SPORTING NEWS.

ATHLETICS.

COACHES MAY LOSE POWER.

Placing Harvard's athletics in charge of one agent instead of a committee, abolishing professional coaches and limiting rather than abolishing inter-collegiate sports are now positively known to be features of the report of the special committee on athletics submitted by President Eliot to the board of overseers.

The report demands limitation of the power of professional coaches other than in teaching the necessary skill in rowing, baseball, running and other sports. To the mere instruction as to methods there is no objection, but the report calls for the abolition of such places as have been held by "Bill" Reid at Harvard or Walter Camp at Yale.

The number of games with leading competitors must be restricted greatly. It is urged, and the practice of leaving Cambridge some days ahead of a great game and practicing for days at or near a rival university is condemned as silly and unnecessary. The thing smacks too much of professionalism and too little of real sport. A few important inter-collegiate contests in any sport, it is intimated, will be plenty.

The corporation has in abeyance a vote which will be adopted as soon as the stadium debt is cleared, which will forbid the charge of any admission fees to Harvard students to witness any athletic sport at Harvard. The athletic agent will have the power now vested in the Harvard athletic committee and the once important committee will act in an advisory capacity.

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

TO PLAY QUEENSLAND.

Secretary Sweeney, of the Victoria Rugby Football Club, has received the following letter from W. Unmack, of San Francisco, the American representative of the Queensland Rugby Union. It reads as follows:

Dear Sir:—It is probable that a Queensland Rugby team will arrive in Vancouver next September on its way to play the universities of California. As the American representative of the Queensland Rugby Union, I would like to see if I can make satisfactory arrangements with your union for matches in Victoria.

I have been in communication with R. P. Woodland, and the Vancouver Union has given me a satisfactory guarantee of gate receipts. I would like you to place the matter before your Union, and would feel greatly obliged if you could give me an answer as early as possible so that I can communicate with Queensland.

There was some talk in the papers here (San Francisco) last week of a New Zealand team coming over. None of the university authorities, however, know anything about it, as Queensland, through me, is the only Union they have issued an invitation to. Trusting to hear from you at your convenience, I am,

Yours sincerely,
WM. UNMACK.

A meeting of the executive of the Victoria Rugby Club will be held at Sweeney & McConnell's offices to-morrow at 5 p. m. to decide what course of action will be pursued with regard to the forthcoming visit of the Australian footballers.

BASKETBALL.

RETURN FROM TOUR.

Victors in one match only throughout their tour, the Y. M. C. A. basketball players returned to the city on Monday. They are not discouraged by their ill-success and express themselves as extremely gratified with their treatment both in Vancouver and in the Sound. The following is the full result of the series of matches played, of which the last four were in the Puget Sound league:

Vancouver Y.M.C.A., 18; Victoria, 11.
Vancouver A. C., 12; Victoria, 9.
Bellingham Y.M.C.A., 23; Victoria, 19.
Everett Y. M. C. A., 29; Victoria, 24.
Seattle Y. M. C. A., 29; Victoria, 22.
Tacoma Y. M. C. A., 45; Victoria, 26.

THE RING.

READY AND WILLING.

Champion Jim Jeffries has at last gone on record as to when and how he will fight. When asked whether he would meet Bill Squires, the Australian, when the latter goes to America and issues his defiance to the whole of the United States, the champion of all champions at once said that he would meet him in a second if Squires could show that he was worthy of a fight, and if there was a big enough purse hung up to make it worth his while.

This is what Jeffries had to say:

"Just show me that Squires is able to fight and that the public wants me to meet him, then find the proper purse and I will at once sign up. I am ready and anxious to fight, but am not going to return to the ring to meet a lemon. I have met too many of this brand, and the people got sour on me because it looked as though I was out looking for easy money. I want and need the money, but do not need it so badly that I will take a chance to face the charge of manslaughter to get it. There are a lot of alleged pugilists challenging me that would curl up and die if I hit them. These are the men that I will have nothing to do with.

"Another bunch of men that I bar are negroes. I will never fight a colored man, no matter how popular he is. Consider the circumstances that I last fought black men. That means that as long as I am champion of the world I will never meet a colored man for the title. If I were not the champion I would refuse a negro at any time. I would be especially willing to meet one were he champion.

"Getting back to Squires, I am willing to say that all that is needed is to show me that there is a chance for an Australian to put up a good fight and he can sign up. I hope that he will be able to show the public that he is in line for a fight."

TO FIGHT GUNNER MOIR.

A cable from Manager A. F. Bettinson, of the National Sporting Club, of London, has been received by Sam Langford, of Philadelphia, informing him that he has been matched for a battle with Gunner Moir before that club for the heavyweight title of England. Langford is a colored fighter of considerable repute. In 1903 he won over Joe Gans in a fifteen-round battle at Boston. He has since become a heavyweight.

The bout is set for the second week in April and it is left with Langford, whether he trains at home or in England. The only conditions are that the referee shall be posted before March 20th with the editor of a London sporting paper.

SKATING.

A ROLLER CONTEST.

As a result of a roller skating contest at the Fort street rink last night, F. Lelievre has won the title of champion of Victoria. The race proved somewhat of a fiasco, inasmuch as all the contestants with the exception of the winner came to grief. There were a fair number of spectators present.

SHIPPING NOTES.

Derelict Sighted South of Cape Flattery—Trial Trip of Steamer President.

Outward bound for San Francisco the steamer City of Topeka left the outer wharf at 7.30 last night.

The little steamer Oscar reached the outer wharf yesterday afternoon, where she is now loading a cargo of salmon.

While bound for Esquimalt, which she reached on Sunday, the German steamship Hermonthis sighted a derelict south of Cape Flattery. The derelict is described as a hull, low in the water with a few ribs showing.

The steamship President, which will be shortly brought to the Sound and operated by the Pacific Coast Company, has been satisfactorily tried on the Atlantic. The ship exceeded the contract speed of fourteen knots by two knots, making sixteen knots an hour.

—A regular meeting of the Natural History Society was held on Monday in their rooms in the parliament buildings. The recent severe weather and the prevalence of la grippe amongst the members have seriously interfered with the regularity of the meetings. The Beacon Hill garden committee reported that they had procured and planted a number of the plants of the "syringa" and "sprieva," at the site of the future garden at the park. A large amount of routine business was transacted, and the meeting adjourned at a late hour.
