THE OTTAWA CARNIVAL

LORD ABERDEEN WANTED IT POSTPONED FOR A SHORT TIME.

Comments on the Size of the New Cabinet — Bowell is in Poor Health and May Have to Go Abroad—Caron Would be Deputy.

Ottawa, Dec. 27.—The Governor-General has not increased his popularity in Ottawa by his letter stating that he would only keep his promise to open the winter carnival on condition that it was postponed from Jan. 21st to some time in February, because of the death of Sir John Thompson. It was pointed out publicly that His Excellency only suspended his social duties one week because of Sir John Thompson's death, and attended a convivial gathering last Saturday evening. There are no reasons for postponing the carnival, but many for keeping the original date. It must be held sometime before Parliament meets, which will be in February. The carnival dates have been posted from one end of the country to the other, and have been struck off on millions of envelopes, letter heads, etc., used in hotels and many business houses. Contracts have been let and many financial arrangements undertaken for the dates named. His Excellency's letter was taken into consideration at a special meeting of the Executive committee last evening when a resolution to postpone the carnival for the reasons given by the Governor-General was rejected, only the mover, Gen. Herbert, and the seconder voting for it. On motion of J. W. McRae one of the strongest men in Ottawa financially, politically, and commercially, it was resolved to proceed with the arrangements. W. Y. Soper thought they had good cause to resent the Governor-General's letter, because His Excellency had written one before suggesting a public meeting to consider whether Sir John Thompson's death should interfere and that a meeting had been called, and only five persons had voted for postponement. Of course Excellency's action will cause Gen. Herbert and some civil servants to hold aloof, but the carnival will now have great popular support.

Although the Comptrollers and Solicitor-General did not go out of office with members of the Cabinet, they have been re-appointed, nevertheless. Sir Adolphe Caron now stands second on the list of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada and in the event of Mr. Bowell having to go abroad for his health, Sir Adolphe will be acting Premier by virtue of his seniority. The other members of the Cabinet rank as follows: Sir Frank Smith, Mr. Costigan, Mr. Foster, Sir Hibbert Tupper, Mr. Haggart, Mr. Ouimet, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Daly, Mr. Angers, Mr. Ives, Mr. Dickey, Dr. Montague and Mr. Ferguson. This makes 15 Cabinet Ministers, compared with 10 for France, 13 for Germany, 11 for Italy, 9 for Spain, 8 for the United States, 12 for Japan, 12 for Russia, and 17 for the Imperial Cabinet of Great Britain. If the two Comptrollers and the Solicitor-General are counted as first-class members of the Administration, it makes 18 Ministers for Canada, or one more than is necessary for the management of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the whole British Empire, and more than twice as many as the United States, which has 12 times our population.

A long letter of 13 type-written pages of foolscap has been received by Lady Thompson under the date of Dec. 14th, from the Commissioner of Police, giving particulars of Sir John Thompson's movements prior to the tragedy and the details of the services since. Sir John sold Tupper that Dr. Russell Reynolds, the first physician he had consulted, did not take an unfavorable view of his case. The day he returned from Paris he complained to Sir Charles of difficulty in breathing.

Mr. Dickey will be elected by acclamation in Cumberland County, N. S.

Dr. Rogers saw Premier Bowell this morning and enjoined strict rest, and insisted that he should see nobody until his throat, which is irritated by talking, gets better. The physician does not know why impossible it is for the Prime Minister to avoid speaking to anyone, but the holidays are in Mr. Bowell's favor. He was in bed at noon. The cold and irritated throat require careful treatment.

The Ottawa Board of Trade passed a resolution last evening suitable to Sir John Thompson's death. The special official train for the funeral will leave Ottawa on Tuesday night, Jan. 1st, instead of Wednesday morning, as there may be delays on the road. It goes via Point Levis.

D. Pottinger, General Manager of the Intercolonial Railway, has reached Ottawa from Moncton in his private car, to take Lady Thompson and her family to Halifax. Lieut.-Governor Dewdney and his wife will accompany Lady Thompson.

