THE DOORPLATE IMPOSTOR.

Dr. A. Stuttaford's Experience with the Young Englishman Claiming Kinship.

Editor World: In yesterday's World I observed a statement made by Dr. Workman to the members of the Ontario Medical Association concerning a young man who had learned the doctor's name from his doorplate, and in an interview with him wished him to believe he was a relative of his. As a warning to my fellow citizens, and I might say countrymen, I would like to describe this impostor, who similarly dealt with me, but to somewhat greater extent. He called at my private house and saw my wife, stated his name was "Stuttaford," a relative of mine from Exeter England, and made an appointment to meet me at 7.30. As I was born in Devonshire I naturally concluded his statement was correct and at some inconvenience kept the appointment. He came, and in a language "quite English you know," wished me to give him an order on my butcher and baker, as his wife and family, who resided at 141 Jamesoutreet avenue, Parkdale, were requiring the necessaries of life. If I could accommodate him with $20 it would be the means of relieving him from his present wants, and he would faithfully return the amount on receiving a remittance, which he was sure to do from his mother (whose maiden name was Suell) in the course of three weeks.

I certainly did not know anything of the "Snell" lady. In conversation he told me he had striven hard to get employment, and had letters of introduction to no less people than the Bishop of Toronto and Dalton McCarthy, Q.C. I relieved his temporary wants and promised to endeavor to get him employment. I took a specimen of his handwriting, which is beautifully written, and which he wrote in my presence. The next day I worked on the sympathies of a friend of mine and procured him employment. I wrote to him (the young man) to present himself at my friend's office. The letter was returned endorsed: "No such person known," and on my personal inquiry I found no such person ever lived there. This interesting youth is about 25 or 30 years of age, complexion dark, rather below the medium height, wears dark hair on his upper lip, no whiskers, speaks nicely, and makes his tears flow at will. A. STUTTAFORD.

Extension and Widening of Czar-street.

NOTICE.

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto intend to pass a by-law in pursuance of the "Municipal Act," for levying a frontage rate to defray the cost of extending CZAR-STREET, easterly to Yonge-street, and to widen Czar-street from North-street to St. Nicholas-street, and that a statement showing the lands liable to pay the said rates and the names of the owners thereof, so far as can be ascertained from the last revised Assessment Roll, is now filed in the office of the City Clerk and is open for inspection during office hours.

The total cost of the work is estimated $13,040, which will be assessed as follows:

Three-sixths of the amount ($6520) will be assessed on the property abutting on CZAR-STREET, from the PARK to NORTH-STREET.

Two-sixths of the amount ($4347) will be assessed on the property abutting on CZAR-STREET from NORTH-STREET to the WEST LINE OF YONGE-STREET, less the allowance of sixty feet for flankages;

And the balance, one-sixth of the amount ($2173) will be assessed on the property abutting on BALMUTO-STREET, between a point 135 feet SOUTH OF BLOOR-STREET and CZAR-STREET, and on the property abutting on ST. NICHOLAS-STREET from CZAR-STREET to ST. MARY-STREET, less the usual allowances for flankages.

And, further, that unless a majority of the owners of the lands liable to pay the sad rate, representing at least one-half in value thereof, petition the said Council against such assessment within one month after the last publication of this notice, which will be on the 20th day of June, 1888, the said bylaw will be passed.

A Court of Revision will be held at the City Hall on the 6th day of July, A.D. 1888, at three o'clock p.m., for the purpose of hearing complaints against the proposed assessment or accuracy of the frontage measurements or any other complaints which persons interested may desire to make, and which are by law cognizable by the Court.
