LONDON AND DISTRICT

—The clearings at the London Clearing House for the week ended today amounted to $903,575.

—Mr. J. Morgan, 703 King street, is a specialist on paeonies, of which he has 25 varieties. He exhibited today some beautiful specimens.

—William Anderson, an employe of Perrin's biscuit works, had his hand badly smashed in a machine and will be laid up for some time.

—Yesterday County Treasurer McEvoy delivered $12,000 in county debentures to the Woodmen of the World, the debentures bearing interest at 4 per cent.

—The case of Bummell vs. McGowan which had been set for hearing at the county court, has been settled out of court. Attwood vs. Fox, an apple packing case, will be heard Friday.

—Rev. Dr. Woodburne, of this city, medical missionary to India, who for a year and a half has been in charge at Yellamanchili, has arrived in Akidu, to take temporary charge there until the return of Mr. Chute in the fall. An interesting letter from Dr. Woodburne appears in the Baptist today.

—Mr. Sam Charlton, who for many years was a member of the Seventh Regiment band in this city, and is widely known as a clarinet player, is dangerously ill in a hospital in Toronto. Last week Mr. Charlton burst a blood vessel, and his condition has since been very serious.

—At Brantford on Wednesday, Mr Harry Crayston, traveler, of this city was married to Miss Luella Maud Vanderburg, of that city. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. F. Cooper, by Rev. T. W. Kelly, B.A., of Beamsville, uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. W. J. Smith, pastor of Colborne Street Methodist Church in Brantford, in the presence of only the immediate relatives. Later Mr. and Mrs. Crayston left on a honeymoon trip to Detroit.

—In the lists of the graduates in arts of Toronto University are the following students from Western Ontario, all of whom were awarded the degree of bachelor of arts at convocation on Friday last: Miss M. C. McCutcheon, Thorndale; Albert J. Elson, Hyde Park; Charles W. Bishop, London; W. Scott, Strathroy; W. N. Harrison, Glencoe; Miss E. A. Weekes, Glencoe; Miss K. M. Duncan, Thamesville; Miss J. I. Anderson, London; G. R. Elliott, London; L. A. Eedy, St. Thomas; A. P. Gundry, Aylmer.

TO DECORATE GRAVES.

On Sunday afternoon next the members of the local camps of Woodmen of the World will assemble at Sherwood Hall at 2 o'clock, and proceed to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, where they will decorate the graves of deceased sovereigns. The ceremony, which is an annual one, is very interesting, and usually attracts a large number of citizens.

STILL NO WATER.

The dust flew in clouds along the Dundas street pavement yesterday, but the contractor appeared to be in blissful ignorance of the fact, and, according to the statement of one merchant, made but one trip in nearly two hours. The merchants say that every time their doors were opened their stores were filled with dust, and not only did they suffer much inconvenience, but their goods in some instances, were spoiled. It is understood they intend to appeal to the chairman and members of No. 3 committee to see if they cannot get redress.

LONDON IS FAVORED.

The Port Huron Times says: F. C. Wood, chairman of the M. and M. excursion committee, and who has visited Detroit and London, with the view of holding the annual excursion at one of the places, favors London. He says that people do not often have an opportunity to go there on a cheap excursion.

HIGH COURT DELEGATES.

Five delegates will go from Court Welcome, I. O. F., of this city, to the high court, which meets in Sarnia in August next. The following have been elected: Messrs. Thos. Ball, Fred J. Darch, Wm. Jenkins, Henry Lennington and E. Moyer.

CASE ADJOURNED.

Rex vs. Watterworth Bros., of Glencoe, the conspiracy case recently heard at Chatham, has been adjourned till June 23. J. C. Watterworth and Percy Watterworth, of Glencoe, are charged with conspiracy to defraud Kelsey Ford and others in the sale to them of an article known as the Arctic Creamery. C. G. Watterworth and Percy Watterworth are charged with the same offense as against William Cowan et al. James C. Watterworth is charged with obtaining a promissory note for $58 from Kelsey Ford by false representations. The accused elected to take all three trials before Judge Dowlin, of Chatham, and it was agreed between the crown and the defense that all three charges should be proceeded with at once as the evidence in all cases was similar and practically the same. Several witnesses were examined in the case, after which an adjournment was made till Thursday next.

Queries Answered.