Toronto, Dec. 27.—Hon. Wilfrid Laurier received his friends and followers in the office of the secretary of the Liberal club this morning. Mess. J. D. Edgar, M. P., R. S. Bird, Robt. Jaffray, Alfred Jury, Hon. C. S. Riggs, W. H. Pratt, the opponent of Col. O'Brien, M. P., and a number of others called. Jas. Sutherland was with his leader. Hon. Mr. Laurier said his object in coming was to get acquainted with his friends in Toronto. He will remain until Saturday. He said that if the elections were not held before June another session would be certain. "It would be taking an advantage of the Conservative party to go to the country at once, I should think," said Mr. Laurier. "The Government may meet to pass a gerrymandering act for Quebec, but I think that they can fix the Province in no better way than it is now." "You expect to sweep Quebec?" I asked. "Yes, and all the other Provinces," he answered. "The Conservative party is at sixes and sevens in Quebec. The local Legislature is disgusting the people. We will win Quebec."

Rev. John Philip and Nicholas Awrey, M. P. P., will form a deputation from the Grimsby Methodist park board of directors to interview the Hamilton and Grimsby electric railway company regarding its reported intention to construct a spur from the main line to the park. The deputation will ask the company which now operates its line on Sunday, if the intention is to continue Sunday cars, and if so the park directors will consider the advisability of closing the park gates on Sunday to all comers

Kingston, Dec. 27.—At a meeting of the city council last evening, Ald. McIntyre moved a resolution, seconded by Ald. Gasking, evincing the regret and sorrow of the citizens of Kingston at the untimely end of the late Sir John Thompson, and condoling with his widow and children. Ald. W. Robinson, a prominent Liberal, warmly endorsed the motion and it was unanimously carried.

GRIEVANCES AMONG INDIANS.

Rosebud, Agency, S. D., Dec. 27.—The first information made public by the Indians concerning the spirited ghost dancing said to have been going on for several weeks among the Indians of this and Pine Ridge reservations was given out yesterday through interviews with Big Turkey and High Shield, the Sioux Chief, who were leaders of the hostiles in the war of 1891, and who are men of great influence in their tribe. The Indians have been very reticent about the matter, and therefore have absolutely refused to talk with the whites on the subject. The chiefs were seen at their camps. Big Turkey at first refused to speak, but after a little while said: "I do not believe that my people will be so foolish as to go on the warpath again. They are holding councils and dances. I want to learn all I can and not while away my time in dancing and foolishness. Gen. Miles told me a great many good things. I have them on my heart and remember. I will tell you one thing. If the Government keeps its promise the Indians will keep theirs. We want to get what was promised us, I try to do the best I can and teach my children and young men it is wrong to fight. They should have schools not, away from us, but here on this reservation, where they may learn a trade and when they have advanced far enough the Government should give them work to do and let them receive pay for it. This will make them like white people. They will be glad to work and will make our hearts glad. We have been told from year to year that we should have a boarding school. Why don't we get it? You ask the great father to answer us this. One of our people also is sentenced to be hanged in the Black Hills at the end of this month. This makes us feel very bad, and that is why some say the young men are dancing the ghost dance. If they are dancing I don't know it. You remember four years ago, when we had the big council at Pin Ridge agency. I told Major Lee that I would not go out on the warpath again. I kept my word, and the great father should help and pity us. Let our people who are growing up learn to support themselves. We are taking our lands in severalty, which is good for us. We know how much each one has and we fence it. If I know of any ghost dancing I will send for you and you can see it. Our people are not bad. It is the bad white people who make trouble for us. We want to live in peace and do what is right, and the Government should do the same. You can tell the great father so through the big papers, and I know he will listen to us, as I am telling the truth and mean what I say." High Shield was inclined to be reticent about what was going on and would neither affirm nor deny that ghost dancing was in progress on the reservation. He said, however, that if Indians did dance they had a right to. The white man worships God in the way he likes, and he sees no reason why the Indian should not worship God in the way he wants to "Some of our people," he said, "worship God by dancing the ghost dance. Why should they not be stopped? Is it fair to the Indians? The Government has made so many treaties with us, have they ever kept them? General Crook made a treaty with us. The agent was sent here to give us our lands in severalty and he is doing it as fair as he can. Some must be surveyed. We gave our lands. We gave them the Black Hills. We gave away all our best lands. We have no water on our reservation, and we can raise no crops. We were told that we should have artesian wells, and our agent has done all he can to get them for us."

NEW YORK TALK.

New York, Dec. 27.—Defaulting transfer clerk Carter, of the National Bank of Commerce will have an examination this afternoon. He was very reticent today, refusing to discuss his case in any way.

