Shortcomings on Railroads.—Of the one hundred and fifty-one railroads which have been chartered by the Legislature of the state of New York, but thirty have been constructed.

A Fatal Jest.—A young lady in one of the seminaries of New York, indulged in the pleasantry of frightening a school mate, by appearing before her in the solemn dress of the grave. So perfect was the deception, so terrible the shock, that the frightened young lady fell senseless to the floor, and has not yet recovered her reason. It is feared that she is a maniac for life. The silly and heartless girl who committed the mischief, should be sent to the penitentiary for as long time as her victim is confined by madness, even if it be to the end of her life.—Boston Courier.

Flour from Montreal.—The brig Sterling, Pike, master, arrived here on Saturday with 1400 barrels of Ohio flour, to J. B. Brown. This is probably the first lot of flour ever brought here direct from Canada. [Portland Advertiser.]

THE RECEPTION OF KOSSUTH, who is expected to reach America within a short period, will doubtless be more brilliant than anything of the kind that has happened in this country, except that given to General Lafayette. We notice by the despatches that the President has caused orders to be issued to the various naval stations to fire salutes and extend all the military honors on his arrival and passage through the country. It is expected he will proceed from New York to Washington, where a grand dinner will be given him at the Presidential Mansion.

THE "BLACK SWAN."—A colored lady, named Eliza Greenfield, is creating quite a sensation in musical circles at Buffalo. She is said to have a very powerful and sweet voice, and is to give a concert shortly. She is called the "Black Swan."

FIRE.—A party of Canadians called a meeting at the Revere House just before leaving the City, after the late celebration, and passed the following spicy and expressive resolutions:—

Resolved, That there is one place in the United States besides New York:

Resolved, That that place is Boston.—(Boston Bee.)

THE MACKAREL FISHERY.—Several hundred barrels of mackarel have been taken in this harbour during the past three days. The hook and line fishery at Sable Island has, up to the present period, resulted in complete failure.—Nova Scotian.

The death of James Buchanan, Esq, formerly the British Consul in New York, is recorded in the Montreal papers. He died at Elmwood, near that city, in the 81st year of his age.

[From the Boston Chronotype.]

Consumption is the great curse of our Northern latitudes. It is the blight of domestic felicity and the despoiler of beauty. It robs the cheek of its healthful bloom, the mind of its serenity, and the eye of its brilliancy. It wastes the form, dims the intellect, and plunges its victim into an early grave. The young and the old, the serious and the gay, the city belle, the country lass, are alike its prey and its victims. Blessings on the man, then, whose genius and research furnished us weapons to bid defiance to this "Dweller of the Threshold!" He merits the applause and gratitude of ages;—he shall have ours, at least.

One of the most important discoveries of modern science, for the cure of pulmonary affections, is the BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and the credit of its discovery is due to the celebrated Dr. Wistar. This valuable compound has restored thousands of sufferers to health. It is expectorant, tonic and demulcent, and is said to be a purely vegetable preparation. Under its magic influence the most obstinate coughs, colds, and bronchial irritations disappear. We have used it, and can recommend it, particularly at this season, when the great cause of disease, east winds are so prevalent.

The following obituary notice, which we extract from the Naval and Military Gazette of the 20th Sept. will be received by the friends of the late Commander ROCHFORT in this Province, with deep regret:

"Commander Gustavus Robert Rochfort, (1828,) died at Plymouth on the 11th inst. He was born in 1799, and entered the Navy 27th Sept 1799. The deceased was the second son of the late Henry Rochfort, Esq., 28th Regt.—Three of his uncles (the eldest, George, a General of Artillery,) were also in the Army; his grandfather, Arthur Rochfort, LL.D., was M. P. for Westmeath; his grand uncle, Robert Rochfort, likewise M. P. for that County, was created, 29th Nov. 1756, Earl of Belvidere; and his great grandfather, the Right Honorable George Rochfort, M.P., who married a daughter of the third Earl of Drogheda, filled the office of Chief Chancellor of the Court of Exchequer.—The father of the latter gentleman, Robert Rochfort, was appointed Attorney General in 1695, chosen Speaker of the House of Commons in Ireland in the following August, and constituted, in June, 1707, Chief Baron of the Exchequer. Commander Rochfort, who was male representative of the house of Rochfort, which has been seated in Ireland since the days of Strongbow, was second son of the late Capt Wm. Rochfort, R. N. This officer entered the Navy 27th Sept. 1799, as A. B. on board the Hardum, 64, Captain G. Burton, with whom he continued employed in the Mediterranean, in the Africaine, 36, and as Midshipman in the Venerable, 92, until paid off in April, 1802. He next, in March, 1803, joined Calcutta 54, Capt D. Woodriff, in which ship, on his return from escorting convicts to Van Diemen's Land, he proceeded as Master's Mate to St. Helena for convoy. During her passage home, the Calcutta, after having beaten the French 40-gun frigate Armide, was attacked 26th Sept. 1805, and at the end of a gallant action of three quarters of an hour, productive to her of a loss, out of 343 men, of six killed and six wounded, unavoidably captured by the 74-gun ship Majestueux, part of a squadron under the orders of Rear Admiral Allemand. Mr. Rochfort remained a prisoner in France until October, 1809. On 26th April, 1811, (two months after he had been ordered to act as such,) he was confirmed a Lieutenant in the Mutine, brig, Capt. Nevinson de Courcy, on the Brazilian station, whence, in June 1812, he invalided. In June 1813, and Feb. 1814, he joined the Chesapeake, frigate, and Pantome, 20, Capts. A. Gordon and J. Lawrence, both on the coast of North America; and from 29th Sept. in the latter year, until 5th July 1815, he commanded, in the Bay of Fundy, the Landrail, cutter, in which vessel he beat off five American privateers of superior force. He afterwards commanded, (on the Plymouth station) the Lapwing, Revenue cruiser, from 4th March, 1819, until 1822; and the Bittern, 10, from 31st December 1825, until advanced to the rank of Commander, 10th March, 1828. He has since been on half-pay. Commander Rochfort married, 12th Sept. 1814, Maria, daughter of the late Hon. George Leonard, of Rosemount, in Sussex Vale, New-Brunswick, North America, Superintendent of Trade and Fisheries, and had issue two daughters."