GLENCOE—Can a postmaster legally collect rent for an open box in the postoffice? Answer—Yes, if authorized to do so by the Postmaster-General's regulations, but not otherwise. PRESENTATION TO MR. W. C. BARRON

Retiring Organist of First Presbyterian Church Receives Handsome Gift.

Last evening, after prayer meeting, at the First Presbyterian Church, an interesting event took place, which went to show the esteem in which Mr. W. Caven Barron, the retiring organist, is held by the congregation. On behalf of that body, Rev. W. J. Clark presented a set of Wagner's works to Mr. Barron. There were fourteen volumes, handsomely bound in full morocco consisting of "Parsifal" and "Ring of the Nibelung," the works in the latter being "Das Rheingold," "Die Walkure," "Siegfried" and "Die Gotterdammerung." These beautiful operas were printed on German China paper and make a most handsome set as well as a valuable one.

In making the presentation Mr. Clark referred feelingly to the relations that has existed between Mr. Barron and the congregation for so long a time, and the regret that he found it impossible to continue as organist.

Mr. Barron acknowledged the gift, and after this the Ladies' Aid served refreshments, an adjournment being made to the lecture-room, where speeches were made by Messrs. E. Atkins, John Cameron, C. F. Complin, Chauncey Jarvis, Principal Merchant and Dr. J. N. Wood. The affair took the form of a social gathering and the kindliest feeling prevailed.

It is understood that some evening this week the choir will give an evidence of their own goodwill by the presentation to their retiring leader of a handsome piece of furniture. Mr. Phelps, the new organist, will assume his duties on the first Sabbath in July, and on the two intermediate Sundays. Miss Gibson will preside at the organ.

BOTH STAFFS WERE REAPPOINTED

Victoria Hospital Trust Transacts General Business at Its Regular Meeting.

The trust of Victoria Hospital met yesterday afternoon, received reports, reappointed a consulting and attending staff, and awarded a couple of tenders. There were present Chairman Screaton, Messrs. John Labatt and Simon McLeod and Superintendent Heard.

The superintendent's report showed that during the past month the admissions to the hospital had been 59 males, 62 females and 31 children, total 152; discharged 53 males, 61 females and 32 children, total 146; births 8, deaths 5, operations 35, of which 14 were free operations in the public ward.

It was shown that during the past quarter the expenditure had been $12,514 69. This was somewhat in excess of the receipts, but the first three months of the year contain the heaviest expenditures.

The superintendent reported having received $96 96 as the result of collections taken up in several churches on "Hospital Sunday." The churches contributed this amount were St. Paul's, St. John the Evangelist, Christ Church, St. James, All Saints and St. Matthew's—all Anglican churches. It is understood that the other churches have declined to have a "hospital Sunday."

The appointment of a staff of consulting and attending physicians came up, and it was decided to reappoint the present staff for the next two years.

The tender of the London Engine and Tool Company was accepted for an artesian well brass cylinder to replace the present one, which is worn out. The price will be $90.

Jones Bros. will do the partition work in the isolation hospital. On the recommendation of the chairman of the board of health it has been decided that the trust should make the isolation between diphtheria and scarlet fever more complete. The tender was for $300.

It was decided to advertise for tenders for coal for next year.

Trustee Labatt gave notice of motion that he will move for a revision of the bylaws.

IN HONOR OF LORD DUNDONALD

Garden Party at the Residence of Mr. George B. Harris—A Society Function.

The garden party given by Mr. Geo. B. Harris and his daugnter, Miss Harris, at their residence, "Eldon House," yesterday afternoon, was a brilliant success. The guests of honor, Lord Dundonald, and his nephew and aide-de-camp, Capt. Newton, were on the beautiful lawns with the host and hostess, and there were the guests presented. The Cortese orchestra gave an additional charm to the affair with its delightful music, and as the ladies in their beautiful gowns and the officers in their uniforms walked about the magnificent grounds, the sight was without doubt one of the prettiest that has been witnessed in London society for some time.

Members of the divisional staff at camp and the commanding officers, had been invited, and of the former, Major Layborn presented the military men to the host and hostess, and assisted in other ways to the success of the party. Refreshments were served in the dining-room of the house. The party lasted from 5 until 7 o'clock.

