Daniel Clarke, Seaforth, sold two year old driving colts, sired by "Mohawk Chief," to John Ward for $200

The C. P. R. train got snow-bound between Wingham and Glenannan Wednesday morning. The first of the season.

During the half-year ending December 31st, there were recorded with the Clerk of Clinton, 26 births, 18 marriages, and 13 deaths.

Henry Keys, Ethel, had his leg broken last Wednesday, by a kick from one of his horses. The limb was set and the patient is doing nicely.

T. Agnew, Wingham, sold a fine pair of matched horses to Dr. Hair, of Whitby Ladies' College, for the sum of $370. The span was shipped to-day.

The old horse left at Garner Nicholson's, Morris, the time some thief stole one of Mr N's has been claimed by a man from near Gorrie. He said the old nag was stolen from him.

Miss McGregor, who has been laboring as a missionary in India for a number of years, is on a visit to her aunt, Mrs McKay, 8th con, Grey. Miss McGregor's former home was Galt.

John Kenrick, of Wawanosh, has returned from the Michigan lumber woods, and reports dull times on account of there being no sleighing. The boys are finding out there are worse places than Wawanosh.

Mr James Hodgson, Exeter, who was found in the woods in a badly frozen condition, and who, it was feared, would not recover, is doing nicely. The fingers of his left hand and one of his right have been amputated.

Robt Sample has leased his 50 acre farm on the 3rd line, Morris, to Rich Armstrong for a term of seven years, Mr Sample will continue to reside on the same lot. Mr Armstrong has now 250 acres under his control.

Chas Dames, Cranbrook, has purchased Hiram White's saw mill and moved it into town. We understand Mr Dames will have it in running order shortly, and no doubt parties wanting sawing done will be accommodated on shortest notice.

A telegram was sent from Brussels to reeve Pat Kelly, of Blyth, on Monday evening, containing the following: "We repudiate your interference in our municipal affairs by electing W H McCracken reeve by a majority of 45,"

"BRUSSELS."

On the 16th of December, at Moose Mountains, N. W. T., C H Wilson, of Winnipeg, was married to Miss Maggie, youngest daughter of Wm Warner, a former resident of the 12th con. of Grey township. Their friends here wish them prosperity.

Wm Norton, Brussels, who went out for a widow near Wingham, and who owns a fast horse, neglected to vote before going and got back with his charge a few minutes past five. Billy should have remembered the old adage "That a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush."

On Tuesday afternoon of last week, Frank Oliver, of Grey township, met with a peculiar accident. He had felled a tree which fell on a thorn bush and in chopping the latter his left hand was pierced through with a thorn. Mr Oliver has been laid up for some time with the accident.

A serious accident happened to Fred. Harris on Wednesday afternoon last week, in Messrs Broadfoot & Box's furniture factory, Seaforth. It appears he was engaged in running a circular saw when in some unaccountable way his hand came in contact with the saw severing three fingers from his left hand. Dr. Scott dressed the injured member, and he is now doing as well as can be expected.

John McMillan formerly of Goderich township, writes from Michigan as follows:—"I have bought one hundred and sixty acres of land within three miles of Frankford at two thousand five hundred dollars. Our two boys, Wm. and George, are in the lumber woods, and are getting twenty-five dollars a month and board They would be a long time in Canada before they would get that."

J D Ronald, Brussels, shipped one of his fine steamers to Winnepeg fully two weeks ago. Worthas already been received that it safely arrived there, the C. P. R. pushing it right through. It has been tested before the mayor and some of the councillors and the fire department. It got up steam quickly, threw two powerful steady streams over 100 feet high, which satisfied the spectators completely.

On Tuesday evening last week as Robert Richardson and W. Reed were returning home from Varna the horse took fright, starting quickly, when Mr John Reed sent was either thrown out or jumped out, falling on his head. He was picked up insensible and carried to the residence of Andrew Duncan; he has not recovered sufficiently to be removed to his fathers house, but we hope to see him around again.

