PRESBYTERY OF LONDON.

A Vacancy in the Pulpit of London East.

What the Various Churches Within the Bounds Raised Last Year—Other Important Business.

The Presbytery of London met in the First Presbyterian Church, city, on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. J. Currie, of Belmont, moderator, presiding. The Presbytery opened with public worship. Minutes of previous meetings were read and the clerk instructed to insert a reference made from Kintyre session at the January meeting. As thus amended the minutes were sustained. Mr. Ball, of Vanneck, was appointed moderator for the next six months.

Messrs. J. A. Murray, Munro, McIntyre, Wilson, Kelso, Ball, Clark, Henderson (ministers), and D. McKay, G. Stevenson, J. Scott, G. W. Armstrong, Neil McArthur, Robert Scott, F. Cheesbrough, J. McVicar (elders), were appointed commissioners to the General Assembly.

Mr. D. K. McKenzie, of St. Thomas, stated that Knox Church, in that city, had increased the stipend of their minister to $2,000.

Rev. W. M. Roger, of London East, laid his resignation of that charge before the Presbytery, and in so doing briefly reviewed his work in connection therewith. The debt of $3,000 had been reduced to $750, and there had been a large growth in the membership. The financial weakness of the congregation, however, had led him to take this step. In connection with this resignation the report of the committee appointed to visit London East was read. Six hundred dollars was raised last year for stipend, but the session and board of managers did not encourage the committee to hope for an increase. The committee recommended: 1. That in case of a vacancy occurring, $200 should be asked from the augmentation fund. 2. In case of settlement, $300 be asked for from the fund. It was moved that the resignation of Mr. Roger be received, and the congregation cited to appear before this Presbytery in their interests at the next meeting of Presbytery that may be held. Carried. It was resolved that the amount of aid from the augmentation fund to London East for the expiring six months be applied for, viz., $100; and that for the ensuing six months, at the rate of $200, be applied for in case of vacancy, and $300 in case of settlement.

It was resolved that for Aylmer, application be made for $100 for the expiring six months, and $150 for the ensuing year.

For Hyde Park and Komoka, it was resolved to make application for $75 for expiring six months, and $150 for the ensuing year.

For Wardsville and Newbury, it was resolved to apply for $175 for the expiring six months, and $300 for the ensuing year.

For Alma Street, St. Thomas, it was resolved to apply for $75 for the expiring six months, and $150 for the ensuing year.

For North and South Delaware, it was resolved to ask $75 for the expiring six months, and $150 for the ensuing year.

For Delaware and Caradoc, it was resolved to apply for $150 for the ensuing year, in case of settlement.

For Port Stanley, it was resolved to apply for $3 per Sabbath for the past six months, and the same sum for the balance of Mr. Black's term of service.

It was decided to apply for a grant of $2 per Sabbath to North Ekfrid while it is receiving student supply.

A petition from numbers of Bethel and Proof Line Church who live near Bryanston was presented by Rev. Mr. Little, asking to be organized as a district congregation, accompanied by a subscription list of $170. Thirty-one members and 30 adherents signed the petition, and Messrs. A. Grant and Wm. Elliott were heard in support of the petition. On motion the prayer of the petition was granted.

Session records of North Westminster and London East were certified to by committees who had been appointed to examine them.

Quite a little breeze was stirred up as to the question whether a member of the court should leave the room without permission of the moderator, but it was good-naturedly settled by the understanding that ordinary rules of courtesy should settle the matter.

The clerk read a statement of the sums subscribed by the various congregations in the Presbytery's bounds during the past year to the schemes of the church as far as returns had been made:

English settlement, $366; Thamesford, $648; Fingal, $476; St. Andrew's, London, $2,353; Duff and Chalmers' Churches, $108; Kintyre, $426; North Westminster, $1,424; South Westminster, $337; St. Thomas, Knox Church, $1,765; Wardsville, $90; Newbury, $18; Melville, Lobo, $126; North Caradoc, $85; Glencoe, $802; Mosa, $124; First Church, London, $1,479; Dorchester, $134; Crumlin, $116; South London, $347; Belmont, $83; Kilmartin, $55, Dutton, $164; St. James', London, $71; Aylmer, $72; Springfield, $25; Riverside, $2; South Caradoc, $4; Hyde Park, $171; Komoka, $91; Bethel, $128; South Delaware and Tempo, $47; Ailsa Craig, $402; Carlisle, $89; Port Stanley, $21; Rodney and New Glasgow, $54.