Among those of the invited guests who were present on this occasion were: Col. Vidal (Ottawa), Col. and Mrs. Peters and Miss Peters, Lieut.-Col. Macdonald and Lieut.-Col. White (Guelph), Major and Mrs. Carpenter, Major Layborn, Major and Mrs. Cronyn, Capt. Dodge (Ottawa), Lieut.-Cols. MacKenzie, Weir, Wm. Young, Acheson and Mutrie, Mrs. Adam Beck and her guests, Miss Huntley and Miss Bridge of London, Eng.; Mrs. Becher, Capt. Campbell Becher, Major Clark, M. P. P., Bishop and Miss Baldwin, Judge and Mrs. Macbeth, Canon and Miss Dann, Capt. and Mrs. Kaye, Mrs. Labatt, Miss Dora Labatt, Mr. George Gunn, Miss Warren (of Toronto), Mrs. Jack Carling, Miss Carling, Miss Nenone Carling and Mr. T. H. Carling, Mr. and Mrs. Puddicombe and Miss Puddicombe, the Misses Gibbons and Mr. George Gibbons, jun.; Miss Graydon, Mr. A. O. Graydon, Mrs. H. E. Gates Miss Zimmerman and Mr. Zimmerman, Mrs. Durand, Mr. and Mrs. J. Smallman, Mr. and Mrs. F. Farncombe, the Misses Beddome, Miss Maude Denison (Toronto), Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Macfie, Miss Macfie and Mr. Fred Macfie, Mr. and Mrs. Albrook, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Harper, Miss Richardson (Washington), Miss Beatrice Richardson, Mrs. F. E. Leonard, Miss Edna Leonard, Capt. and Miss Magee, Miss F. Macbeth, Mr. George Macbeth, the Misses Boucher, Miss Agnes Moore, Miss Shaw-Wood, Miss Pennington, Miss McDonough, Miss Complin, Lieut. Skinner and Lieut. Bogle.

Mr. W. B. Lawson invites his old customers especially to participate in the special value of the lines he is offering at 198 Dundas street, in boots, shoes, trunks, valises and other leather goods.

Businessmen Want High Insurance Rates Reduced

Present a Largely-Signed Petition to No. 3 Committee.

Steps To Be Taken to Secure Reduction of Twenty Cents.

Storage of Inflammables To Be Restricted—Contracts for Fire Hall Changes.

At last night's meeting of the market, fire and light committee, a largely-signed petition from the businessmen of London was read, praying that the committee do all in its power to facilitate the passage of a bylaw which will put into force the regulations demanded by the Canadian Underwriters' Association, so that the business public may be afforded the reduction of 20 cents in the key rate, as agreed upon by the city and the association some months ago. The petitioners pointed out that businessmen were now loaded up with extremely high insurance premiums, and they asked that something be done to relieve them at once.

A communication from the secretary of the Canadian Underwriters' Association was then read, stating that the association cannot deviate from its set of rules regarding the storage of inflammable materials in the city. In emphatic words the secretary stated that if the business men were to receive the reduction in the key rate, the quantity of oils, such as naphtha, crude, etc., kept within the city limits, except in specially built storehouses, must not exceed two gallons. This was in answer to a communication from the committee to the effect that the council could not see its way clear to pass the clause re the storage of inflammable materials, as it was deemed a little too stringent, and asking the underwriters if it could be modified.

Ald. Greer maintained that it would be a great disadvantage to carriage-makers, hardware men and others, if the clause were put into force, but the letter of the underwriters settled the matter, and the committee decided to recommend the clause to the council.

The committee also discussed the demand of the underwriters for gongs in the houses of the firemen, it being felt that this is a drastic demand to make of the city. The committee, however, agreed to the stipulation, and will get a price as to the cost of installing the gongs. A special meeting will be held next week to consider the matter of the installation.

Consequently, when the above-named requirements are complied with, the entire wishes of the underwriters will be complied with, and the city will be prepared to ask the underwriters for the reduction of 20 cents in the key rate.

A GOOD MOVE.

The committee agreed to have the Canadian Fire Engine Company make at once a number of adapters at $2 50 each, so that hose or engines from other places may be attached to London hydrants in case this city is ever compelled to ask aid from sister municipalities.

The chairman was empowered to purchase a number of straw hats and sateen shirts for the firemen, in accordance with the recommendation of Chief Clark.

The committee also recommended that the Canadian Fire Engine Company be paid in full for the steam fire engine and the chemical engine, Expert Robert Angus having reported that the engines are up to the specifications in all particulars.

