THE CONNORS AND THE DOYLES

Engage in a General Row on Camden-street—An Old Veteran Wounded.

James Connors, 65 years of age, pensioner, with three medals and four bars for Alma, Inkerman, Balaclava and the Indian mutiny, and bearing two scars received in action, was late last night carried from his residence, 15 Camden-street shot in his left shoulder, to the General Hospital. Connors says that on Thursday last his neighbor, James Doyle, labourer, of 13 Camden-street without, provocation beat Mrs. Connors severely. After considering the matter till Monday night, Connors then decided to summon Doyle for the assault, and in company with Michael Hartigan Connors first went and had a glass of beer and then went into his own back yard, still accompanied by Hartigan, to inquire of Doyle his Christian name, so that the summons could be made out correctly. Doyle came out, and for answer shot Connors in the shoulder with a 38-calibre revolver. Connors supposes the correct name was wrapped round the bullet. Dr. Fisher and the police were summoned. Doyle was locked up and Connors taken to the Hospital, but up till a late hour last night the bullet had not been withdrawn. Connors is in great pain, and the doctors are anxious to find the bullet. Doyle was brought up at the Police Court yesterday and remanded till Tuesday next, bail being refused.

The Opening of the Reichstag—The Emperor's Pacific Speech.

BERLIN, June 26.—The Reichstag was opened to-day with pomp and brilliancy. After divine service in the court chapel the Emperor was escorted with great ceremony to the White Hall of the old castle where he declared the session open. Throughout his speech the Emperor dwelt upon Germany's pacific disposition. He said her policy aimed solely to ward off attack, not to acquire military glory. The Empire, he declared, desired peace with all nations. The Emperor said further:

"Germany will adhere to her alliance with Austria which public opinion supports as the basis of European equilibrium and an inheritance of German history. The same relations and national needs united Germany and Italy. These relations will permit the careful cultivation of the Emperor's personal friendship with the Czar and the maintenance of the pacific relations with Russia which have existed for a century in consonance with the Emperor's feelings and Germany's interests."

—Disease gathers strength as it advances. Annihilate it at its birth. When the bowels become sluggish, digestion feeble, or the liver torpid, they should be aroused and stimulated with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, a medicine foremost in usefulness among alteratives. It should not be abandoned if an immediate cure is not effected, but be used as it deserves, systematically and with persistence. It will then prove that it is thorough. x

Fire at Florence.

FLORENCE, June 26.—A fire in the stable of G. Rheintgen, occupied by London Bros., about 1 o'clock this morning was communicated to Mrs. Amsden's stable, occupied by Wm. Johnston, V.S., and the Ellison House stable followed. In a few minutes all were wrapped in flames. The losses were: Ellison $500, Mrs. Amsden about $200, Rheintgen $100, London Bros. about $50 and Dr. Johnston $200. The horses were all saved. Ellison was insured for $200.

The Behring Sea Seal Fisheries.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—In a letter to Senator Mitchell of Oregon, Assistant Secretary Maynard states that the "present instructions of the Treasury Department regarding the killing of fur seal in Behring's Sea by the crews of either American or foreign vessels, are the same as were in force during past seasons and that any such vessels found engaged in taking and killing seals in such waters will be liable to seizure."

Directed That Her Remains be Cremated.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Lisle Lester died yesterday at the Sturtevant House of pneumonia, at the age of 51 years. She was a widow. Mrs. Lester was well known in newspaper offices in San Francisco and Chicago, having been identified with journalism and literary work for some years. In accordance with her own request her remains were cremated to-day at Freshpond, L.I.

WANTED

A Pulley to Raise Me Up

I sat fast in my chair pondering over lumbago, kidney troubles, etc., thinking how long I was to be bound up with plasters, pills, bandages, etc., etc.

One Evening Got St. Leon Water, drank freely; by morning the puff remedies were not required, and I am happy to state from the use of ST. LEON WATER that myself completely cured.

EPPS'S COCOA.

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to strike wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