The convention of the Ontario Creamery Association will be held in the City Hall, Guelph, on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 18 and 19th. About three o'clock on Thursday morning last week, the Royal hotel, Gorrie, was discovered to be on fire. A fearful wind was raging at the time and the fire soon reached the hotel sheds and stables, from which it spread to Mrs. Allison's grocery. The Royal was run by Mr. Cushman, who had no insurance and lost everything; he and his family only escaped with their lives. Mrs. Allison, who lived over her store, had her household effects and her goods removed; insured for $400.

Mrs Mitchell, of the 5th con., Colborne, mother of Mrs Stevenson, Clinton, died last week. The deceased lady, who has been in poor health for many years, but still able to be about, got up on Sunday, and shortly afterwards complained of a pain in her back, she never recovered from the effects thereof. She was one of the early settlers of the township, a member of the Methodist church even before she left England, and her life was most exemplary and consistent. Mrs D Jewell, of Colborne, was also a daughter, and two sons still living in Colborne comprise the family.

Nile.

Seeing that our neighborhood is not often represented in your paper, I send you a few items.

Nile Methodist S. S. had their annual Xmas tree on the 24th, and anniversary sermons on the 25th of December. Rev H Irvine preached to the children in the morning, and Rev Alex MacMillan, of Smith's Hill, in the evening. Proceeds of Xmas tree and Sunday collections $43.

Rev W F Campbell, of Dungannon circuit, preached here in Methodist church on New Year's Day.

Nile and Dungannon circuits are now separate, and each is prospering.

John Cantelon has sold a building lot to the trustees of the parsonage board for $55. It is a fine site for the first class brick house that is to be built.

Building property is very high in Nile. When the C. P. R. runs through the village it will rise from $[illegible] an acre to ——, well! I guess no one will sell. Our village is often hurt by the unreasonable prices of lots, keeping good men from purchasing.

Miss Amelia Hetherington's lengthened visit to London leaves Nile without a church organist; hence the singing is less attractive. Miss Dorothy Hetherington's cheerful face was seen at Nile during the holidays. She is spending the winter in Goderich.

Jesse Gummett is preparing to erect a brick dwelling next summer. Two new brick houses will add to the appearance of our village.

James Girvin is preparing to erect a new barn.

A great number of logs are being drawn to Mr McWhinney's mill.

Mrs Thos Holmes, of Ayr, is visiting her daughter, Mrs Henry Irwin.

A terrible accident occurred near the Nile on Saturday. John Johnston, a young man twenty years of age, was assisting his brother drawing logs. At a steep hill the teams were doubled. As he stopped to fasten the whiffletree, a horse of the front team kicked at a horse in the hind team, striking young Johnston in the head. The work of the horse's shoe entered his temple causing instantaneous death. This sudden death is a terrible shock to relatives and acquaintances. His funeral took place Monday. The widowed mother has the sympathy of many hearts in her hour of trouble.

Leeburn.

Miss Linfield, late of Newfoundland, after enjoying a pleasant visit here has returned to Toronto,

Miss E Fulford, of Goderich, spent her holidays with her cousin, Miss M Fulford.

With pleasure we notice that our old friend R E Brown is still in the school arena, and the scholars of his section presented him with a soft chair. Mr Brown taught No 5 here for some years.

Wm Carter enjoyed a pleasant week's visit to friends in the Auburn City recently.

D Stirling attended the funeral of his father in Goderich township last week. Deceased died at the advanced age of 96 years. We might note that he was one of the oldest voters on the list in the late election for the Dominion House. He supported the Reform candidate.

Two calves made their appearance at Hope Farm on New Year's morn, and their advent has caused quite a change of views among the farmers in making a call to exercise the privilege that this year has conferred on them.

A wee mouse the other day made himself a comfortable nest in a bachelor's overcoat, which its owner discovered to his surprise when taking over the future domestic happiness that leap year might bring him.

PERSONAL. — After an absence of several years the cheerful countenance of Chas Jefferson, now of the sunny village of Porter's Hill, lighted up our hamlet, on a visit to old friends here, with whom he had quite a chat over the old events of the famous literary contest five years ago.