Despatches from numerous points in this state, and from points throughout the New England states, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Maryland, says that snow has fallen throughout the night and still continues this morning. The snow is now several inches to two feet deep, and in many places travel is seriously impeded. In the city the snow is turned into rain in the early hours and the streets are almost impassible with slush. A northwest wind prevails and the water in the bay is unusually rough. Very few vessels have been reported as being sighted off the Hook, and fears are entertained for marine disasters.

Dominick McCaffery, the heavy-weight pugilist, was fined $3 in the Tombs court this morning. McCaffery was found in city hall park last night asleep covered with snow.

At the weather office it is stated that snow is general throughout the country.

Inspector Williams was again the star witness before the Department yesterday, and although pressed hard at times the inspector skillfully avoided making any serious incriminating admissions.

At the second day's meeting of the American Economic Association Commissioner of Labor Wright read a paper on the recent Chicago strike which he described as a "combination of strike and boycott."

MEETING OF THE SYNOD.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 27.—The first synod ever called by Bishop McDonnell of the diocese of Brooklyn meets tomorrow in the Cchurch of St. John the Baptist. Every clergyman of the diocese will be present. The services began at 9 o'clock with the celebration of pontificial high mass by Bishop McDonnell, shortly after which the opening session will be called to order. Then after the appointment of the necessary officers and committees the Synod will formally reiterate the main facts of the Catholic faith, followed by a summary of Catholic doctrine and of the sacraments used and the rites and ceremonies observed by the church. No legislation will be taken up until Friday. The Snyod will probably consider the school question and affirm in concurrence with the Baltimore council on that subject, and several other matters that will be brought to its notice by members will be considered. It is thought that Bishop McDonnell will take this occasion to inform the clergymen of his diocese whether it is his intention to go in person to Rome next year to render his report to the Holy Father, in view of the rumor that has recently become current in Catholic circles.

MINE WORKERS CONVENE.

Massillon, Dec. 27.—The District Miners' convention is being held to-day. Both Patrick McBride, secretary, and John McBryde, president, of the Union Mine Workers, expressed indignation over the verdict of the arbitration board. They propose a petition to the arbitration board to re-open the controversy, on the ground that the findings are not in accord with the evidence.

The officers of the United Mine Workers recommend the acceptance in the meantime of the award now made and to begin from the date of agreement ,to arbitrate to the present time. From now on they favor the nullification of the award and the acceptance of such terms as the operators may offer.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

Eureka, Cal., Dec. 27. The Overland stage driver arriving yesterday, reported that Jesse Faulkner, aged 40 years, and his son, aged 17 years, were found frozen to death near Bridgeville, in the southern part of the county on Sunday. The father and son left Bridgeville in a blinding snow storm on Saturday afternoon to walk home, a distance of six miles. Not arriving on Sunday morning another son was sent by the mother to look for them, and he found them within half a mile of home seated alongside the road frozen to death.

NATURALISTS ASSEMBLE.

Baltimore, Dec. 27.—At to-morrow's session of the annual meeting of the American Society of Naturalists Prof. C. S. Minot of Harvard, president of the society, will deliver his annual address on the subject, The work of the Naturalist in the World. Following this there will be a closing discussion upon Laboratory Teaching of Large Classes, participated in by Prof. Hyatt of the Boston Society of Natural History; Prof. Bumps of Brown University, and Prof. Ganong of Smith College.

DESERTING THE KNIGHTS.

Massillon, Dec. 28.—John McBride, president of the American Federation of Labor said last night that he certainly would use what influence he possessed to induce the miners to withdraw from the Knights of Labor. McBride is still Master Workman of District Assembly No. 135, and has no present intention of resigning, as he desires the organization to go with him. The national officers believe that the miners will cut loose from the Knights of Labor.

STOLE HIS WAD.

Piqua, O., Dec. 28.—Henry Fecker, a mechanic who ran for Congress on the Populist ticket last month, lost $2,000 by the failure of a bank in Indiana a few years ago. Since then he has been his own banker. His savings and those of his two sons, amounting to $4,750, mostly in small bills were sewed in a bag and kept in Fecker's bed-room. Yesterday while Mrs. Fecker was away, a thief took all the family treasure.

THE ETERNAL CITY.

Rome, Dec. 28.—The officers of the cruiser Detroit returned to Naples this evening. Prior to their departure they were received by the Italian Minister of Marine who expressed regret that the brevity of their visit prevented them from visiting the naval depots of Italy. The Detroit sails for China to-day. The Pope has completed the text of his encyclical.

