Diarrhoea

MAY attack you at any time of the year, but it is more prevalent during the summer months. When this trouble attacks you, it does not pay you to experiment with untried remedies, but always procure one that has stood the test of time. Such a one is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It has been on the market for 60 years and is considered by thousands of people as the best cure for all bowel complaints.

MRS. WILFRID TOMLINSON, Victoria Harbor, Ont., writes: "I always keep Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the house, knowing from past experience that it is a sure and efficient remedy in diarrhœa and kindred bowel complaints."

RUSS PRISONERS TURN ON GUARDS

Start Revolt Over Ruthless and Unnecessary Murder of Girl Prisoner.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 10.—There was a revolt today in the central detention prison, in consequence of the death of Mlle. Semenova, a girl of 22, a young and enthusiastic Social Democrat, who was shot and killed instantly by a sentry when she showed herself at the window of her cell overlooking the courtyard.

The furious prisoners expelled the wardens, barricaded the prison and laid the corpse of Mlle. Semenova upon an improvised bier in the central cell, refusing to deliver it to the authorities and swearing they would die rather than surrender it

Troops were summoned, but the authorities, fearing bloodshed, temporized and sent for the brother of Mlle. Semenova, to whom the insurgents delivered the body.

The Grand Duke Nicholas, after an investigation of the affair, personally ordered the dismissal of the officer of the guard, which was drawn from the unpopular Seminovsky regiment.

Mlle. Semenova was a medical student and was seeking to divide with the prisoners some sugar which she had surreptitiously obtained when she was shot.

A courtmartial at Cronstadt will take up tomorrow the processes against M. Onipko, the peasant leader in the outlawed parliament, and three other civilians. Onipko's wife is so apprehensive of the outcome of the trial that she has made several efforts to reach the Empress in order to beseech clemency for her husband, and has asked the municipality of Stavopol to telegraph direct to the Emperor in her husband's behalf.

Onipko, who has not been allowed an attorney, will be defended by an officer. He has been confined in a cell five feet by nine, and has been treated with the greatest rigor. A soldier, armed with a rifle, is stationed constantly at the window of his cell.

The authorities claim to have the most damaging testimony against him, and assert that he has been identified as one of the agitators, who, disguised as sailors, organized the uprising at Cronstadt last July.

PALMA DECLARES PEACE TALK OFF

Cuban Government Decides to Fight Insurgents to a Finish.

Havana, Sept. 10.—President Palma tonight issued a decree suspending all constitutional guarantees in the Provinces of Pinar Del Rio, Havana and Santa Clara.

The law enforcing public order, which is equivalent to martial law, also is put in immediate effect in the three provinces named.

A supplemental decree has been issued suspending the decree of Aug. 28, pardoning repentant rebels and ordering that all rebels be arr
