SAM. R. BROWN.

Grand Secrétaire.

The prayer "Deliver us from evil" is idler than the breath which utters it unless it means that we hate evil, that we will oppose it in every way, and do all in our power to overcome it. It is mockery to pray "Deliver us from evil" and then go on deliberately in evil.—Anon.

We should pray for temporal favors under condition of their being expedient both to our own welfare and to the honor of God. God may be dealing mercifully with us in granting our requests, or be treating us with still greater mercy in not granting them.—Anon.