DEATH OF A KING.

Vienna, Dec. 27.—Francis II., the last king of Naples, died to-day.

BLAKE THANKS JUDGES.

THE ABERDEENS AND THOMPSONS BOUND FOR HALIFAX.

Olga Nethersole Faints on the Stage —A Shock That Nearly Killed— Prominent Death—Stores Gutted by Fire.

Toronto Dec. 28.—The grain and flour milling firm of Sir W. H. Howland & Co., is now in course of liquidation, and will be soon wound up. The firm has done only a small business for two years past, owing largely to Sir William's great age and consequent infirmity. Sir William was, until a few months ago, president of the Ontario Bank, but he retired in favor of G. F. R. Cockburn M. P. He is still a leading director of several loan and financial concerns, but his once great fortune has been reduced. He shows a surplus of probably over $100,000.

Olga Nethersole, who is drawing only fair audiences at the Grand Opera House, was carried off the stage quite ill at the close of the performance on Tuesday night, when playing Juliet. She was noticed to fall very heavily and when the curtain went down she was again borne from the stage. She did not leave the theatre until two hours after the close of the play. In spite of that, however, she was at Jacobs & Sparrow's matinee yesterday, occupying a box and enjoying the show hugely. Last night she was again ill and the Grand was closed.

Rev. Wm. Inglis, assistant librarian at the Parliament buildings, was last night looking at an unprotected electric lighting apparatus in the library when he slipped and fell on to it. He received a shock that nearly killed him, and from which he is to-day confined to his room, with poor prospects of recovery.

Lindsay, Dec. 28.—Fire last night gutted Patterson's dry good store and damaged the stock of the adjoining store east owned by Kerr. The Simpson House was also damaged by fire and water.

Ottawa, Dec. 28.—Hon. Edward Blake, in replying to the tribute of the president of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council to the death of Sir John Thompson, said: "Perhaps Your Lordships will allow me, as a resident of Canada, to say how grateful I am that Your Lordships have thought fit to say a word upon the very tragic event which has occurred and to assure you that I believe the inhabitants of the Dominion will without distinction of party, receive with gratitude the expression of sympathy with a grief which they feel in common."

Charlottetown, Dec. 28.—Theo. L. Chappelle, one of the most prominent residents of this city, dropped dead in Carmody's restaurant last night. He had fallen on the sidewalk. He entered the place and complained of weakness and shortly afterward expired. He was publisher of Chappelle's Almanac.

Montreal, Dec. 28.—Lady Thompson, Miss Thompson and her eldest son arrived here to-day and are stopping at the Windsor. To-night they leave in company with Lord and Lady Aberdeen in the private car of the general manager of the Intercolonial railway for Halifax.

W. W. Smith's dismissal from the C. P. R. service was a subject before a meeting of the various temperance organizations to-day. The Dominion Alliance, Royal Templars, Good Templars and W. C. T. U. Communications from lodges from Halifax to Vancouver were read supporting Mr. Smith. The secretary was instructed to write to Mr. Tait the assistant general manager of the C. P. R., informing him that a deputation of five had been appointed by the meeting, and, if he desired it, would have a conference with him. Nothing will be done till Mr. Tait is heard from. Temperance people claim that Smith was dismissed because of his activity in temperance matters.

THE FEDERAL CAPITAL.

Sir John Thompson's Will Probated—He Died a Poor Man.

Ottawa, Dec. 28.—The usual papers for the administration of the estate of the late Sir John Thompson have been filed by Messrs. O'Connor & Hogg, on behalf of Lady Thompson, in the Surrogate court in the county of Carleton. Sir John died intestate. His estate is reported to at $9,727, of which $5,726 is from life insurance. It will thus be seen that Sir John had but little of this world's goods. Of the cash on hand there is an amount of $358, being 12 days' salary during the present month due to Sir John as Minister of Justice, which has been paid to Lady Thompson since his death. An item of $2,493 money in the savings bank is made up of sums which the late Premier managed to save from time to time while he was a resident of Nova Scotia. Of these deposits some of the debts due by the estate will have to be paid. These amount in the aggregate to about $1,200, composed chiefly of household accounts. Deducting this amount it will leave only $1,500 over and above the life insurance available for the family.

