, N.Y., Nov. 8.—Cattle—Receipts, 900; market slow.

Calves—Receipts, 500; market strong at $7@20.

Hogs—Receipts, 7,200; pigs steady, others easy; heavy, $18 50@18 65; mixed, $18 50@18 60; yorkers, $18 50; light yorkers and pigs, $17 25@17 50; roughs, $12@16 80; stags, $10@14 50.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 7,800; lambs slow and easier; lambs, $10@16; others unchanged.

PROVISIONS.

Liverpool, Nov. 8.—Beef—Extra India mess, 370s.

Pork—Prime mess western, 330s.

Hams—Short cut, 137s.

Bacon—Cumberland cut, 152s; clear bellies, 160s; long clear middles, light, 160s; do, heavy, 159s; short clear backs, 157s; shoulders, square, 128s.

Lard—Prime western, in tierces, 149s 6d; American refined, in pails, 152s; do, in boxes, 150s.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Provisions fell with corn. Lard and ribs declined to the maximum limit allowed for a single day.

OILS.

Liverpool, Nov. 8.—Tallow—Australian (in London), 72s.

Turpentine Spirits—125s.

Rosin—Common, 64s 6d.

Petroleum—Refined, 1s 6⅝d.

Linseed Oil—62s.

Cottonseed Oil—68s 6d.

War Kerosene—No. 2, 1s 2¾d.

WALL STREET.

New York, Nov. 8—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Leading stocks opened at sharp declines today as a result of yesterday's false reports of the signing of a truce between Germany and the Allies. Reactions of 1 to 1½ points were registered at the outset by Mexican Petroleum and many of the leading rails, as well as secondary issues of that division. Coppers broke an average of 1 point, and motors fell back with prominent specialties. The few early gains were represented by Marine preferred, American Sugar and Sumatra Tobacco, the latter rising 4 points. The market strengthened in all quarters before the end of the first half hour.

Noon.—Most losses were cancelled on the rally, and a number of prominent stocks rose to levels well over yesterday's maximums. Trading was active, but orderly, the first hour's turnover of some 300,000 shares showing no trace of yesterday's excitement. Minor rails were in further demand, and oils, coppers, shippings, motors and tobaccos led the speculative issues. United States Steel rose a point from its low price, but encountered occasional pressure. War shares also developed moderate heaviness. Foreign bonds forfeited part of yesterday's gains, but Liberty Bonds were firm.

MONEY.

New York, Nov. 8.—Bar silver, $1 01⅛ per ounce.

London, Nov. 8.—Bar silver, 49½d per ounce.

Great Scheme.

"Gee, I hate winter," said Smith. "The months are so long and they seem to drag along so slowly."

"Why, winter doesn't seem like any time to me," replied Jones. "I make it pass so rapidly that it seems like a few days to me."

"How do you do it?" asked Smith.

"I sign a 90-day promissory note every December," explained Jones. "And, first thing I know the note is due."

By the time a woman has been married two years she is beginning to get used to disappointments.

A man's excuses are explanations to his Affinity. But to his Wife his explanations are excuses.

Notice!

When you need one in Dayton, Ohio, you can always C. A. Copp in the Purchasing Department of the Domestic Engineering Company.

Good Dope.

Cheer up, old scout! Let's have a song!
Don't look so glum, gee whiz!
Don't think the whole blame world is wrong
Because your liver is.
—Luke McLuke.

That is the truth; Luke's always right,
Except when he is wrong;
Sometimes it's not your liver, but
Your conscience going strong.
—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

Wuxtree!

The women-haters in the club are going to take a trip to Scalp Level, Penn., and watch George Beater.

Hot.

He's feeling hot,
Is Oswald Boal;
For he forgot
To lay in coal.

Oh, Joy!

The kaiser's gone, the beast is stuck,
And he is showing yellow;
The skunk is getting the bad luck,
He wished the other fellow.

A Cinch.

When Mary Jane grows up she'll get
Big notions in her bean;
And she will change her name, you bet,
She'll make it Marie Jean.

Firms Is Firms.

Post & Beam are in business at Posttown, Ohio.

A proud father many call his son a chip off the old block, but his friends will be more likely to refer to the youngster as a chip off the old blockhead.

Cheer Up!

Come too much rain or too much drought,
Don't be one of the scolders;
Don't train the corners of your mouth
To hang down on your shoulders.
—Luke McLuke.

And if you find it hard to smile,
Undoubtedly you may, sir,
Just stand upon your head awhile,
And train 'em up that way, sir.
—Newark Advocate.

A husband often has to admit that he is in the wrong. But it is different with his wife.

Notice!

If J. H. Shellnut, the Bremen (Ga.) cotton broker, will report for duty at the Club, we will give him a job feeding the squirrels.

A girl believes that while a high forehead becomes a man, a low neck looks better on a girl.

Advice.

We've no use for the shiftless man.
He is a useless slob;
That's why "I Can't" will get the can,
And "I'll Try" gets his job.

BLIND HERO PLACED ON VOCATIONAL STAFF

CAPT. E. A. BAKER, M.C., of Toronto, a blinded soldier, who has been appointed to the vocational staff of the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment.

STEADY ON--- CANADA

The Great Day Is at Hand

Behind Canada lies fifty months of blood and anguish—fifty months of the fires of trials and of sacrifice—of glorious, triumphant battling against the hosts of evil.

And in the surging joy will come to us the sobering sense of duty yet to be performed.

Canada's part in the finish of the war must be as well done as was her part in fighting and winning it. Canada's great duty to her living and her dead must be met with the same manliness, seriousness and determination which have won for her the respect and admiration of the world in waging the war.

Canada's Victory Loan, 1918, must be oversubscribed—that Canada may discharge, in peace, the great responsibilities which the war thrust upon her willing shoulders.

Canadians, let us with devoutly thankful hearts, and in proud consciousness of duty well done, proceed with our great task—
