$27,000 profit out of one central property within the last six months to clients purchasing through us. We shall be pleased to disclose the particulars to any investor who may wish to satisfy himself as to the correctness of this statement. We strongly hold that misrepresentation in business is a fatal mistake and only submit the above to indicate one instance—out of many—why we prefer to advise our clients to put their money in central rather than outside property. Unless investors make jolly good profit and quick returns by purchasing through us, it is all moonshine to expect either their confidence or patronage.