The Post-office department has under consideration the issue of an order conforming to that recently issued by the Imperial Government for the recognition of postcards of private issue, provided that they do not exceed the regulation size and that they have Canadian postage stamps attached. It is decided to allow lines to circulate it is probable also that the order may apply to the post-cards of private make intended for circulation in the mother country. Reply post-cards of private make are being received in Canada and are returned to England in the ordinary course of postage, even though English stamps are attached, Canada gaining no benefit from them.

A new proclamation has been issued declaring the value of foreign currency for customs purposes.

The dispute over the American fishing nets seized some weeks ago in Lake Erie by the Canadian Government cruiser Petrel, has taken an international turn and Commodore Wakeham's report has been forwarded to the British authorities, who will deal with the United States for this country. It is understood Commander Wakeham's report fully establishes Canada's contention that the seizure was made in Canadian territory between Point Pelee and Kelly's Island. The owners of the nets, however, claim that the nets wer eseized in an entirely different place from that sworn to by the Canadian officers.

NEWFOUNDLAND AFFAIRS.

St. John's, Nfld., Dec. 27.—Matters remain unchanged here. The report of the legislative committee of the condition of the suspended banks is not ready to be submitted to the Legislature, owing principally to the difficulty experienced in eliciting any information from the officials of the Commercial Bank. The report, however, is promised for today for certain. A general idea of the report of the committee leaked out yesteday, and it is stated that it will recommend the endorsement of the Union Bank's notes at the rate of 85 cents on the dollar, the notes not to be redeemable within two years. The report will also recommend the payment of 20 cents on the dollar for all notes of the Commercial Bank, payment not to be made on the shareholders of the bank. An expert representing the syndicate of English banks arrived on the steamer Ulunda. The steamer also brought a stock of specie to be used in general trade.

A NOTED CRIMINAL ARRESTED.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 27.—William August Lippert, alias W. A. Lazard, a criminal of international celebrity, has been arrested here and is now en route to New York. Lippert is charged with forgeries amounting to nearly $600,000 in Capetown, Africa. Lippert is the son of a wealthy people of Hamburg, Germany, and was put in the exporting business. He went to Capetown and became wealthy by bold speculation, but several years of reverses carried away his fortune. Two years ago the colony was startled by the announcement that Lippert had forged notes, bonds and other negotiable paper to the amount of £175,000 and had fled leaving, besides his worthless paper, a fortune in debts. The English Government interested itself in the case and the British consul in New York was directed to employ detectives. The Pinkertons, six months ago, located the forger in Louisville and later in Cleveland, but in both instances they were too late. Then he was located in Cincinnati as the Chicago Publishing & Lithographing Company. Detective Vanetta came here, but found Lippert has been discharged. Vanetta found Lippert lodging at 219 Race St., and took a room in the Oxford hotel. The British consul at Chicago being notified went before United States Commissioner Shields, who issued the necessary papers, and Marshal J. B. Bostwick came on here with them. The two officers saw Lippert leave his lodgings yesterday and arrested him. Lippert agreed to go to New York, and after drawing $80 from the Union Savings Bank, left for the metropolis.

Churchill Passed a Restless Night—China Must Give Satisfaction to the United States.

London, Dec. 28.—Early this morning the coffin containing the body of Mrs. Astor was removed from the Astor residence, Cliveden, and placed on board a train for Liverpool where it will be transferred to the steamer Aurania. Mr. Astor will accompany the body to New York.

Lord Randolph Churchill passed a restless night.

A Shanghai despatch says the United States Government has instructed Minister Denby to demand satisfaction from the Chinese Government for having violated the promise given in regard to the surrender of Japanese spies at Shanghai.

A Pekin despatch says that in accordance with a petition of the governor of Shantung asking the Emperor to punish Admiral Ting, the Taotai Kung and General Wei an edict has been issued ordering the immediate arrest and punishment of these officials.

Then he was located in Cincinnati as the Chicago Publishing & Lithographing Company. Detective Vanetta came here, but found Lippert has been discharged. Vanetta found Lippert lodging at 219 Race St., and took a room in the Oxford hotel. The British consul at Chicago being notified went before United States Commissioner Shields, who issued the necessary papers, and Marshal J. B. Bostwick came on here with them. The two officers saw Lippert leave his lodgings yesterday and arrested him. Lippert agreed to go to New York, and after drawing $80 from the Union Savings Bank, left for the metropolis.