Ald. Greer registered a vigorous objection to the way in which the alterations are being made to the Central fire station. It seems the engineer did not get tenders for the work, but simply put Jones Bros. on the job, whereas the committee had promised the council that tenders would be called for. He had no fault to find with Jones Bros., but it was not businesslike to go about the alterations in this way.

Then a tender was read from Jones Bros. for the alterations to the horse-stalls for the sum of $478. I. Quick also offered to paint and grain the recreation room upstaids for $70. Both tenders were accepted.

The rules to govern the firemen, as prepared by Chief Clark, were accepted by the committee, just two additions being made—one relating to the matter of garnishees and the other compelling the men to live on streets covered by fire alarm poles, so that gongs may be put in their houses without the city going to the expense of putting up poles.

AN ABUNDANCE OF FUN AT CAMP; BASEBALL, LACROSSE, TUG-OF-WAR

After Drills Are Over, Soldiers Have a Good Time—Layborn Cup Competition.

Last night saw one of the biggest crowd of visitors at camp that has yet appeared on the scene of military training. In one way it was Twenty-sixth Day. The Twenty-sixth Regiment was on duty, supplying picket, and guards, as well as band. The latter gave a concert in the evening, and one of the Indian companies supplied a lacrosse team, which came out equally as well as the city team, while the baseball team from the Middlesex Regiment, defeated the Whites, of the Wholesale League.

SCENES AT LONDON CAMP—ARMY MEDICAL CORPS AT DRILL.

For the first time since camp started on Carling's Heights, the picket was mounted sharp on the minute, 6:30 o'clock. The picket consists of 25 men two sections of two eights each and three sergeants. Eight men and a corporal comprise the guards. The pickets assemble at 10:30 o'clock each night to learn if there has been any trouble.

At dinner last evening Mrs. (Col.) Welch and Mrs. (Dr.) Berdan and a party of ladies were guests at the officers' mess of the Twenty-sixth Regiment.

Shortly after 7 o'clock the visitors began to assemble on the grounds, and by 8 o'clock there was a very large crowd. In addition to the many citizens present, a good portion of the camp gathered about the front of the Twenty-sixth encampment to watch the fun. And there was a good deal of fun. The Oneida Indians made things lively for the city lacrosse team, but the score when time was up was 1 to 1. The game was, perhaps, unscientific, but it was none the less interesting. The proceedings that followed the game, however, were the cause of even more fun than the game. A number of the soldiers, most of them Indians, had a long stout rope, by which they had kept the crowd back. When the game was through there was a rush to the center of the field, and then the rope-holders encircled these and tied them up in a knot. The crowd back of the rope went forward to watch the fun, and before they realized what had happened, the men with the rope were running back. Then there was another helter-skelter, and people were knocked in all directions, but it was all taken in good humor and no one was hurt. This was repeated until the men with the rope got tired, and then they started impulsively in a tug-of-war. There was no count of the number who took part, or how many each side had. There must have gathered quickly a hundred men on each side, and the pull was a long one before one side got possession of that rope. With the game of baseball in progress at the same time, the lacrosse match, and the band playing in excellent style, the scene was a gay one, and was thoroughly appreciated by all who were fortunate enough to be on hand.

An order was issued yesterday afternoon for the competition for the Layborn cup, to be started this afternoon, the Thirtieth Regiment to march out at 2 o'clock for the marching and firing contest. The other regiments will conclude the contest tomorrow.

The honors in the Bankers' Shield competition went to the Thirtieth Regiment. This shield is given for the best company firing, and the winners were No. 6 Company of the Wellington corps, the highest score being 31. The best regimental firing was also done by the Wellington Rifles. The Thirty-second Regiment came next in order, their best shooting score being 29. The Twenty-sixth and the Twenty-seventh followed in the order named.

The band of the Thirty-third Regiment played last evening at the divisional mess. Capt. Gundry, of this regiment, who has just got back from service in West Africa, joined the regiment in camp last evening for the first time this year. The Thirty-third regiment is ordered to shoot at the cove range today.

In yesterday's orders the following were added to the list of instructors: Sergts. Cockburn, Evans and Millie, Ptes. Morgan and Walliker.

At the Y. M. C. A. tent the last few days, much has "been doing." The provincial secretary, Mr. Macpherson, who has been at the camp since opening, had to leave yesterday to attend the summer conference at Lakeside, Ohio. His place is being taken for the balance of the camp by Secretary Davis, of St. Thomas.

