THE REPORTER

FARMERSVILLE, NOV. 20, 1888.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

FARMERSVILLE AND NEIGHBORHOOD BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pencil.—Local Announcements Boiled Right Down.

Miss Judd is assisting at revival services in Renfrew.

Large salmon are being caught in the Rideau, near Portland.

Building operations are still exceedingly brisk in Farmersville.

Tobacco as low as 30c. per pound at A. Parish & Son's.

The 20c. and 25c. teas at A. Parish & Son's are having a big run.

The rate of assessment at Kemptville is 23 mills on the dollar.

Miss Birdsell and Miss Mason have been conducting revival services at Westport.

Rev. W. Mickle, a Presbyterian divine, is holding revival services in Brockville.

The Recorder says the name of Farmersville will probably be changed to Athens.

The time to subscribe for the REPORTER is now. One dollar pays for it to the end of 1889.

Wholesale Prices for Tobacco

Until Jan. 1st, at P. Wiltse & Co.'s, Farmersville:

Prince of Wales 48c., Briar 54c., Napoleon 48c., Diamond 48c., Honeysuckle 53c., T. & B. 20c. 2 Cable Cigars for 5c.

It will pay you to look at A. Parish & Son's stock of boots and shoes before buying.

The Leeds Union cheese factory, near Lyn, celebrated the end of the season with an oyster supper.

There is talk of carrying the Chancery case of Leeds and Grenville v. Brockville, to a higher tribunal.

Mr. J. M. Bishop, of the Brockville Times' staff, was in town last night, a guest at Mr. B. Loverin's.

The man Lappan, who is in gaol on the charge of brutal robbery, referred to in our last issue, elected to be tried by jury.

The REPORTER's list of regular subscribers now numbers 720. For a journal which is not four years old, that's a very good figure.

Mr. Geo. Bulford wants immediately a smart youth, from 12 to 16, as an apprentice to the tailoring. Applicants should address Farmersville.

Phil. Wiltse & Co., Montreal House, Farmersville, sell one gallon of headlight coal oil for 27c., and one gallon of silver star oil for 15c.

The Indians of this Province predict a mild winter, basing their prediction on observations of the actions of animals and birds.

The members of the Brockville Town Council have been photographed in a group. We did not hear that the camera sustained any injury.

"The Economy Engine and Machine Company, of Gananoque," has been formed with a capital of $100,000. The stock is being taken up rapidly.

Mr. Wm. Stevens has been very successful at Brockville, Prescott, and Spencerville, in collecting funds for the Farmersville Presbyterian Church.

A Kingston man has been fined $50, under the Crooks Act, for selling liquor to a man in respect to whom he had received notice not to sell any intoxicants.

The G. T R. cheap excursion to California leaves Brockville to-morrow, the 21st. G. T. Fulford, Brockville, is the man to get information and tickets from.

Sample Cash Prices

Of goods at the Montreal House, Farmersville, until Jan. 1st:

1 B. C. yarn, $1. Men's Rock Island Boots, $2.75. Overcoats at cost. Coon coats and astrachan mantles very cheap. Goat robes at cost. Yard wide cotton 5c. per yard.

In Lanark village entertainments are held to provide funds to defray the expense of lighting street lamps. What is the matter with a similar plan for Farmersville?

The party of deer hunters which included the editor of this paper returned from the woods to-day. They killed three deer and had good sport, of which more anon.

The second discourse on "Balaam the Soothsayer" will be delivered by the Rev. Jas. Pullar, in St. Paul's Church, next Sabbath evening. Subject: "The wages of unrighteousness."

Here is an example to follow: "A Wallaceburg girl who refused an offer of maraiage, sent the love-stricken young man a cheque for the amount she supposed he had invested in courting her."

Brockville is the paradise of bakers. The four pound loaf is now sold there for 16 cents—one cent more than at any other place in Ontario, and 6 cents more than the ruling price in some localities in the Province.

The Smiths Falls News insinuates that some of the citizens of that ambitious town have no more brains than a frog. We had a better opinion of Smith's Falls; but the News ought to know more about it than we do.

Teas

Will be sold at wholesale prices for cash at the Montreal House, Farmersville, until the 1st Jan. See prices:

5 pounds of tea for $1. 5 pounds for $1. 4 pounds for $1. 3 pounds best quality of tea in the market for $1.

The Rev. A. R. Johnston, of Westport, is a pronounced temperance man, and knows how to advance good arguments in support of prohibition and total abstinence, if we may judge from a recent sermon of his published in the Recorder.

The Directors of the Brockville Electoral Division Farmers' Institute meet at Mr. Cumming's office, Lyn, at 2 p.m. on the 22nd inst. The meeting is called for the purpose of arranging for the next public meeting of the Institute.