It was resolved that the clerk notify all congregations who had fallen far below the average that the Presbytery desires them to take up a special collection for the church schemes before the books are closed for the church year.

Rev. Mr. Gordon presented the report of the treasurer and the finance committee. On motion the report was adopted, the thanks of the Presbytery extended to the treasurer, and he was instructed to levy in accordance with the recommendation of the report.

An application was made by Messrs. Langford and Forbes asking that they might be given the status of catechists in the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Forbes, being present, was called upon to definitely state the reason of his making this application. After he had made a statement, it was resolved that Mr. Forbes appear before the next regular meeting of the Presbytery for examination in his doctrinal views and general religious knowledge, and that a subject be prescribed upon which he shall prepare a discourse to be then delivered.

The session of English settlement asked for the appointment of four assessors to deliberate with them in a difficult case. The petition was granted and the following gentlemen appointed: Messrs. Miller and J. Ballantyne, ministers; J. Young and A. Thompson, elders.

The court adjourned at 6 o'clock.

Presbytery met at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

In regard to Mr. Langford's application, it was resolved that it be laid on the table, and that he be asked to appear at next meeting of Presbytery.

In regard to the report on Sabbath schools, a note from Mr. Dewar, the convener, was read, declaring that as he had received so few replies to the circulars sent out he was unable to make up a report. It was resolved that the convener be instructed to send in his report to the convener of the synod's committee within a week.

Mr. Sawers presented the report on systematic beneficence. All but three congregations in the Presbytery had sent in replies. The report recommended: 1. That an effort be made to find out what proportion of the membership set aside a definite proportion of their income for the Lord's work, and that pastors be advised to emphasize the Scriptural method of giving as the Lord prospers. 2. That Sabbath schools be supported wherever possible by the congregation, and encouraged to contribute to church schemes. The report and its recommendations were adopted.

The report on Sabbath observance was read for the convener, Mr. D. Currie. The following recommendations were attached to the report:

1. That a better method of distributing blank forms be adopted, so that all blanks for the year should be sent together. This was dropped. 2. That the subject of Sabbath observance shall occupy a prominent place in the programmes of young people's societies, in the work of the Sabbath school and in the pulpit. Carried. 3. That the people be instructed to spend Saturday in such a way as to make it as much as possible preparatory to the Sabbath. Carried.

Mr. Armstrong gave notice of motion that in future deputations from Presbytery should have their expenses paid out of the Presbytery fund.

The Presbytery adjourned to meet in First Presbyterian Church, London, on the second Tuesday of May at 1 o'clock p.m.

Killed Trying to Save Her Pet.

BALTIMORE, March 15.—Katie Swedinger, a bright little 7-year-old girl, was playing with a pet dog this morning when the animal ran into the street. Just then a cable car came up, and striking the dog killed it. The little girl ran to save her pet, and in reaching for it fell beneath the car. She was wedged between the front wheel and the grip bar. An officer and a citizen attempted to extricate her, but so tightly was she wedged in that she could not be moved. Jack screws were employed to raise the car, but she was dying when she was removed.

True Merit Appreciated.—Brown's Bronchial Troches are world-renowned as a simple yet effective remedy for Coughs and Throat Troubles.

In a letter from Hon. Mrs. Pery, Castle Grey, Limerick, Ireland, they are thus referred to:

"Having brought your 'BRONCHIAL TROCHES' with me when I came to reside here, I found that, after I had given them away to those I considered required them, the poor people will walk for miles to get a few." xt