The Twenty-sixth Regiment has an Indian, who claims to be descended from the great Tecumseh. His name is Frank Snake, and when asked if the story were true, he said it was, that he was a great-grandson of the chieftain, the relationship being on his father's side.

One of the attractions at camp last evening was the massed bugle bands. The band of the Seventh Regiment paraded to Carling's Heights, and joined the buglers of the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Regiments, making a total of about 90 boys. In the morning, the Twenty-seventh boys, under Sergt. Webber, practiced in the grove on Oxford street, and were in good shape. The Thirtieth buglers, under the command of Sergt. Bert Ray, have made a good showing all through camp, and the Seventh Regiment buglers have a fine band, as the citizens know. Under the direction of Sergt. Havard they have made great progress during the past year. It is to be regretted that their leader is now to leave London, being employed by the Canada Tin Plate Company, which is moving to Hamilton. Sergt. Havard has got the corps up to a state of efficiency, and has had the co-operation of all, being well liked by the whole band. Needless to say, the Seventh buglers did their share in the thrilling music they furnished on the heights last night.

QUARTET OF JUNE WEDDINGS

A Series of Interesting Events Both In and Out of London.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Crocker, 939 Dufferin avenue, yesterday afternoon, when their eldest daughter, Miss Ada C., was united in marriage to Mr. Edmund L. Liddicott, a well-known business man of East London. The ceremony was performed by Revs. L. W. Wickett and A. H. Going in the presence of only the immediate relatives and friends. The bride was gowned in French muslin, trimmed with chiffon and valenciennes lace and carried a shower bouquet of white roses; while the bridesmaid, Miss Sophia Crocker, sister of the bride, wore gray cashmere with white silk lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bride's traveling gown was of blue broadcloth. The groom was supported by Mr. C. H. Wickett. Mr. and Mrs. Liddicott left on the afternoon train for Buffalo and other eastern points, and on their return will reside at 925 Dufferin avenue.

WESTMINSTER WEDDING.

A pretty home wedding took place on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. Robt. A. Tate, concession 5, Westminster, when his eldest daughter, Vera, was united in marriage to Mr. John Shaver, of the 3rd concession. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. D. L. McCrae, of the First Presbyterian Church, Westminster, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white China silk, trimmed with Irish rose point, and she carried a lovely sheaf of white carnations and maidenhair ferns. Two pretty little cousins of the bride, Belle and Nan Hobkirk, of Hensall, dressed in white organdie, acted as flower girl and ring-bearer respectively. The presents were numerous, beautiful and useful. The young couple, who have the best wishes of a large circle of friends, will reside at Spring Farm on concession 3, Westminster.

ATKINSON—McCOY.

A quiet wedding took place in Chalmers Presbyterian Church, Waterloo street, on Wednesday evening, when Miss Mary McCoy, of Simcoe street, was united in wedlock to Mr. John L. Atkinson, of the G. T. R., by the Rev. Walter Moffat, the pastor of the church. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Martha McCoy, and the groom by his brother, Mr. Thomas Atkinson. The young couple left on the evening train on a short honeymoon trip amid the best wishes of their numerous friends.

ROUGHLEY—COLES.

An interesting event took place at Chalmers Church, 362 Horton street, on Wednesday evening, when Miss Effie Coles, of Dufferin avenue, was united in marriage to Mr. William H. Roughley, of South street. The bride was attended by Miss Clara Bright, and the groom by Mr. R. C. Logan. After a brief honeymoon the young couple will take up their residence on South street, where they will be at home to their numerous friends.

TALK TO YOURSELF.

Why are there so many "don't feel well" moments? What is the cause of these aches and pains? Can I banish them?

When you don't feel well your stomach is not well. That is when the ills of the body commence, and they will never end until the stomach is made right. When the stomach is wrong the whole body is liable to go wrong—Poisonous formations are thrown into the circulation in too great a quantity for the other organs to resist—Nerve tissue poisoned—Sleepless, excitable, nervous, heart irregular, headache, kidneys overtaxed, backache, kidney pains, liver clogged, constipation and bowel trouble. You can end these afflictions by helping the stomach with ANTI-PILL. It is just what a deranged stomach needs. You can prove for yourself by addressing Wilson-Fyle Co., Niagara Falls, Ont., for a free trial bottle. Regular size 50 cents (a months treatment).

On the eastern railway of France the carriages are heated by means of steam and compressed air pipes. The system is adapted to work either with steam alone or with the combined air and steam.
