CHARLES FLETCHER,
No. 54 YONGE STREET, ... TORONTO.
Has just received a full supply of the
ECONOMIC COTTAGE BUILDER
—OR—
COTTAGES FOR MEN OF SMALL MEANS,
ADAPTED to every locality, with instructions for choosing the most economical materials afforded by the neighborhood; to which are added many valuable hints and useful observations. Illustrated with 24 tinted designs on stone. By Charles P. Dwyer, Architect and Civil Engineer. In one octavo volume, cloth, gilt, illustrated, price $1 25. Mailed, post paid, on receipt of the retail price.

Published at Buffalo, N. Y., by Wanser, McKern & Co.

Extracts from notices of the Press, &c.
The Texas Portfolio (Galveston) says—"A work of utility to the aspiring and enterprising working man."

The Boston Evening Transcript says—"We have examined this work with care, and we cordially commend the book to the attention to those of small means, for whose benefit it was prepared."

The Ingersoll Gazette says—"Those of our readers who contemplate building, should first read this book, as the suggestions it contains as to the proper material to be used, and the manner of building, cannot be too highly rated."

The Boston Atlas says—"It is adapted to every locality, contains indispensable instructions, invaluable observations, and numerous illustrations. To the builder this publication must be a work of no ordinary value."

The New York Evening Mirror says—"If the suggestions of this volume could prevail, millions of dollars would be saved annually in building, and the face of the country would soon take on a smile of architecture."

The Louisville Journal says—"It is particularly adapted to such localities as exist here, and in all directions around us. It is exactly what our market has for a time required."

The New York Dispatch says—"The engravings are very fine. We honestly recommend the book to those for whose use the author has written it."

The Philadelphia Saturday Courier says—"No more seasonable or useful work could have been presented for popular use. Every homestead and Building Association should be supplied with this and similar works."

The Michigan Argus says—"Any man, designing to build him a home, can get more than the worth of his money by purchasing this volume."

The Sunday Dispatch says—"The mission of this book is to teach men of small means how easily they may fashion for themselves, out of the roughest materials, tenements which will please the eye of every person of taste. The publication is a useful one."

The Wisconsin Mirror says—"Any person who intends ever to build will do well to buy it."

The Livingston Union says—"The book will be a valuable aid to these engaged in house building."

The Sandhusky "Mirror" says—"This is just the book needed, and will commend itself to those for whose benefit it is designed."

The Brantford "Expositor" says—"There is no work before the public at well adapted as this one to supply the wants of the great majority of the people."

☞ Any newspaper in Canada inserting the foregoing three times, and sending a copy of the paper to Charles Fletcher, Toronto, C. W., will receive from him at his store, without charge, a copy of the book, and a copy of Burns' Poetical Works, 12 mo.

FARMER'S GUIDE.
Great Reduction in the Price of the latter Publication.
Leonard Scott & Co.
NEW-YORK,
Continue to Re-publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:
1.
THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, Conservative.
2.
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, Whig.
3.
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, Free Church.
4.
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, Liberal.
5.
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE, Tory.

The great and important events—Religious, Political and Military—now agitating the nations of the Old World, give to these Publications an interest and value they never before possessed.—They occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news items, crude speculations, and lying rumors of the newspaper, and the ponderous Tome of the historian, written long after the living interest in the facts recorded shall have passed away. The progress of the War in the East occupies a large space in their pages. Every movement is closely criticised, whether of friend or of foe, and all shortcomings fearlessly pointed out.

The letters from the Crimea and the Baltic in Blackwood's Magazine, from two of its most popular contributors, give a more intelligible and reliable account of the movements of the great belligerents than can elsewhere be found

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory and Radical,—but Politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality and Religion, they stand as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensible to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, that can possibly be obtained from any other source.

THE FARMER'S GUIDE
TO SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL AGRICULTURE.
BY HENRY STEPHENS, F. R. S., of Edinburgh, and the late J. J. Norton, Professor of Yale College, New Haven, 2 vols. Royal Octavo, 1600 pages, and numerous Wood and Steel Engravings.

This is, confessedly, the most complete work on Agricultre ever published, and in order to give it a wider circulation, the publishers have resolved to reduce the price to FIVE DOLLARS FOR THE TWO VOLUMES!!

When sent by mail, post paid, to California and Oregon, the price is $7. To every other part of the Union and to Canada, post paid, $5.

☞ This work is NOT the old "Book of the Farm."

Remittances for any of the above publications, should always be addressed, post paid, to the Publishers,

MAGNIFICENT WORK OF HISTORY.
A whole Library in itself—No Library is Complete without it!
Cost $11,000—1223 Pages—70 Maps—700 Engravings.
HISTORY OF ALL NATIONS!
FROM THE EARLIST PERIOD TO 1854;
OR,
Universal History,
In which the
HISTORY OF EVERY NATION, ANCIENT AND MODERN, IS SEPARATELY GIVEN.
BY S. C. GOODRICH,
Author of Paris, and Author of Several Works of History, Parley's Tales, &c.
THE HEARTFUL COMMENDATION.
Read the following from the Detroit Inquirer, and from LEVI BISHOP, Esq., President of the Board of Education of Detroit. It corroborates the testimony of hundreds of our best scholars and friends of the country.

Mr. Goodrich's 'History of all Nations,' the reading public have at last offered to them a book whose value can hardly be estimated. Its terse and compact style—its clear and graphic description, aided by Maps and pictorial Illustrations, together with its comprehensive views of the principal events and characters which have marked the different periods of the world's history—must recommend it alike to the general reader and the student.

But among the chief excellencies of the work, will be found two, which we mention more particularly acknowledged valuable. We mean the general arrangement by which the history of each nation is presented separately—instead of chronologically—and the full and complete index to the whole work—combining an admirable text-book with an agreeable history. Indeed, it may be said that no book combining these qualities, in the present degree, has been issued from the press. It is an historical library in itself, and the labor may justly claim pre-eminence for presenting its lessons in a most attractive style.

The mechanical execution of the book is of the first order. It is in two volumes, royal octavo, and contains 1223 pages. The illustrations are apropriate and distinct, and add much to the attractiveness of the work. The various maps will be found very convenient, being interspersed among the texts, and especially full in relation to the particular countries under consideration.

"The following letter from Levi Bishop, Esq., President of our City Board of Education, in relation to the above work, will convince our readers that our own judgment has not formed too high an estimation of its superiority:—

"A library in the country is complete without it. It should be in every public and private library, and in every family.

"I have looked through this great work, and find it one of the most complete and perfect compends, of history, chronology, geography and biography that I have ever seen. It has a map of nearly every country on the globe, and is beautifully illustrated with several hundred engravings. It is substantially and elegantly bound in two large volumes, and contains more than twelve hundred doubl. column pages. It contains internal evidence of having been the result of years of careful literary labor. The engagement is to be highly commended, taking up as it does, each nation, tribe, race and the like, and carrying them from the earliest times down to the period.

"It has a full index, referring to any person or event that has been sought. It is the very book for the mass of the American people," and I hope that the distinguished author and publisher will be abundantly rewarded, as I deem it to be, by a large and rapid sale of the work.

"LEVI BISHOP,
President of the Board of Education,
"Detroit.

"Dated Oct. 28, 1855."