A Gravenhurst paper quotes the following from a local Salvation Army captain's prayer: "O Lord, if these backsliders will not get saved, and don't intend to get saved, take them to hell out of this." The Muskoka backsliders must be a bad lot.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Wm. Rudd, who died on Friday last, in the 72nd year of her age, took place on Sunday. The Rev. J. Wilson, B. A., conducted the service. A very large number of relatives and friends followed the remains to the cemetery.

The petition praying for the incorporation of Farmersville was circulated during the last few days by Deputy Reeve Berney, who will present it at the present session of the Counties' Council. The petition was signed by about 125 freeholders and householders.

Groceries

Will be sold at wholesale rates at the Montreal House, Farmersville, until Jan. 1st. Terms cash. Prices:

18 pounds bright mus. sugar, $1. 15 pounds ditto, $1. 14 pounds ditto, $1. 12 pounds granulated sugar, $1. 1 pound of baking soda, 3c. 1 pound of rice, 4c. 3 pound box of biscuits, 25c. 3 pounds of corn starch, 25c.

The remains of the late Mrs. John Green, Harlem, were disposited in the Farmersville cemetery vault yesterday. The deceased, whose maiden name was Eleanor Ganford, died on Saturday night last, at the advanced age of over 80 years. The funeral service was held in the Methodist Church, Harlem, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Wright, of Newboro.

There was a ripple of excitement in town between twelve and one o'clock Saturday night, when Will Palmer and Will Rockwood came down street and reported that they had seen two men, presumably burglars, enter the station through one of the windows. Fred Pierce and Wilson Riley put on a fierce look and went up to investigate. Beyond indications that a window had been raised and the waiting room entered by someone, everything was found all right. There was some change in the till, but it had not been touched.

COUNTY NEWS.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS.

A Budget of News and Gossip.—Personal Intelligence.—A Little of Everything, well Mixed up.

TOLEDO.

SATURDAY, Nov. 17.—The Rev. Mr. Porteous, late pastor of the Presbyterian Church here, paid his many friends in Toledo a visit this week.

Mr. Day, of Boston, Mass., made his friends and relatives in this section a visit this week. He left for home this morning.

Mr. Junkin, of the Sun Life Insurance Co., spent last night in the village. We understand he wrote some risks here.

Don't reckon your chickens before they are hatched is advice the "young man" in Frankville might take. He must know by this time that there's many a slip 'twixt cup and lip. Go in, Bob; we hope you'll win.

SPRING VALLEY.

MONDAY, Nov. 19.—James Warren has the contract of building Mrs. M. A. Cooper's dwelling in Brockville.

We have just received the sad news of the death of Mr. John Stephenson, of Markdale, son-in-law of Nathan Mott, of this place.

Mr. Edward Heywood, a noted English sport who has been rusticating among the Adirondacks for the past six months, has taken up a permanent residence here.

The referee in the late pugilistic encounter says that the next engagement will be fought in a barn four miles away. He declines giving further information. Betting is even.

WESTPORT.

SATURDAY, Nov. 17.—The special services in the Methodist Church are being carried on by the Rev. Mr. Tennant, the pastor, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson. Much to the disappointment of a large portion of the people, the expected help of the evangelists was lost, owing to the prejudices of two or three members.

The Church of England now holds its services, morning and evening, in the school house.

Mr. Andrew McCann will move into his new house in the village shortly.

A large number of our citizens drove over to Newboro for the concert on the 14th, and spent an enjoyable evening.

Jos. Shellington has been enlarging his carriage shop by the addition of a show room.

Jos. Conley has the contract for seating and doing other work in the interior of the Presbyterian Church. The brick work is now complete, and it is expected that the church will be ready for dedication in about a month.

Important to Councils.

By an amendment to the Municipal Act, township, village and town Councils are now required to meet on the 15th of December and prepare a statement of the municipal receipts and expenditures during the current year. This statement must be published in a newspaper having a local circulation, or must be printed in sheet form for distribution among the ratepayers.

How to Give up Smoking.

The Gananoque REPORTER tells of the sudden way in which a man at Lansdowne stopped smoking. Several nights ago he sat down on the railroad track, and filled his pipe, and while the lighted match was on its way he stopped and has not smoked since that moment. In excuse of those who have tried to quit and failed we may say that the motive which impelled this man to desist at that particular time was a locomotive which protruded itself upon his notice at the rate of eighteen miles an hour, cyclonically hurled him from the track, and mixed him promiscuously with a pile of ties and three panels of fence, breaking two of his ribs and cutting and bruising him in various parts of his body. It was effectual as a counter-blast to tobacco, but he does not recommend the plan for general adoption. He is recovering.
