Nops Had Torontos at His Mercy—Billy Reid Did Well in the Box

Toronto never had a chance in the contest on Tuesday and were shut out. Nops delivered up clever ball and the home team never got the semblance of a hit in the nine innings. Nops had only one fault, namely, his wildness. He passed three to first. The Toronto amateur, Bill Reid, was in the box for the Toronto professionals. He didn't do badly. He was somewhat wild, however, hitting two and passing two more. Only in one inning—the second—did the Providence men hit him at all freely. In the second Connor singled, was sent on by Reid's wild pitch, but was out between second and third on Thomas' drive. Rock beat out a bunt hit and Aubrey's single tallied Thomas. In the third Harris secured another bunt. Milligan fanned, but Conn was hit and Harris and Conn worked a double steal. Daly's fly to left let Conn in, White making no attempt whatever to throw to the plate. In the fifth Nops singled to right and was let to second by Fuller's passed ball. Conn's single was responsible for the run. Daly died out to Murray, who by a strong true throw nailed Harris at the plate.

Mr. Daly when he appeared at the plate in the second was presented by his team with a gold-headed umbrella. The Providence team evidently appreciate very highly their genial manager. The score:

Final at Lindsay To-day.

Lindsay, Sept. 27.—Sudden death and the final game for the championship of the Midland League takes place to-morrow, the 28th, between Bowmanville and Lindsay, on Lindsay's diamond. This is expected to be a great game, as both nines are playing the singery kind of ball, and will be witnessed by an immense crowd. A special excursion train leaves Cobourg Thursday morning, passing thru Port Hope, Bowmanville and Oshawa, via Whitby, to Lindsay, and will carry a large number of fans and rooters. If Lindsay wins they will be only too tickled to play Cobourg for their $100 and add it to Lindsay's fat bank account, and close up one of the most successful seasons Lindsay has ever had on the green diamond.

Amateur Baseball.

The Capitals, winners of the West Toronto Juvenile B. B. League, will receive their medals on Thursday night. All players should be on hand to receive them. The Capitals have had a successful season, winning 14 and losing 2 in their league, and defeating the Westmorelands, winners of the City Juvenile League. The Capitals challenge any juvenile team in Toronto for the championship. Address F. Hopper, 593 Dundas-street, Brockton.

The Royal Canadian B. B. team are requested to turn out to practice to-day at Sunlight Park at 5.30.

A Splendid Display.

A number of challenge cups are on view at Sharp's ticket office, 80 Yonge-street, being the special prizes presented by the Canadian Pony Society to the annual Canadian Horse Show and the National Exhibition. They are beautiful cups and the pony society are to be congratulated on the splendid selection they have made.

The new interest which creeps into some particular section of the prize lists at the different shows was especially instanced this year by the handsome cups offered at the different exhibitions thruout Canada by this society. The organization is doing good work on behalf of the lovers of the ponies at the several horse shows and exhibitions and undoubtedly the largest display of ponies ever shown was in attendance at this year's Canadian Horse Show and National Exhibition. All the classes and types were exceptionally good, and the members of the pony society made large entries in all the different classes.

These cups will be on exhibition all this week and will no doubt be viewed by a large number of people.

The winner of the C. P. S. Challenge Cup at the last Canadian Horse Show was Master Eric Skead of Ottawa with his beautiful little pony Lady Dainty. This cup is on view also.

TORONTO HUNT VICTORIOUS.

Beat Rochester Polo Experts in Close Game by 5 to 3.

Tuesday afternoon at Sunlight Park the polo team of the Toronto Hunt Club, after a most exciting contest, defeated the Rochester polo team, before a large and fashionable audience, all of whom were delighted with the article of polo put up by both teams. The weather being all that could be desired, many ladies graced the occasion arrayed in all that fashion could devise. Precisely at 4 o'clock, the umpire, Colonel F. L. Lessard of the Fortlined, tossed the teams for the fray. Toronto at once assumed the offensive, and got down at Rochester's goal, J. E. Osborne putting the ball thru after a minute's play. On resuming play, Sweny of the Toronto team put the ball thru in a minute, after some excellent play. Rochester now got busy, and after some hard riding and checking notched a goal, after four minutes' play, S. Wilder doing the trick. After the face-off, the Yankees pressed hard and secured another goal in four minutes, J. G. Averell being the scorer. Toronto now took a hand at rushing, and Sweny scored another goal after 10 minutes' hard and fast riding, both teams displaying excellent horsemanship, the poor handling of their mallets. After a rest, both teams played a 10-minute period without scoring. On lining up, Rochester tallied another, their last goal, Averell doing the needful for the minute. Toronto scored the seventh and eighth goals in nine and four minutes respectively, Emslie and Sweny doing the scoring. Sweny of the Hunt Club team and J. G. Averell of the Rochester team were the luminaries of the game, their shooting and horsemanship being excellent and aggressive. The following is the summary:

Toronto (5): J. E. Osborne, Captain Van Straubenzie, Captain Sweny, Mc. Emslie.

Rochester (3): J. S. Wadsworth, S. Wilder, J. G. Averell, Mr. Van Voorlus.
