dress was as follows:

Honourable Wm. P. Howland, C. B., undersigned, a few of your many cannot allow the occasion of your from the high office of Lieutenant-of Ontario to pass away without g an expression of the manner in h have discharged its duties.

Lieutenant Governor, happily for ce, its stands apart from the mosphere of party warfare, and if h the trust committed to him, cange reproach from men of all parties an d measure of respect and esteem. fled that we express the real senti-the community, when we assure you have ever been faithful to your in manner in which you have dis-your official duties. fer to you and to Mrs. Howland, y and courteous hostess of Govern-ouse, our sincere hope that many of prosperous years await you both trust that your five years of official ever recall to your minds as many memories as they will to us. We you to accept this expression of d regard."

Hr. HOWLAND replied as follows:— ry gentlemen, this expression of ation of my public service, and of ness and regard for Mrs. Howland ll with sincere pleasure. I can say, ut exaggeration, that during the whole of my public service, I have ated solely by a desire to repay idence and kindness which have liberally extended to me by my felns by a conscientious performance ties which their kindness had imon me. Having been actuated by tives, and knowing the criticism to ct of public men are exposed to, on that it is with mingled feelings and gratification that I receive this of your appreciation of my services d it is no affectation on my part y that I cannot command language ly express the obligation which I the very kind and flattering manner have conveyed it. I thank you of Mrs. Howland for the very ne present you have made her, ure you that its chief value will be derived from the fact that serve to remind us that the efforts render ourselves acceptable to those we came in contact, during my office as your Lieut.-Governor, have warmly appreciated. Permit me to my sincere thanks for the good wishes kindly express for our future welfare, ing my assurance that they are most reciprocated."
