NEW YORK, March 21—Ev'ng.

In the Commons to-day, Gladstone in reply to a question of Mr. Townes, stated that since the conclusion of the Treaty of Washington correspondence had been going on in regard to its provisions, as they affected Canada, between the Colonial Secretary and the Governor General of Dominion. That correspondence was yet incomplete, and it would be impossible to produce it at present.

The report that the University boat race has fallen through in consequence of the withdrawal of the Oxford crew is not confirmed.

Mr. Cardwell, Secretary of War, announces the annual review will take place at Brighton.

The Italian Chamber of Deputies has adopted resolution of confidence in the Ministry.

Gold closed in New York yesterday at 109¾ to 109⅞.

In London Consols closed at 92⅞; 5-20's of 1862 92⅝; 10-40's 89¼.

In Paris rentes 55f. 57c.

Roman Catholics in the United States. A New Movement in the Church.

A movement is on foot among the Catholics in this country which is attracting attention both in and outside of that denomination. At a recent meeting of the societies in New Orleans Archbishop Perche presided and delivered an address in which he gave the details of a plan for the more effective organization of the whole Catholic population. He said he had written to Rome and received from Cardinal Barnado, Prefect of the Propaganda, instructions for the organization or a society to be known as "The Catholic Militant Union of the Cross." Its professed object is "to labor and combine resources for the defense of the church, of the Holy See, and for the promotion of the Catholic Religion, and is to include all male Catholics from fifteen years upward as regular members; all female Catholics from the age of eighteen upward as "Society of the Lady Auxiliaries;" and children from birth until their first communion are co-operative members.

According to the Archbishop's statement this new society was devised during the session of the late Council, and had the sanction of the Pope, Cardinals and Bishops there assembled. In fact the Pope is its head, and "one of the first principles of the new Union," says the Archbishop, "must be firm faith in the infallibility of the Pope." Branches of the society already exist in France, Belgium and other countries, and it is a significant fact that the Archbishop referred in his discourse to the International Society as illustrating the power which results from union and co-operation. The celebrated Order of Jesus might have been used to illustrate the same point. Whether it is simply a method of enlisting the Catholic laity in support of the dogma of infallibility, or whether it has some ulterior object, the organization of this "Catholic Militant Union of the Cross" will be watched with interest.

Nursery Rhymes, No. 2.

"A horse and cart swiftly running away,
Much damage once created:
Pompey's wooden leg in ruins lay,
His dog was decapitated;
But "LIQUID GLUE"—
Thrice happy thought—
Makes all such fractures stronger:
It cured the leg,
To make a long tale short,
And made the short tail longer."

—Tennyson.
