Note and Comment

The certified cheque of W. J. Lucy of Rainy River, Jack Hackett's backer, arrived yesterday, being the second instalment of his $1000 stake for the race on Sept. 7, with Eddie Durnan. The latter is expected to sign the articles and cover the above to-day or to-morrow. Both parties are agreeable to Mr. Galt of Winnipeg as referee. In case he cannot act, Durnan will suggest any other member of the Winnipeg Rowing Club.

The program of the O.J.C. autumn meeting, given in another column, shows that after all you must wait for the Woodbine for real racing. Also, there's no jostling among a foreign element to get your money up, and, besides, every cent wagered is won by the people. The O.J.C. purses this fall amount to $39,600, besides the cups and trophies.

The Leafs are in Providence to-day, having left Baltimore last night, apparently with their lives. They took little in the shape of scalps, leaving four of their own behind. With Rochester in Baltimore for three games, Toronto should gain some unless the incidents of the past few days were merely the beginning of a slump.

However, there's no reason that Kelley's men should not start on another winning streak to last long into the next home series that starts with Baltimore at the Island on Saturday. Rochester, too, strike the fireside for the same dates, when the four eastern teams make their final tour of the league year in the west. Garvey's men have now a lead of six and one-half games over Toronto, and the question is: Can the Leafs catch up?

Jack O'Brien, the Philadelphia light heavyweight, and Sam Langford, the Canadian negro fighter, will fight ten rounds at the Twentieth Century Club to-morrow night. Much interest centres on the bout, both because the winner will generally be acknowledged to be champion of his class, and because it will be a battle of an extremely clever boxer against a man slightly less clever but probably stronger. O'Brien, who has been training carefully, is said to be in excellent condition, and some ten pounds heavier than when he fought Ketchel. Langford's manager also says that the Canadian boxer is in first-class condition. He will weigh about 175 pounds, while O'Brien will do about 169.

National League Scores.

At New York—New York won both ends of a double-header from Philadelphia by scores of 3 to 2 and 5 to 4. The first contest was a twelve-innings pitching duel between Marquard and Alexander. The Giants' southpaw won, fanning thirteen men. The winning run was scored by Murray, who ran for Myers after the latter had got to first on a pass. Murray took second on Marquard's sacrifice and scored on Devore's two-bagger. Four of Moore's five passes developed into runs in the second contest. Wilhite was hit hard, but his support pulled him thru. A fine catch by Snodgrass prevented Lehr from tieing the score in the sixth. Scores:

At Pittsburg—Only for the drop of a thrown ball by Konetchy, Pittsburg would have been shut out by St. Louis. The visitors hit the ball hard and often enough to keep them in the lead from the second inning to the finish. Harmon gave nine bases on balls, but was given the best kind of support. Score:

St. Louis	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	1	3	10	1

At St. Louis—W. Mitchell bested Roy Mitchell in a pitchers' battle, and Cleveland won from St. Louis yesterday afternoon, 2 to 1. Graney walked and scored the winning run when Stovall doubled in the sixth. Score:

Cleveland	0	1	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	2	6	3
St. Louis	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	3	2

Batteries—W. Mitchell and Fisher; R. Mitchell and Stephens.

At Philadelphia—Boston won a pitchers' battle between Cicotte and Morgan here yesterday, by a score of 2 to 1. Only three hits were made off Morgan, but two of them drove in Boston's runs, while Cicotte was effective with men on bases. The winning tally was made in the eighth innings by Speaker, who got two bases on Collins' fumble, and scored when McInnes lost Engle's pop fly in the sun. The score:

Birds Show Excellent Form in the Field—Hustlers Continue to Win.

By W. J. SLEE.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 14.—(Staff Correspondence.)—The Orioles won the fourth and last game of the series with Toronto by shutting them out 2 to 0.

The game was a pitchers' battle between Adkins and Tesreau, and honors went to the big doctor who certainly pitched good ball, allowing the Leafs only three hits. He was backed by some excellent fielding and the home team played by far the best game of this series.

Shaw drew a base on balls in the opening inning, and on the hit and run O'Hara fouled out to Schmidt. Shaw was caught trying to steal second, while Bradley contributed a fly ball to Seymour.

Tesreau fanned Henline in the Oriole's half. Rath walked and stole second. Seymour whifted at three. Schmidt gave Vaughn a hard one, but was an easy out at first.

Jordan drew free transportation and advanced to second on Delahanty's well-placed sacrifice. Phelps hit a fast liner at Schmidt who doubled Jordan out to Parent. In Baltimore's half of the second Corcoran fanned, Tim Jordan dropped an easy foul off Parent who drew a base on balls and was then caught stealing on a good throw by Phelps to Vaughn. Walsh hit to Jordan for the third out.

Vaughn made a good stab for a hit, but Parent's fast throw beat him. Fitzpatrick by good waiting got a base and advanced to third on Tesreau's single to centre. Tesreau stole second and Shaw struck out in the pinch. With O'Hara at bat Egan made a snap throw to third and Fitzpatrick was declared out by Umpire Kerin, who first looked to see Umpire Kerin to make the decision, who was not looking. Corcoran never touched Fitzpatrick at all and looked surprised when his team commenced to walk off the field.

Baltimore's first run came in the fourth inning when Seymour walked and advanced on Schmidt's sacrifice. He reached third on a wild pitch and scored on Parent's fly to Delahanty.

The home team got their second run off Rudolph, who pitched the eighth inning, Lush having batted for Tesreau. Henline fanned, Rath singled and stole second. Seymour flew to Delahanty and when Schmidt doubled to right centre Rath scored.

After the umpires' fiasco in the third inning the Leafs did not have a chance till the eighth, when Phelps tripled to right. Vaughn flew out to Henline, who held Phelps on third. Fitzpatrick hit a hard one at Rath, who made the luckiest kind of a stop, Lush batted for Tesreau and was out on Parent's good stop and throw.

It was certainly Baltimore's day. They played fast ball, but also all the luck of the game was with them.

The Leafs left for Providence tonight. Rudolph will pitch to-morrow's game.

D.B.A. TOURNEY STARTS GOOD SKIPS GO DOWN

A New Record Established When Only One Default Takes Place —Draw for To-Day

The nineteenth annual tournament of the Dominion Lawn Bowling Association got off to a good start yesterday, when a record was established by only one default. The greens of four clubs were kept busy from 2 o'clock until dusk, and the trophy competition preliminary and first rounds were got over with. The Ontario cup was also started.

Many surprises were sprung, and after the smoke had cleared away, it was seen that some of the skips with big reputations had fallen. J. Stevenson of London R. C. put A. F. Webster of Queen City out of the trophy after a hard game. Tom Rennie had it easy with A. Cash of Stratford, while R. Ripley of Hamilton got a two shot win over J. Anthony of Parkdale. J. S. Willison, Canadas, won by two shots over the Mahoney rink of Guelph; Armstrong's Parkdale four put the strong Euler five from Berlin out of the trophy by one shot. R. B. Rice had it easy with Cameron's R.C.Y.C. four. Two Buffalo skips scored victories in the trophy competition. Dr. Maguire was one up on Blackman of Toronto Thistles, and N. L. Mitchell put the strong Van Valkenburg, Kew Beach rink, out with a 13 to 9 score. W. J. A. Carnahan was four up over the McCurdy aggregation. Yesterday's scores were as follows:
